—Vegetables of all kinds find a ready sale in our markets.

—Candidate hand-shaking is now over in all this country.

—Everybody has his day. Now's the time—these are dog-days.

—The warm weather appears to have discouraged the cremationists.

—Our old friend Riggbee has our thanks for the Raleigh News, Extra.

—Little or no fighting on election day at any of the precincts in the Piedmont section.

—Hickory gave Turner only 12 votes.—There now, Newton, we beat you.

—Turner found $7,500 in a rat hole the other day. All the clerks are hunting rat holes now.

—Attention is directed to advertisement of Dr. C. J. Watkins, which will be found in another column.

—Many, very many thanks for wedding cake—Mr. Logan Sanford, Miss Lida Pearson—Jog on with them!

—Maj. Dunham, the accomplished editor of the Raleigh Daily News, passed up yesterday and promises Hickory a visit on his return.

—A gentleman with a good false eye voices to exchange with any of our citizens possessing a false set of teeth.

—"A revolving fragment of the paleozoic age coiled in on itself gangrenous vegetation," is a new translation of an old proverb.

—Our old friend Jo Weissiger, has returned to Hickory, bought property and settled down. There is no place like H—ickory.

—Col. J. W. McElrath, of Morganton, has been very seriously ill, but we are glad to hear his physicians are hopeful of his recovery.

WANTED.—CAPITAL TO ESTABLISH A LARGE APIARY. Liberal inducements offered and ample security. Address, "Apiary," care PIEDMONT PRESS.

—Frank Irvin the defeated Republican can still console himself with the knowledge that he beat Vance at Lower Fork Township, anyway.

—All the defeated candidates in the Piedmont section seem to take their defeat in a good humored spirit, and tell many a campaign joke on themselves.

—There has been a complete reorganization of the Fair of the Carolina Association, and energetic men are already making preparation for the Fair next fall.

—Grace Church sewing Society, in Morganton, are busily at work on a trousseau about which we must be mute at present lest Will cover when the time comes.

—While all eyes are directed toward Beech and Tilt it should not be forgotten that J. T. Patterson has left best of all grades, for sale, 1 mile south of, or at D. Fraser & Co's in, Morganton.—Advt.

—A greenhorn sat a long time staring very attentively at a cane bottom chair at the Central Hotel. At length he said, "I wonder what feller took the trouble to find all them car holes and put straws round them."

—George Walker, the colored barber in this place, says he voted for Finger, and any man, who will, hereafter, shave Kiss U. world "shave" his own face, with a pocket full of money.

—Dave Ferree declares he never circulated the report in a Republican Township in the South Mountains that John Pool was the candidate for S. P. I. instead of Stephen D. Of course Dave didn't do it. It's not in character with him.

—Nothing lost this whole election is more gratifying to the Sovereign Editor of the Press than the fact that Lower Fork Township in the South Mountains of Burke, locality of the "Beaver battle" gave Maj. A. C. Avery a majority. The usual Republican majority is 75.

LAND SALE.—54½ ACRES of first rate land, 5 acres River Bottom, to the highest bidder, on the 20th inst., at the Homestead.

J. INGOLD.

August 8, 1874. 1t

—The Charlotte Observer advises its readers to go to church instead of remaining at home reading the Beecher-Tilton Scandal.—Good advice, but does not the fact that such a suggestion was necessary argue strongly against the publication of such stuff?

—Mr. Henry Link, of this place, has our thanks for a bunch of grapes, weighing 7 ounces. The "Isabella" variety, of which this is a sample, suits this climate better than any other except, perhaps, our own native "Catawba."

—Two Morganton churches, Episcopal and Methodist, have a female sexton—would say sextoness, but William Cullen Bryant says not. Women figure conspicuously at the arrival of mankind and why not at the departure.

—Two certain carpet-baggers, from Charlotte, who robbed Burke county of two of its brightest jewels, have been circulating between the mountains and the metropolis (?) all summer, furnishing the "local" of the Observer with ammunition to fire at us. Never mind we'll get even before the season is over.

A Mistake.—One of our subscribers who enjoyed not the pleasure of our personal acquaintance, mistook about the ugliest man in town for us, and wanted to pay for his paper. The approached felt good enough at being taken for us, and refused to take the money. We excuse our friend for his mistake, it is so common for such looking men to be smart.

New Store.—H. Brown, late of Wilson, N. C. has arrived in Hickory with a new stock dry goods which he will open in Southerland Bro's old stand.

—Mr. Henry Fox, editor of the Press, in company with J. T. Patterson, left this place Saturday, to hold Watauga Court which commenced Monday last.

—The following board of Commissioners have been elected in Burke. G. P. Erwin, 835; L F Warlick, 824; W M Walton, 614; Thomas Parks, 611; B A Berry, 556. All the nominees elected save one. All are conservatives.

—Several Eastern gentlemen, who have been stopping at the Walton House, in Morganton, speak in the highest terms of the free board rates, and kind attention of the proprietor, J. C. Mallard. Everything conducive to enjoyment is furnished the guests of this hotel, including conveyance to any portion of the mountains.

Hydrophobia in Morganton.—A few days ago a little terrier belonging to Frank D. Irvin, of Morganton was discovered to have symptoms of rabies and commenced biting hogs and everything that came in its way. The dog was shot, but before it died, a little girl about 14 years of age, whose name we have been unable to learn, living with Mr. Irvin, took the dog in her arms, as it was a great favorite. We heard no account of its biting her, but passengers on the train this morning report that yesterday she was taken with fits, falling down and tearing her hair, and the physicians pronounce it a case of hydrophobia.

We hear also that a fine turkey was bitten by this dog the same day he was killed, but has since shown no symptoms of hydrophobia. A hog bitten by the dog has gone mad. When in Morganton a few days ago we suggested the idea of issuing a notice that every dog found on the streets should be instantly killed, for there is no telling how many dogs Irvin's dog may have bitten. What are the lives of all the dogs in the State compared to that of a human soul, yet there are people so devoted to their dogs that they would not even restrain their freedom by temporary confinement for the safety of half the human race.

To the Public.

Having read an article in the Press in regard to contributions to the Orphan Asylum, and not wishing to see our prosperous citizens stand back from such most christian charity, I will, therefore, open a contribution list, for one month from this date, and receive collections for the Orphan Asylum, publish the donation of each person in the PIEDMONT PRESS, and forward the money to the proper officers.

Worthy readers of the PRESS, hoping that you may contribute as liberally as possible, I now offer you a piece of the Old Doctrine in regard to charity. The law makes no provisions for beggars, and there should be none.

Proper care should be taken of the poor, needy and helpless, that none need beg. If one has more than he needs, he owes support to him who needs it. To render immediate help where it is necessary, is the duty of every feeling person.

Yours Respectfully,
JULIUS FLAUM,
Hickory, N. C.

IN MEMORIAM.

CARRIE LOUISE PATTERSON.

Sweetly asleep!
So calm and beautiful
We scarce can think she'll never wake again—
So peaceful—freed forever from all pain—
Sweetly asleep!

My thoughts will robe
With swift recurring flight,
To that dark night, her natal hour,
When life and death with strangely mingled power
Met in this house.

The throes of birth, the agonies of death!
As one soul leaveth earth, one enter'eth!
The aged grandsire with his locks of gray
Lay breathing slow but sure his life away,
And as his failing senses felt the fit strife,
This little new born soul waked into life.

He thinks he whispered, as his spirit passed,
With heavenly provision overcast—
"Oh, stay of here, sweet child,
And blessed heirs without,
And he is there, who paid thy ransom, "sweet,
Oh! stay not here, come with me to His feet."

"Linger awhile,
And strike the rootlets deep
Of tenderest love in mother's, father's heart,
That when they with their gentle dove must part,
Their hearts from earth must leap
Toward the Heavenly heights which Thou wilt gain
And win them, by thy memory, to attain—
Thy home, sweet one."

"I go, in haste to greet
That blessed spirit, waiting in God's light
To welcome me up from earth's darksome night,
My pilgrimage complete.
Life has been drear since she
Through death's dark portal passed from me
And rising swift on rapturous wing
Drew nearer to the infinite.
Together we will watch thee, Love,
Waiting."

And as she staid,
Dove-like in gentleness,
While o'er her Baby face thought shades intense
Flitted off strangely in her repose,
Like the June shadows creeping o'er the hill
When not a leaf is stared, and nature's pulse is still.

But late, over her pure fair brow
Baptismal waters flowed,
And sanctified with sacramental sign
Of Holy Rood.
When in the sacred Rite
"Suffer the little children" fell upon her ear,
"I hear," replied the gentle soul; "I hear."
That spirit voice which called her once before
She recognized now—her day is over,
Only a few days more of tender care,
Of hope and fear, and many an earnest prayer,
No earthly love the precious child could keep,
And with the setting sun she fell asleep—
Sweetly asleep!

WITTKOWSKY & RINTELS
CIRCULAR
FOR MAY 1874

As eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, so is combined vigilance, honest, fair and upright dealing necessary to success in business. Having from the outset (18 years ago,) appreciated these facts, and acted upon them we find ourselves to-day rewarded for the countless anxieties, vexations, and the loss of rest by seeing our long cherished hope realized, of making Charlotte a Wholesale Mart, and OURS an exclusive WHOLESALE HOUSE.

In order to be more explicit, we have the pleasure of informing the mercantile world that we have leased the upper Store, adjoining our present Store, (heretofore occupied by Messrs Brem, Brown & Co., as their Dry Goods Store,) which we will occupy by the first of September next for the Retail Trade only, and will use our present elegant and commodious Store for an Exclusive Wholesale House, thus giving to the trade a strictly "Wholesale Establishment," where they can make their selections from a Stock purchased for that Trade only, thus avoiding coming in contact with a mixed Stock and Retail Prices. The advantages of such a House are too obvious to need further comment.

Particulars of the kind of Goods to be kept in each House, we will give in a future circular.

To give the general readers better conception of the colossal dimensions of our two Houses we state that we have upwards of Thirty Thousand (30,000) feet of superficial floor room; or if a lane of ten feet wide were formed of our stores, it would reach considerably over a half a mile.

At the same time we inform our numerous friends that our Mr Rintels is now again North buying our second Stock this season, and we feel confident that our friends, will again place us in a position to successfully compete with all other houses.

Very Respectfully,
WITTKOWSKY & RINTELS.
