☞ Be sure and read the article "Morality" in another column.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Before His Honor Mayor Palmer, Louisa Latham who had been committed to jail to await the result of the injuries inflicted by her with a piece of wood upon the person of a child while in its mother's arms, was arraigned for trial but the charge being withdrawn and the parties most interested desiring the acquittal of the girl she was discharged. Caroline Rayford was arraigned on a charge of assault, she having drawn a pistol accompanied by violent threats upon the person of a colored girl, was placed under fifty dollars bail to keep the peace.

JUSTICE'S COURT.—Before Justice Berry. Case of excitement. Dr. Masters vs. Daniel Manly and Henry Brown. Jury: Roswell Mills, John Hutchinson and John Haoff. Verdict for the plaintiff. Full extent of the law allowed defendant in which to move.

Petition of Ephraim W. Watson to lay off and allot a homestead as per article 10 of the Constitution.

Board of Freeholders to allot Jon Hancock F. G. Busser and E. P. Lorch—Petition granted.

☞ His Excellency Governor Holden has issued a proclamation announcing the election of Byron Laflin and Joseph W. Holden as electors at large and Jesse R. Stilley, Curtis H. Brogden, A. H. Galloway, C. A. McDonald, H. A. Bulbum, Rufus Barringer and W. S. Pearson, as District Electors to represent North Carolina in the Electoral College and cast its vote for President and Vice President of the United States and notifying them to meet in Raleigh on the 2[illegible] day of December next for the purpose of casting the vote as required by law.

U. S. MATTERS.—Yesterday several barrels of liquor and boxes of tobacco were sold at auction by Deputy U. S. Marshal Kehoe at his office on Broad street.

These goods had been seized by the Deputy Marshal for violations of the U. S. Internal Revenue Laws and a decree to sell was issued by His Honor Judge Brooks at the last term of the U. S. District Court.

PHYSICIANS who prescribe, and families who use Wines and Liquors, should give the preference to those imported and bottled by Adolpho Wolfe, 22 Beaver St., New York. Each bottle bears the certificate of the proprietor, and are sold at a very moderate price on the cost of importation.

Read the letters and certificates of the Chemists and the Medical Faculty of New York, under the head of "To the People of the Southern States," in another column.

Hearth and Home.

WE shall issue on or before January next the first number of a Rural and Family Paper—to be published thereafter Weekly, and to be devoted to all that pertains to Country Life in its broadest sense.

It will not be partizan or sectarian.

It will be called

and will be under the general Editorial charge of Mr. Donald G. Mitchell; while its Home and Fireside Departments will be subject to the supervision of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe, who will also contribute regularly to every number.

A large corps of associate Editors of high reputation in their special departments, have been enlisted in support of this enterprise; and no labor or expense will be spared to make our paper—in subject matter, as well as illustration—worthy of a place in every household in the land.
