Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—SENATE—Cameron, of Pennsylvania presented a memorial of John Roach, in reply to the memorial recently presented from the Baltimore board of trade. He denies that the New York and Brazilian line is now remunerative, that receipts from trips already made by steamers have not paid expenses and a fair U. S. mail contract is absolutely necessary to the successful establisment and permanent maintenance of a line to Brazil. He declares if the action of Congress shall be such as to enable good swift and elegant American steamers to compete with British lines their hold on our our trade with the Southern hemisphere will certainly be broken and never retrieved. The prospects are that present legislation will take us a step backwards. We asks that our vessels be not driven from "retirement" or "reform." Which if makers and sellers are to be distributors of the Revenue to parties is not so clear as it appears to be during a canvass. But on the contrary. Those who enjoy a certain popularity without [illegible] when they were [illegible] the [illegible] they were beaten, the war. I was only a little buttonhole indulger just to be called the thing.

The Cruel Effects of Resumption.

Philadelphia Times.

We learn with some regret that Commissioner [illegible] has given up the idea of raising gold headed canes from his recently imported bamboo shoots. The soil and climate of this country are both favorable to such an enterprise, but the return of [illegible] to par has made it undesirable as a business venture.

The Mysterious Woolley.

Baltimore Gazette.

When Colonel Woolley backs up in front of the Potter sub committee and takes the oath of allegiance to truth, a shadow of mystery will be thrown over the country. The Veiled Prophet of Khorassan was a plain, blunt man compared with Woolley in the line of the mysterious.

Two Patriots.

New York World.

Old Jonathan Walker, the man with the branded hand, was permitted by the republicans of Michigan to die in wait, but they have it in their power to [illegible] Liberty, and [illegible] will answer for it by sending Mazzini Chandler, the man with the cloven hoof, to the Senate in Christmas space.

A Lie Between Decks.

Boston [illegible]

Excuse of [illegible] proclaiming Grant's alleged [illegible] said to be between Math. Carpenter and John A. Logan. It positively belongs to Logan. There is nothing of the kind about Carpenter.

Robeson's Danger.

New York Sun.

As Robeson is behind most of the agency in stealing the office of President for Tilden, he cannot hope that the latter will disregard the demand of the house committee on naval affairs to prosecute him for corruption.

"Give us a rest" cried a blackback from the gallery of our opera house, to a party in the audience who had been coughing during the greater part of the performance. "Use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup" shouted another victim.—[Exch.]

Convenient, Cheap and Good.

The Old City of Cookes Hotel is now under the charge of Mr. S. P. Horton, who has made arrangements to furnish the public with especially quarters, good board and the best of attendance at a low rate. It will pay you to call and see him.

Housekeepers will find it to their advantage to call on Stroach & Allcott, when they are in need of butter, eggs, chickens, Turkeys, geese or anything in the way of country produce. They sell cheap for cash, and you can always find what you want.

The Legislature Again.

Correspondence of the News.

HALIFAX COUNTY, Feb. 13th.

Will you be so kind as to tell us, through your columns, what the Legislature of North Carolina—the law makers—are doing? We must confess that we have seen but two important subjects handled with anything like proper life; the cutting down of the public printing, and the abolishing the State Geologist. We have waited to see the fence law, the dog law, the State debt and other important subjects handled, until we have lost all hope of seeing them so much as talked of by the Assembly. It is reported here that the Assembly meets and holds a session of two or three hours each day, and that the balance of the time they are on a general frolic, attending balls and various entertainments, amusing themselves as they see fit. And it is said the legislative balls are a general source of mirth. We make no charges, but we ask, are these facts? Are these men who made the people such fair promises, now abiding by those promises, or have they assembled in Raleigh to spend their own money in luxury and ease? Tell us plainly what they are doing! We want to know. We had expected better things from the Senate, where there have assembled some of our ablest men. We are waiting to know if we have been misinformed; we want laws enacted and then we want the Senate and House to go home. If they intend to frolic, tell them to choose another time, and we will get up a subscription for their dance. But now we want some attempt, at least, at work.

A PLAIN FARMER.

A Complete Vindication.

New York Graphic, rep.

Unless Mr. Tilden's testimony is impeached it is as complete a vindication as could be demanded. Partisans may assert that he ought to have known what was going on. But the public will be slow to accept a maxim which, if generally applied, would make every man in the community responsible for the guilty intentions of all his friends and relatives. It must be remembered, too, that Mr Tilden was disproving a negative. The evidence did not connect him with the Legge matter the bribery business. He was called upon simply to deny that he had any knowledge of them, and if possible uproot the feeling generated in many minds that as the old grams were sent to his nephew by his intimate friends the substance of them must have reached him. Mr. Tilden's evidence is in the nature of an explanation. It is complete as an explanation it is all that can be demanded.

The Feebleness of a Richelieu.

New York Graphic rep.

Senility which produces reasoning of this kind ought to be in demand. Cardinal Richelieu was supposed to be dying, but he suddenly arose and confounded his enemies. A well known people was thought not to be long for this world by reason of consumption. But in [illegible] his foes and responsibilities threw away his cough. Scott appears to be with Grover [illegible] his mind rises superior to the infirmities of his body. Whatever may be his ailings his intellectual faculties are seen by Saturday's official to be in their fullest and ripest development.

Give the Old Man a Chance.

It is believed that a combination of these great moral forces [illegible] the masses of our population, which [illegible] all factions as well [illegible] the radical [illegible] Give the old man a chance.

The Tucker House.

This old [illegible] has not long been [illegible] but has already made itself a [illegible] and with the traveling public. The fare is good, the rooms comfortable, while the location is very convenient. These many advantages are appreciated.

The Law's of North Carolina.

Three china tea sets left Law's last week for young pleasure and joy to as many country homes. Several sets of knives with silver forks, also, were brought away by visitors to the city. An exquisite silver plated tea services, from Law's, the gift of her worthy and tasteful husband, made happy one of our city ladies yesterday. More of those splendid porcelain tea and dinner sets can be had at Law's for a few dollars.

Now they say that Hayes has promised Raum to vote to the Freshening the tax on [illegible] should it pass the Senate.

Tons of Grapes and their Use.

It is astonishing to see the large quantity of grapes of the finest quality, and large clusters, that are each year massed up for Wine, at the Vineyard of A. Speer, Passaic N. J. Mr Speer purchases large quantities of grapes, and also raises the Oporto grape from which he makes his celebrated wine, without the admixture of alcohol or spirits. This wine is found by careful analysis to be the best wine in market for invalids and debilitated persons. It is called Speer's Port Grape Wine, and is sold by Druggists. It is extensively used by the rich families in New York at their evening entertainments. Salesrooms 44 Warren street, N. Y. Williams & Haywood, Agents, Raleigh, N. C.

Rescued, Restored, Revived.

It is marvelous how the rounded outlines of the form are restored, the pale and sallow cheek vivified with the ruddy glow of health; the muscular fibre braced and strengthened, the nervous system and the brain toned and invigorated by the steady use of Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil and Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. It is by far the most elegant and effective preparation in the whole catalogue of medicine, and in the disorders indicated by scrofula, consumption, chronic coughs, and the various forms of debility, it is a wonderful remedy. It is also endowed of all its disagreeable properties, and as sweet and palatable as cream.
