LOCAL.

We were pained to hear of the death of Edwin W. Fuller, one of North Carolina's brightest jewels.

Thanks to Mrs A B Dorsey for jar of Pickles (her own make) which are as green firm and decidedly superior to any Northern pickles we have ever tried.

Our new Mayor, coming up to one of the new Aldermen, just after the election, and finding him setting down rather tired, exclaimed, "Ah, see what promotion has done."

Personal.—Our friend Hussey, of the Landmark, gave us a brief call one day last week. We regret not seeing more of him. His versatility of talent should be employed on a metropolitan journal.

As indicated in our last, the Strange trial resulted in an acquittal, the jury remaining out only fifteen minutes. We trust this verdict will be properly understood, and that we will not soon again be called upon to chronicle so unfortunate a difficulty as that which occurred in Haywood.

Snaky.—We were not a little amused at some old country men to-day telling snake stories. Old man Hines said he had seen 4or acres covered with snakes, out in the South Mountain; but a man from the big mountains of Mitchell thought he had seen as many as twenty acres at one sight, covering the ground at least a foot deep.

Sheep.—Every stranger who comes into this country wants to know why this is not a good place for sheep. The answer has to be, because we have more dogs than are of any possible use, and the dogs and sheep don't live together in peace. The trouble is that irresponsible people will keep a lot of dogs and not feed them. The dogs must live, and mutton is good for dogs as well as man. Can't we raise a dog killing party?"

Our Down the Country Friends.

Heretofore, the elections coming off early in August, prevented many of our eastern friends from leaving home till so late in the season that they often then concluded to remain. Now that the political campaign is lengthened to November, that objection to leaving home does not exist.

There is no question that our State has, in the highlands, a climate and scenery equal to any in America, and if the citizens of this favored region put forth the proper efforts to entertain in a becoming manner our brethren from the low country, and at such prices as will simply justify them, they should be blessed with the presence of those who have heretofore habitually gone north or to the Virginia Springs.

Our people are going to do their duty in this matter, trying to make every one comfortable, and upon terms cheaper than you can stay at home, especially those who live in cities and large towns. We look for thousands more in this region during the season than ever before.

Come on, friends, we have mineral waters equal in healing powers to any elsewhere, and abundance of pure "mountain dew," "smoked" or straight.

Municipal Doggered.

A SEQUEL TO "WHEN OLD MAN DUCK WAS YOUNG."

The agony is over, once more we breathe free,
Old Duck is our Mayor, let us have a big spree,
The wet ticket wins, the Good Templars mourn,
While policeman Sherman looks sad and forlorn.
None now dare molest us or make us afraid,
We can bask in the sunshine or rest in the shade;
Bring out the big gun, let the hilltops resound,
For where else in the State can such a Mayor be found?
No taxes to pay! no streets now to grade!
Pass 'round the black bottle of mountain blockade.
Or if you prefer it, ye "braves" in the tug,
You can take a big swig from the "Little Brown Jug."

—SELAH.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Greensboro votes the prohibition ticket

The gay and festive Cilly has been elected Mayor of Lenoir.

Col. Johnston and the Democratic ticket carry Charlotte by 300 majority.

A Republican speaks of us as the BLUE RIDGE BLADE, or the Radical Guillotine.

Dr. Shakspeare Tate, the crafty Republican of Statesville, spent the last week here.

The Hillsboro Recorder credits one of our articles to the Magnolia BLADE How would the Pasquotank Recorder sound?

Our young friend, C. F. McKesson Esq, just back from the Strange trial is in ecstacies over the eloquence of Duncan K. McRae on that occasion.

One of our town ladies was asked yesterday if she was going to the Philadelphia centennial. She said "no, I thought I would go over to Asheville."

Thomas W Strange and Preston Bridgers of Wilmington, stopped one day in this place last week, waiting to join their friends returning from the great trial.

They are now making brick for the Asylum at the rate of forty thousand per day, and since the introduction of stone coal dust into the mortar, the master builder pronounces them very fine.

The Editor of the BLADE being absent this week, should not be held to account for any short coming in this issue, nor need he be responsible for any thing in it unless he may assume it thereafter. He is supposed to be nursing, about this time.

We call attention to the communication of Col Silas McDowell of Macon, one of the oldest and most intelligent citizens of North Carolina. It gives young America an idea of how the old folks traveled around and how closely they observed things.

We are delighted to hear that the efficient President aided by other friends is making good head way in raising the money to rebuild the college structure at Rutherford College. There is no more worthy object to which a spare dollar can now be contributed.

Mr. Emerson thinks that men should trust each other more, and there seems to be a general feeling hereabouts that he is the man to open a small grocery in this section.—Norwich Bulletin.

Oh, Emmerson! "Thou art so near, and yet so far."

A subscriber suggests the name of Nicholas L. Williams, of Yadkin, who is noted throughout the State for his cordial hospitality, as a candidate for Secretary of State, and urges his nomination. Mr. Williams is a good man and a true democrat, worthy and well qualified.

Wm. Roper, Esq., and others, complain that the convicts employed at the Asylum are allowed too much liberty, and the consequence imposition in various ways upon the neighbors around the site. One of them, it seems, has forged an order on a citizen. How is this?

Centennial kisses are now the go; one hundred without taking breath. A married man in town says the highest he ever went was fifty at a time, and dates back to it as if a long while ago. His wife then had no teeth out in front.—Constitutionalist

We recommend the rejuvinating services of your dentist, Dr. Wardlaw, and to never give it up. Nothing like porcelain and perseverance.

The chief feature of interest in the streets of our town on Saturday, was the sale, at auction, of a large number of stills and fixtures, seized by the revenue officers out in the mountains. It attracted a crowd of interested spectators, among whom, in passing around, might be heard, in low, muttering tones, such expressions as "d—— the revenues," "never mind, we'll remember all this," etc.

The Town Election.—We went to press last week before the result of the election was known, and what seemed at the time we wrote to be an animated and close contest, turned out not to be close at all. We now chronicle the result:

Mayor—Alex. Duckworth.
Commissioners—B. F. Davis, L. A. Bristol, J. I. Beach, J. C. McNeely, D. C. Pearson.

The election of the mayor proves that our subject, "Old Man Duck," was popular, if our verses were not. The battle cry on election day was "opposition to imposition," and if the ticket elected is not a good one, it is a little damp.

Marion.—We were surprised to hear a man on the streets say to-day that the people of Marion were "cussing" out Morganton. They complained in a general way that Morganton wanted everything—asylum, troops, railroad, convict physician, and so on. Our good friends should keep cool and be reasonable. There is not the least ground for complaint on their part against our people, so far as we have any knowledge. So far from it, we are quite confident that the Morganton people have an affection for those of McDowell and Caldwell which they feel for no others in the State. There is not, and never has been, anything like a combination on the part of our people to defeat or interfere with any community in their enterprises. If the removal of the troops to this place is a cause of regret on the part of our Marion brethren, they should know that we had no influence in causing it, and knew nothing about it till the order from Washington was being executed. As to the convict physician business, that was wholly with the Penitentiary Board at Raleigh and was a political appointment, with which we are not supposed to sympathise, and we do know that one of our Morganton men did what he could for the McDowell applicant, just as he has always done liberally aided those people.

Personal.—The handsome brothers, DeLano, publishers of the Lincoln Progress, paid us a visit last week.

Our brother quill-driver, Bowman, of the Bakersville Independent, is with us. He is brim full of Temperance, and lectured here last night. To-day he goes down the road to address the people at Happy Home, Canova and Newton on the liquor question.

Colored Religious Convention.—Our town witnessed its first big turnout of the leading elders in the African Zion when an excursion train from Salisbury arrived here on Sunday last. While the negroes are peculiarly a church going people, the morality of the worshippers is often in inverse proportion to their attendance. We hope, however, that our colored friends will utilize this opportunity and bring forth the fruits of thrift, honesty and virtue.

Rutherford College Commencement.—We are requested by the President to say that commencement exercises will take place at this institution on the 30th and 31st of May, inst. Rev. P. J. Caraway, of the North Carolina Conference, will preach the commencement sermon, and Rev. R. D. Smart, of the South Carolina Conference, will deliver the Literary Address. The Rev. L. E. Stacy will address the Alumni.

Visitors to commencement who buy first class tickets on the railroad going, can return home on them free.

Good Gracious!—The mountains around us are again, this morning, 3d day of May, white with snow! Truly, "winter lingers in the lap of spring." Has the confusion about Easter got anything to do with it? Notwithstanding the cold and backward season, wheat looks well and the grasses are splendid. We now look for warm, growing weather, and a few weeks of such will set us all right.

Burt Loudermilk says: "Yes, tell 'em it was 'shoe-mouth' deep at the Bear Wallow" and for the information of our booted gentry we will state, that means about three inches.

Excursions.—It is a little earlier than usual for excursion trips into the mountains, but we see they have begun it on the Western railroad. On last Tuesday a large party passed up on a special train, returning in the evening to Salisbury. And on Thursday another party of the same sort passed over the road to Swannanoa Gap and back. Each train seemed to be well filled with the "youth and beauty" of the country below, who were enjoying themselves finely. As the warm weather increases, we expect to find it a very popular trip—a run into the big mountains, there to feast at the new hotel and stroll around enjoying the cool breezes and picturesque beauties of that grand region.

Let us Have Peace.—"It is hard to divest one's self of the degrading influences of slavery," as Mr. Boutwell, of Massachusetts, remarked when Senator Bayard told him he was a liar. This apparently truthful axiom of Massachusetts republicanism received a striking confirmation the other day, when a conductor on the Western road "leveled" a man and brother for harmlessly applying to him the language of Mr. Bayard—when, in fact, the negro had only stolen a ride out of him.

We learn that Mr. Morton is to visit our State on the 30th inst, and if there be any of that $250,000, appropriated to suppress insurrection in Indiana, still at his disposal, we beg that he will not fail to come west and give our unreconstructed an idea of his War Governorship. It will then be apparent to him that the result of the late election in his own Indianapolis is beginning to show in the rural districts of the South—while the right of the colored citizen to ride without paying can be vindicated.

Radical Convention at Asheville—Who is Heap?

We learn that a man of that name, from somewhere in the north, by way of Mitchell, together with Mr. Pinckney Rollins, U. S. Revenue Collector, have been appointed by a convention of the "Revenues," held in Asheville on Tuesday last, to represent this district in the Cincinnati Convention. Rumor hath it that the brethren did not "dwell together in unity." The fight was long and heavy, but finally the "Revenues" won. A resolution was gotten through endorsing Gov. Brogden, and what we consider the best joke of the season, another one calling for a repeal of the tax on spirits, as soon as the government can steal it! Revenue officers resolving to take away their pay. There is richness, for you. But they passed a resolution repudiating the action of their State Executive Committee in assuming to appoint delegates for the State at large to the convention. This is hard on the "blond" Keogh and the Honorable James H. Harris, colored.

The Late "Unpleasantness" Renewed.

During the excursion of our Catawba friends on Thursday to the head of the road, whither they had gone in the peaceful interests of Presbyterianism, (the object of the excursion being to raise funds to build a church for that denomination,) we learn that the Blue and the Gray met in combat. The respective champions were Moll, our Yankee bugler at this Post, and Plummer Bobbit of Marion. During the melee the festive landlord of the St. Bernard, remembering he had been Mayor of Morganton and given to squelching rows, essayed to separate the irate excursionists. It is said that Sprague, after persistent efforts in the cause of peace, was the only man scored on the sick list, and his opinion of excursions is now believed to have undergone a radical change. Like the battle of Gettysburg, it was a drawn fight. The cause of the row we suspect to have been bad whisky, and the result, two bruised heads and a dejected landlord. Why will people forget that this is the blessed centennial sea on?

"The Lost Cause."—A magnificent picture 14 x 18 inches in size, beautiful in design and artistic in execution. It represents a confederate soldier after the war returning to his home, which he finds lonely and desolate. In front of the ruined cottage, telling a sad tale of the miseries of war, are two graves with rude crosses, on one of which some friendly hand has hung a garland. To the right the calm river and the rising moon indicate peace and rest. The stars, seen through the trees, represent the Southern Cross. It is a picture that will touch every Southern heart, and should find a place in every Southern home. One copy sent by mail, mounted on a roller and post-paid, on receipt of 25 cents, or three for 50 cents. Address John Burrow & Co., Bristol, Tenn. Agents wanted everywhere to sell our cheap and popular pictures. $5 to $10 per day easily made. No money required until pictures are sold. Send stamp for catalogue and terms.

CUT THIS OUT

IT MAY SAVE YOUR LIFE.—There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Diseases, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. Boschee's German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wonderous cures astonishes every one that try it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to W. M. Walton & Co., and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular size 75 cents. 8-eowly.
