ARTICLE IV.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

Section 1. The distinction between actions at law and suits in equity, and the forms of all such actions and suits shall be abolished, and there shall be in this State but one form of action, for the enforcement or prosecution of all rights, or the redress of private wrongs, which shall be denominated a civil action; and every action prosecuted by the people of the State as a party, against a person charged with a public offense, for the punishment of the same, shall be termed a criminal action. Pleadings herein shall be abolished, and the facts on which relief is sought shall be stated in ordinary language.

Sec. 2. The ordinary remedies shall also remain in full force to be used in such cases as may be provided, a code of law of North Carolina. The Legislature shall have power to fill the remedies according to this constitution.

Sec. 3. The judicial power of the State shall be vested in a court for the trial of impeachments, a Supreme court, Superior courts, courts of justices of the Peace, and such other courts, inferior to the Supreme court, as may be established by the Legislature.

Sec. 4. The court for the trial of impeachments shall be the senate, a majority of the members shall be necessary to a quorum, and the judgment of shall not extend beyond removal from office and disqualification to hold office in this State, but the party shall be liable to indictment and punishment according to law.

Sec. 5. The House of Representatives solely shall have the power of impeachment. No person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the Senators present. When the Governor is impeached the Chief Justice shall preside.

Sec. 6. Treasons against the State shall consist only in levying war against it, or adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court. No conviction of treason or attainder shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture.

Sec. 7. The Supreme court shall consist of a Chief Justice and four Associate Justices.

Sec. 8. There shall be two terms of the Supreme court held at the seat of government of the State in each year, commencing on the first Monday in January and first Monday in June, and continuing as long as the public interest may require.

Sec. 9. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction to review upon appeal, any decision of the courts below, upon any matter of law or legal inference; but no fact shall be tried by any judge of this court; and the court shall have power to hear and determine such cases as may be transferred to it by the decision of the Chief Justice.

Sec. 10. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction to hear claims against the State, but its decisions shall be merely recommendatory; no process in the nature of execution shall issue thereon; they shall be reported to the next session of the General Assembly for its action.

Sec. 11. The State shall be divided into twenty judicial districts for each of which a judge shall be chosen by the qualified electors thereof, and a superior court in each county in each district at least twice in each year for the trial of all causes, civil and criminal, except such as the Legislature may specially provide for.

First District—Camden, Currituck, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Chowan, Gates, Hertford, Bertie.

Second District—Pitt, Hyde, Washington, Beaufort, Martin, Pitt, Edgecombe.

Third District—Craven, Jones, Lenoir, Greene, Wayne, Wilson.

Sec. 12. The jurisdiction of the several courts of justices of the Peace shall be fixed by law, but in no civil action founded on contract, nor in any action for the recovery of real property, or in any action in which the title to real estate shall come in question, and of all criminal matters arising within their counties where the punishment cannot exceed a fine of fifty dollars or imprisonment for one month. When an issue of fact shall be joined before a justice, on demand of either party thereto, he or such party may require it to be transferred to the docket of the court next to be held in the township where the issue of fact joined shall lie for trial, when such issue shall be tried by a jury of six men.

Sec. 13. Appeals from justices of the Peace shall be allowed in all cases to the Superior Court from the same, and if the judgment shall exceed twenty five dollars, there may be a new trial of the whole matter in the appellate court. But if the judgment shall be for twenty-five dollars or less, then the case shall be heard in the appellate court upon questions of law. In all cases of a criminal nature, the party against whom judgment is given may appeal to the Superior Court, where the matter shall be heard anew. In all cases brought before a justice, he shall make a record of the proceedings, and file the same with the Clerk of the Superior Court of his county.

Sec. 14. When the office of Justice of the Peace shall become vacant, otherwise than by the expiration of the term, and in case of a failure by the people to elect, the Judge of the Superior Court for the county shall appoint to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

Sec. 15. In case the office of clerk of a superior court for a county shall become vacant, otherwise than by the expiration of the term, and in case of a failure by the people to elect, the Judge of the Superior Court for the county shall appoint to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

Sec. 16. In case the office of clerk of a superior court for a county shall become vacant, otherwise than by the expiration of the term, and in case of a failure by the people to elect, the Judge of the Superior Court for the county shall appoint to fill the vacancy until an election can be regularly held.

Important to Magistrates, Clerks, Sheriffs and Others.

THE undersigned have in press, and will soon have a complete and full

Analysis of the Laws,

under the Code of Civil Procedure, enacted by the General Assembly, relating to the duties of Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Clerks of Court, and other county officers, together with the Constitution of the State, a list of the Counties as divided into Judicial Districts, the time of holding Courts in the several Counties, the names of the Judges and Solicitors of each Circuit, the names of the Clerks of the Superior Court, Register of Deeds, Sheriff, County Commissioners, Treasurer and Coroner for each County. This pamphlet will also contain the Fees allowed by the new law to the several officers, with some of the most necessary

Forms of Civil and Criminal Process.

The work will contain about 150 pages, and will be a most valuable book of reference for County Officers, sent by mail to any post office in the State, postage paid, for $1 per copy. Address,

NICHOLS & GORMAN,
Book and Job Printers,
RALEIGH, N. C.

TIT THE undersigned are also preparing, under the direction of a member of the Raleigh Bar, a DIGEST OF ALL THE LAWS CONCERNING COUNTY OFFICERS, WITH A COMPLETE SET OF FORMS, adapted to the new order of things. This book, of some 400 pages, will be published as soon as the final report of the Commissioners appointed to revise the Civil Code has been adopted by the General Assembly. The plan and scope of the proposed book will be further laid before the public at an early day.

In the Literary Department we shall present the choicest varieties within the reach of our extended means. The Novelettes, Tales, Poetry, etc., shall be supplied from the best and highest sources, and be equal to anything to be found in any journal or magazine.

AGRICULTURE AND HORTICULTURE,

Embracing Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, etc.—Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empirics and speculation adventurers by which the farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the GERMANTOWN TELEGRAPH is alone worth the price of subscription.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination in gathering and preparing the stirring events of the day, exercised for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and elicited such universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public.

NEW BERNE REPUBLICAN,

THE ONLY

DAILY

Republican Paper

PUBLISHED IN

EASTERN

NORTH CAROLINA.

ISSUED FROM 71 CRAVEN STREET,

NEW BERNE, N. C.

THE REPUBLICAN is issued on an

which shall reflect the sentiments and opinions of the unmistakable loyal population of Eastern North Carolina, by an uncompromising opposition to the doctrines of Secession, and by a fearless advocacy of the eternal principles of Union, Liberty and Equality before the Law.

The Republican will be devoted to the common interests of our people, with "malice toward none and charity for all;" it will plead for the maintenance inviolate of the National Government and its credit; the education by all available means of the people; the encouragement of immigration and the developement of our agricultural, mineral and commercial resources.

While the Republican will be pre-eminently a newspaper, the departments of will receive such attention by Reports, Essays, Reviews and Summaries as space will permit.

Full reports on all matters of Local Interest will form a prominent feature, and as there appears as yet no other in Eastern North Carolina, the advantages which the Republican will offer as an advertising medium are apparent.

AN ORDINANCE

To lay Taxes and Provide for the Support of the City Government.

Sec. 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and Council of the city of New Bern, That for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1869, a tax of one per cent. upon the value of all real estate within the corporate city limits, be and the same is hereby laid and levied for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the city for the said year.

Sec. 2. Be it further ordained, That every person or persons or partnership or company or corporation shall pay a license tax for the privilege of carrying on any business within the corporate limits of the city of New Bern, as follows, to wit:

Sec. 3. Be it further ordained, That if any person or persons shall commence or carry on any trade or business for which a license is required, without taking out such license as is in this ordinance required, he, she, or they shall, for every such offence, respectively forfeit a penalty equal to three times the amount of the tax of Second Class, and be liable to be sued for the same in the name of the city.

Sec. 4. And be it further ordained, That in every case where more than one of the partners hereinafter specified, shall carry on the same business in the same place, one license only shall be required, and the tax shall be levied for such license according to the rate of the partner paying the highest tax.

Sec. 5. And be it further ordained, That on and after the first day of April, 1869, the tax shall be levied and collected, quarterly and monthly, respectively and monthly paid. Any person or persons commencing any business or calling within the corporate limits, in part of a month, may be taxed for such license at some place, under such license, and be subject to the same for each license and every person shall be considered a trader within the meaning of this ordinance, who keeps a place of business where credits are granted in favor of any person or firm, by the separation of a partnership or company, and the tax, if not paid when called for, to be sued out or prosecuted upon the same, and such creditor.

Sec. 6. Auctioneers shall pay ten dollars for the license. Every person shall be deemed an auctioneer who cries or sells any property by auction to the highest bidder.

Sec. 7. Dealers in liquors, including all distilled or fermented liquors, and wines of every description, including Malt and Spirituous liquors. Every person who shall offer any of the above liquors in less quantity than one gallon at one time to the same purchaser, shall be deemed a dealer in liquors.

Sec. 8. Hawkers and Peddlers shall pay four dollars for each license. Every person who shall go about selling or offering for sale any goods, wares or merchandise, or who shall carry about any goods, wares or merchandise for sale, or who shall go from place to place in the streets, or who shall have no place of business, or who shall have a place of business and shall sell any goods, wares or merchandise to be delivered at a place other than his place of business, shall be deemed a hawker and peddler.

Sec. 9. Hawkers and Peddlers in fruit, fish, game, or any other articles of provisions, shall pay two dollars for each license.

Sec. 10. Every person who shall sell any goods, wares or merchandise in less quantity than one gallon at any one time to the same purchaser, shall be deemed a retail dealer.

Sec. 11. Retail Dealers shall pay four dollars for each license. Every person who shall sell any goods, wares or merchandise in less quantities than in packages of one gallon or more at one time, shall be deemed a wholesale dealer.

Sec. 12. Hotels and Taverns shall pay five dollars for each license. Any person who keeps lodging and entertainment for strangers and travellers, shall be regarded as a Hotel Keeper.

Sec. 13. Brokers and Commission Merchants shall pay four dollars for each license. Any person except one holding a license as a merchant or trader who shall buy or sell stocks, money, gold or securities, or who shall act as agent for the purchase or sale of stocks or securities, or who shall act as agent for the purchase or sale of any goods, wares or merchandise, or who shall act as agent for the purchase or sale of any real estate for others, shall be regarded as a Broker or Commission Merchant.

Sec. 14. Theatres, Circuses and Jugglers shall pay a sum not to exceed twenty-five dollars to be fixed by the City Council in advance.

Sec. 15. Bowling Alleys or Billiard Rooms shall pay four dollars for each license.

Sec. 16. Livery Stables and Livery Stable keepers shall pay four dollars for each license.

Sec. 17. Peddlers shall pay fifty cents for each license.—Any person or persons or their clerks or agents, or any other person or persons, who shall go from place to place or from door to door, or who shall have no place of business, or who shall have a place of business, but who shall go from place to place in the streets, or who shall have no place of business, but who shall go from place to place in All Goods as Represented or No Sale!

Cash orders will have prompt personal attention. Consignments of produce solicited, and prompt returns made.

E. HUBBS. O. HUBBS

WANTED—AGENTS—$75 to $200 per month, everywhere, male and female, to introduce the GENUINE IMPROVED COMMON SENSE FAMILY SEWING MACHINE. This Machine will stitch, hem, fell, tack, quilt, cord, bind, braid and embroider in a most superior manner. Price only $18. Fully warranted for five years. We will pay $1,000 for any machine that will sew a stronger, more beautiful, or more elastic seam than ours. It makes the "Elastic Lock Stitch." Every second stitch can be cut, and still the cloth can not be pulled apart without tearing it. We pay agents from $75 to $200 per month and expenses, or a commission from which twice that amount can be made. Address, SECOMB & CO., PITTSBURG, PA., or BOSTON, MASS.

CAUTION.—Do not be imposed upon by other parties palming off worthless cast-iron machines, under the same name or otherwise. Ours is the only genuine and really practical cheap machine manufactured.
