After Dark.

By Wallace Harney.

When twilight gathers in her sheaves,
And wheeling swallows skim the stream,
The plowman, turning homeward, leaves
His plow mid furrow in the broom
And through the melancholy eves
The orange drops its milk-white bloom.

Sweet delights that go and come
Through sorrow, in the fall of dew,
Waves that wore a wreath of foam
The darker that the waters grew,
Now round my solitary home
At evening when the stars are few.

Sad and sweet as bridal tears
For broken homes, to see withdraw
Friends we love, have gone the years
We climbed the frosty hills and saw
Ascend on all the frozen meres
The sunlight breaking through the thaw.

Like one who in the driving snow,
When all the untrodden paths are dim,
Hears far off voices faint and low;
Across the woodland calling him,
I hear the loved of long ago
Singing among the seraphim.

And as the soft, dissembling light
Falls, shadowing into dusky red,
I think how beautiful the night
With gathering stars is overspread,
Like seeds of many an old delight
Through sheaves of sorrow harvested.

Slaughter of the Indians.

Among those who escaped from the late massacre was the noted Chief "Dull Knife," by far the most implacable and execrable savage that ever invaded civilized or uncivilized homes—a perfect pest to all beef contractors and immigrants. Are Saving's Banks Secure?

This is a question of vital importance to the industrial thrift of our country; and while our legislatures are pondering the question, we would earnestly advise every one to take Hall's Balsam for Coughs and Colds. Warranted to cure.

LIVER

HEPATINE.

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and all the blood in a strong person about three gallons passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it. This is the natural purgative of the bowels, and if the Liver becomes torpid it is not separated from the blood, but carried through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to escape through the pores of the skin, causes it to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes disordered, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Dumb Ague, Chills, Malarial Fevers, Piles, Sick and Sour Stomach, and general debility follow. MERRELL'S HEPATINE, the great vegetable discovery for torpid Liver, causes the Liver to throw off from one to two ounces of bile every time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an excess of bile, and the effect of even a few doses upon your complexion or a brown dirty looking man will astonish all who try it—they being the first symptoms to disappear. The cure of all bilious diseases and Liver complaint is made certain by taking HEPATINE in accordance with directions. Headache is generally cured in twenty minutes, and no disease that arises from the Liver can exist if a fair trial is given.
