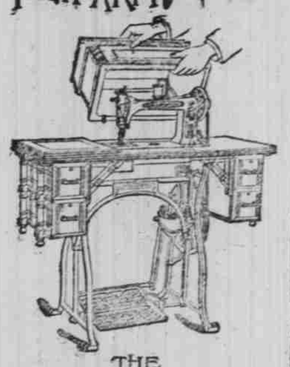
WHEELER & WILSON'S NEW HIGH-ARM No. 9



THE ONLY PERFECT SEWING MECHANISM FOR FAMILY USE.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportions and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knows what she wants and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he insisted that it would last longer; that I might take it on trial days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." Mrs. Ella A. Goff, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.

GIVEN A NEW TRIAL.

Dr. J. A. Baker is Allowed Another Chance to Escape With His Life.

ABINGDON, Va., Oct. 16.—The written opinion of Judge Kelley in the case of Dr. J. A. P. Baker vs. the Commonwealth was filed this morning and states the following as grounds for reversing the county court and awarding the plaintiff in error a new trial: It was improper to allow Mrs. Gilmer to testify before the jury that she had made a confession to her brother when first arrested, and it was error to allow D. H. Care and J. W. Butt to testify to conversations had with Dr. Baker, not tending to prove any admissions by the defendant that he was guilty of either the crime charged against him or of the collateral offence of adultery, this having no other effect than to paint him before the jury as guilty of falsehood.

IMPROPER TESTIMONY.

The long detail of the action of the church officials was deemed improper testimony. Witnesses should not have been permitted to give their opinions as to grief or gladness the day after the death of his wife. They could state his conduct and the jury should have drawn its own conclusions.

DENIED HIM.

The accused was entitled to bring out on cross-examination all that Dr. Taylor, the expert, did in the line of making an analysis of the fluid furnished him by the attorney for the Commonwealth, which right was denied him as to the instructions given the jury at their request, and which stated that they could convict on the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice.

NO COURT CLERK.

If they believed her, the circuit judge thought that in the absence of any request on the part of defendant to give the additional instruction offered it stated a correct principle of law, but at the instance of the defendant the court ought to have added that the jury should use great caution in weighing the testimony of the witness and should not convict unless they were satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt of its truth. Some of the exceptions were not considered, as they probably would not arise in another trial, and it was necessary to grant a new trial on the points already discussed.

The Arizona Kicker on Advertising.

We firmly believe that advertising pays. Here in this town it would be a dead loss to advertise in our contemporary, because he would have to use shingle nails in place of type to set it up, and because no one but his uncle and his wife and himself read his alleged newspaper, and they are too poor to buy anything. But advertising in the Kicker is bound to pay. When a tenderfoot comes here from the East we steer him into such establishments as advertise with us, and a great many of them have left their boodle here through our efforts. We accept all sorts of advertising, from the Louisiana Lottery to the latest Gospel Hymn Book, and we never deviate from our schedule rates.

There are several establishments in town not represented in our advertising columns. We invite them in. We don't say we shall look up their respective records and communicate with sheriffs here and there if they don't, but we feel that advertising will pay them a profit, and that they would feel half as nervous when the stage comes in with a stranger who looks as if he was in the detective business.

Pungent Hits by Sam Jones.

"A church member who is making his preacher do what he ought to do is putting in a substitute, and I never did like that in the war. If I didn't have patriotism enough to fight for the love of my country, you couldn't pay me to do it."

"If there's anything makes one mad, it's to see a whole church in the wagon with a little old preacher in the shafts trying to pull them to glory, and taplhin up every few minutes, expecting him to make it in 2.10, and feeding him on wheat straw."

"A brother too timid to hold family prayer! He can call hogs so as to be heard a mile; but he can't speak to God in a whisper. Affinities control a man sometimes."

"Most of us give not according to our means, but according to our meanness. If the Jews in the twilight of their privileges gave one-tenth, by the grace of God I'll give one-half."

"See a woman get in a six hundred dollar turn-out in a $100.50 silk dress and say, "children I'm going to Missionary Society. I want the poor heathen saved, and I'm going to carry my dime, I always pay my dues."

Rev. Sam Jones says "I understand that by actual mathematics it has been shown that we send to the heathen countries 13,000 barrels of whiskey to one missionary."

We were reliably informed today that the gentleman who was here a month or two ago with a view of establishing a chewing gum factory in Winston has decided to locate his enterprise here. The factory will be in operation by January 1st and will employ twenty-five hands.—Winston Sentinel.
