Jefferson Davis at Home.

Boston Herald

Alighting from the train at Beauvoir Station, Miss., you can see two or three small brown structures, a grove of pines, and the white vista of vanishing railway track, glittering with millions of minute refractions of the bright sunshine for miles along its sandy way.

Taking the half perceptible roadway to your right, ten or fifteen minutes' walk through the pines brings you to the beach. Here you see a house built in the airy fashion of this region of perpetual sunshine. This is the residence of the Rev. Dr. Lacock, an aged Episcopal clergyman, once chaplain to the Duke of Cambridge. Beyond the reverend gentleman's estate you see fronting the beach another estate, the residence of Mr. Davis.

Entering the gate you pass across a park dotted with live oak and other trees, festooned with picturesque Spanish moss. Before you is a low and spacious mansion, painted white, with broad Verandahs. At either side, a little nearer the fence, is a small building, a sort of pavilion. While resting in the veranda, waiting for your letter of introduction to be handed to the master, your eye takes in the hospitable provisions for ease afforded by several comfortable rocking chairs, a table and a settee.

Life here is al fresco. The broad hall which goes through the house is open to the breeze, but not to the arrows whose rays are intercepted by the veranda. Here, on the front veranda, six of a morning the ex-President looks to the South, in full view of the Gulf of Mexico, that dazzling, radiant expanse of shimmering blue. Its summer waves glide softly to break in lulling sound upon the white and sparkling sand. The breeze is laden with the strange perfume of the sea. It is the land of the lotus eaters, where 'tis always afternoon. Sitting on this veranda, into what reveries may not the confederate ex-President fall, as he gazes out upon this Mexican gulf, which, had the dreams of the Southern statesman been realized, would have been the inland sea of a mighty empire, stretching to the tropics?

Davis soon summoned to the little pavilion to the right of the mansion. The building is divided into two parts. The rearward is occupied by an ancient favorite negro servant, whose idea of housekeeping is to display his furniture and books on his little verandah. He has a notion of raising vegetable seeds and ends in boxes, and his vagaries excite but a smile. No one dreams of uttering, even for the sake of order, with the privileges of this ancient servitor. The front portion of the pavilion is occupied by Mr. Davis as a library and study. Here I found him slightly indisposed and lying upon a lounge. His manner is genial and very kindly, with that charming courtesy characteristic of the highbred Southern gentleman.

Seventy years of age, Mr. Davis has still a fresh and vigorous look. His full moustache and whiskers are white as snow, but his eye is bright and cheerful. His face in repose is almost severely intellectual, but the smile which lights up his mouth and his quiet, musical laugh dispel the first impression of sternness. Few of our public men have the quiet fascination of manner, the old-fashioned grace and the charming conversational powers of Jefferson Davis. His memory is capacious and retentive. One might, with a phonographic pen, collect great stories of reminiscence from his lips.

LIVER

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and all the blood in a living person passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it. It is the natural purgative of the bowels, and if the Liver becomes torpid the bile not separated from the blood, but circulated through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to escape through the pores of the skin, causes it to assume a yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Chills, Malaria, Fevers, Piles, Sick or Sour Stomach, and general debility follow. Mapatent's Hepatine, the great vegetable discovery for torpid liver, causes the liver to throw off from one to two ounces of bile every time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an excess of bile, and the effect of even a few hours use will be shown in a clear skin, strong nerves, and a well and cheerful spirit, they being the first symptoms to disappear. The cure of all liver diseases and liver complaint is made certain by taking Hepatine in accordance with directions. Headache is generally cured in twenty minutes, and no disease that arises from the Liver can exist if a Cure that is given is SOLD AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR PILLS BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

LUNGS

The fatality of Consumption or Throat and Lung Diseases, which sweep to the grave at least one third of all death's victims, arises from the Opium or Morphine treatment, which simply stupefies, as the work of death goes on. No one will be paid if Opium or Morphine, or any preparation of Opium, Morphine or Prussic Acid, can be found in the GLOBE FLOWER COUGH SYRUP, which has cured people who are living to day with but one remaining lung. No greater wrong can be done than to say that Consumption is incurable. GLOBE FLOWER COUGH SYRUP will cure it when all other means have failed. Also, Colds, Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and lungs. Read the testimonials of the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, Gov. Smith and Ex-Gov. Brown of Ga., Hon. Geo. Peabody, as well as those of other remarkable men in our book, free to all at the drug stores, and be convinced that if you wish to be cured you can only by taking the GLOBE FLOWER COUGH SYRUP. Take no Troches or Lozenges for Sore Throat, when you can get GLOBE FLOWER COUGH SYRUP at same price. For sale by all Druggists.

BLOOD

Grave mistakes are made in the treatment of diseases that arise from poison in the blood. Nine cases of Scrofula, Syphilis, White Swelling, Ulcerous Sores and Skin Diseases in a thousand, is treated without the use of Mercury in some form. Mercury rots the bones, and the diseases it produces are worse than any other kind of blood or skin disease. Dr. Pamberton's Stillingia, a vegetable discovery is the only safe blood purifier, and one of recovery to the worst cases. Stillingia will cure all the cases it is recommended for, and the effect of even a few doses will satisfy any person that it is the most wonderful blood purifier ever discovered. It will be found to be a most powerful vegetable and yet harmless tonic. Price by all Druggists. Globe Flower Cough Syrup and Mapatent's Hepatine for sale by all Druggists. Stillingia only by the proprietors.

DR. TUTT has succeeded in combining in these pills the heretofore antagonistic qualities of a STRENGTHING, PURGATIVE, and a PURIFYING TONIC.

Their first apparent effect is to increase the appetite by causing the food to properly assimilate. Thus the system is nourished, and by their tonic action on the digestive organs, regular and healthy evacuations are produced.

The rapidity with which PERSONS TAKE ON FLESH while under the influence of these pills, indicates their adaptability to nourish the body, hence their efficacy in curing nervous debility, melancholy, dyspepsia, wasting of the muscles, sluggishness of the liver, chronic constipation, and imparting health & strength to the system.
