The New Berne Republican.

THE REPUBLICAN is the official newspaper of the city of New Berne, publishing the Laws and Ordinances of both cities.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27 1868.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

[illegible]

Died—On yesterday afternoon about three o'clock of venerable old age, Mrs. Hannah, wife of Sebastian Bunger, Esq. Mrs. Bunger was a native of New Berne, and widely known among our old citizens. Her loss will be severely felt by her children and friends.

Hotel Arrivals.

GASTON HOUSE.—W. P. Moore, Proprietor.

F. Pittman, Craven county, N. C.; Captain Grey, Craven co.; Geo. Simmons, Craven co.; Mr. Arnold, N. C.; W. T. Lewis, Edgecombe co.; E. D. Robeson, Baltimore, Md.; G. W. Schaack, N. Y.; Fred Johns, city.

New Berne Markets.

Cotton 21¼ to 22 c.; Turpentine $2 50 and $3 50; Tar $1 75 and $1 00.

Nason & Foster, Insurance Agents.

☞ Great reduction in the price of Photographs, at

MORGAN'S GALLERY.

☞ The infamous lie in "Bribery and Corruption" in the Journal of this morning will be attended to in our next issue.

☞ No Mayor's Court yesterday. Justice Berry has issued four warrants for the arrest of parties charged with larceny.

CAPSIZED.—Yesterday while a pleasure party were out sailing in the yacht Lady Grey, and when about a mile and a half below the city, met with a serious accident, a sudden flaw striking the yacht and upsetting her, precipitating the whole party into the water. Fortunately a boat was at hand and rescued the unfortunates, who all escaped with no further damage than a bad scare and a thorough wetting.

GET THE BEST.—Home Manufacture Ready Made Clothing at

BAER & EPPLER'S,
Pollok street.

WANTED VENGEANCE.—We learn that the body of an Englishman, judging from his uniform, washed ashore near Cape Hatteras Lighthouse and was found on Friday morning last. A one pound English note was found in his pocket, together with a letter, a watch, and a photograph, so badly defaced that it could not be known. [illegible] was buried on the beach by some fishermen.

AT A LOSS.—We are at a loss to know, judging from the amount of crime committed, whether our Justices of the Peace are doing their duty or not. Look to our crowded jail and the lively business of many of our Justices of the Peace, and can any one deny that it is their individual duty to do all in their power to encourage morality. Many thoughtless pleasures of to-day lead to base criminality to-morrow. Ask yourself then whether you are not, either directly or indirectly, by your presence or otherwise, encouraging immorality. Remember "large oaks from little acorns grow."

☞ Remember, that whatever is worth doing, is worth doing well.

WHAT A FALL.—Call and see

BAER & EPPLER,
Pollok street.

THANKSGIVING.—The time honored and laudable custom of returning annual thanks to the Great Giver of all good was observed yesterday by a partial suspension of business and by services in the different places of worship. Our national emblem too was pretty generally displayed, and a sight of it upon this occasion, was sufficient to create a spirit of thankfulness in the hearts of all loyal men that it to-day floats in all its glory of Stars and Stripes upon an indivisible Union and a nation of freemen.

Long may the custom of offering thanks for our manifold blessings continue, as its observance is a good proof of christianity and dependence in God of the American people.

NOTICE TO [illegible].—We are now printing [illegible] at this office the following [illegible] especially adapted to our [illegible]. Justices of the Peace Magistrates will find it to their advantage to supply themselves with the [illegible].

Summons, Subpoena, Execution, Venire—Special Sessions, Confession of Judgment over $50, Warrant—Assault and Battery, Warrant of Arrest, Criminal Warrant, Criminal Subpoena, Attachment for Witness, Recognizance to Keep the Peace, Recognizance for Prisoner. Also, Witness and Juror Tickets, and Superior Court Clerk Blanks of all kinds.

Closing Out at

BAER & EPPLER'S,
30 Pollok street.

TOBACCO CULTURE IN VIRGINIA.—From information received from the principle tobacco-growing region in this State and North Carolina, it is painfully apparent that the great staple, tobacco, is so rapidly declining that it will probably be wholly discontinued because of its unprofitableness.—Some planters in Chesterfield and Halifax counties, Virginia, and Caswell, North Carolina, who last season planted immense crops of this staple, have realized enormous losses on their crops, and will plant no more hereafter until it shall become less ruinous to do so.—Richmond Enquirer.
