Lord Salisbury's Recent Speech Attacked.

MANCHESTER, October 25.—At the Liberal demonstration yesterday the Marquis of Harington sharply attacked Lord Salisbury's recent speech. He said that the policy indicated in Lord Salisbury's circular had not been carried out, and the Russian had been confirmed in all the conquests she made by the treaty of San Stefano. Discussing the reforms in Turkey, he characterized Lord Salisbury's defence of the assertion that England had frequently spent blood and treasure in defence of bad governments as an immoral policy, and declared the government's Afghan policy would end in annexation.

Avenging a Brother's Murder.

NEW YORK, October 24.—A special from Courtland, Alabama, says that last May John T. Hawkins shot and killed S F Drake. To day (Friday) J. H. The City Marshal ran up and attempted to pull off Drake, who was beating Hawkins over the head with a pistol. Throwing the marshal off, Drake placed the pistol to Hawkins' head and fired again, blowing out his brains. The grand jury had failed to find an indictment against Hawkins, and his so incensed Drake, that he fired on Hawkins at sight. Drake escaped.

Indian Affairs.

WASHINGTON, October 25.—The following telegram was received this evening by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs:

LOS PINOS, October 21.—Arrived here at 3 p. m. Everything quiet at present. Have had a talk with Ouray, and two couriers have just arrived from the hostile camp, fifteen miles this side of Grand River, about half way between here and White River Agency. Mrs. Meeker, Miss Meeker, Mrs Price and her two children are prisoners in Johnson's camp. The courier met Gen. Adams last night in a day's march from the hostile camp. Ouray believes that the prisoners will be delivered to Adams.

At the Thornburg massacre twenty-three Indians were killed and two wounded. After Thornburg's fight, the Indians knowing Merritt's approach, made preparations for a great battle, and were on the eve of attacking when they received orders from Ouray to cease fighting and retire, which they obeyed.

We wait here for the return of Adams, when the Indians expect to hold a great council, the results of which cannot be foreseen.

(Signed) POLLOCK, Inspector.

The body was otherwise unrecognizable on account of decomposition and bruises. The information comes through a passenger who arrived over the Erie Wayne road at Valparaiso from Toleston.

The Board of Health Declare the Fever in Memphis at an End.

MEMPHIS, October 25, Noon.—One case reported this a. m.—Alfred Brown. Two deaths have occurred—Wm. Johnson, colored, a Bluntyn station, and Joe Lee, at the city hospital. The following is the official announcement of the Board of Health declaring the epidemic ended:

"Owing to a fall in the temperature within the past three days, there having been two good frosts which promise of continuation of cool weather, the Board of Health hereby declares the epidemic of 1879 at an end, and announces that there is but little danger to be apprehended from yellow fever by absentees or other persons coming into the city, provided the instructions published September 29 have been complied with in regard to the ventilation of houses, bedding, clothing, etc. Taking this occasion to advise people of their return to avoid infected places. There are a few cases of yellow fever yet in the city, and a few cases may yet develope, but by ordinary prudence there is no danger of the disease now spreading from that source.

By order of the Board of Health,

J. CHANDLER, M. D., Sec'ty.

The Grant Boom.

James R. Young, Esq., late executive clerk of the Senate, has returned to Washington from among the politicians in Philadelphia and New York. He says the Republicans in Pennsylvania will have a walk over in November in case that all the leading politicians in Philadelphia are for Grant for President, with Blaine as second choice. A ticket made up of Grant and Blaine is much talked of. Mr Young says that in all his intercourse with General Grant, that John Russell, his brother, who traveled round the world with him, never conversed with him on the presidential subject, nor had the General alluded to it in conversation with any body; that Grant paid the bulk of his expenses on his trip, and that they were aware that he is worth about $150,000 but has it tied up in such a way that it does not yield him much of an income. Mr Young says that his brother represents General Grant to be one of the most theatrical men that he ever knew; that he is constantly contributing to the aid of his relatives, and takes satisfaction in doing it.

THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

When in New York Mr. Young met Colonel Keogh, of the national Republican committee. Keogh told him that soon after the November elections the national committee would meet to choose a place for holding the national convention. There seemed to be an impression on Keogh's part that the convention would be held in Chicago, although there was a good deal of clamor for Philadelphia, and that Indianapolis had offered to build a wigwam in which to accommodate the delegates if it met in that city.

Pitt County Exodus Meeting.

Upwards of 2,000 congregated in town on Saturday to devise means for emigrating to Kansas. The crowd was addressed by Austin Flood, who advised them to leave for Kansas without thought of the morrow. Others favored Liberia, and, by far the greater portion of the speakers and hearers favored staying at home in the land of their birth. No arrangement was made for leaving and the meeting adjourned in confusion without having effected any organization, or making any plan for the proposed exodus. Another meeting is called for November. The darkies were much disappointed at having left their work to come to town for nuthin', many of them claiming that the meeting was only a trick of the merchants, who wished to get them here for the benefit of trade, &c.

We shall not discourage the exodus. If the colored people desire to go we will not lift our little finger against it. If they can stand it we certainly can.—Greenville Express.

A Sad Tale of the Sea.

HAVANA, October 22.—The steamer Pajaro Del Oceano, whose loss on the voyage between Porto Rico and St. Thomas was reported yesterday, took fire in the cargo among boxes of petroleum. In five minutes she was ablaze. As far as known at present 40 of her passengers and crew perished. Her boats were dashed to pieces by the screw and only one boat load of people—the one reported yesterday—is known to have been saved.

NEW ORLEANS, October 23.—The passengers and crew of the steamer Pajaro Del Oceano rescued by the steamer Louise H. were brought here. Capt. Voss reports that about 9 o'clock on the evening of the 18th, while passing through the Bahama channel, heard a hail, lowered a boat, which picked up five men clinging to a frail raft. Learning from the rescued the nature of the disaster that had occurred the Louise H. cruised in the vicinity until far into the forenoon of the 19th and succeeded in picking up in all 17 men. From Capt. Duzy, of the Pajaro, a Times correspondent obtained the following particulars:

The steamer left Havana October 16 for Neuvitas with a general cargo, including a large lot of grain, provisions and ammunition for the Spanish army. Everything was all right until about 4 o'clock on Saturday morning, October 18, when an alarm of fire was sounded. General confusion ensued; some of the passengers and crew were running to the stern of the vessel and jumping overboard in their night clothes with whatever small articles they could lay their hands on, while others were trying to lower boats. The vessel turned to the water's edge and sank in less than four hours. There were on board 42 men as the crew and some 17 or 20 passengers, including about six officers and soldiers of the Spanish army. The Louise H. picked up 17 of the unfortunate, including the captain, two mates and one sailor. These parties when picked up had been floating 18 hours on pieces of plank and were almost baked. Five of the crew, who took to a small boat, are supposed to have been picked up. One boat was lowered and some twenty persons, passengers and crew, took to it but are supposed to have been lost. Those who were picked up were in a fearful state from their long exposure to sun and water. They are all stiff and sore in every limb and in their destitute condition present a pitiable sight. Doubtless many were eaten by sharks, for the second mate and companion who were floating with a plank to support them saw a shark approaching and managed by climbing on top to avoid him a moment, when he turned and went away. The Pajaro was owned by R. Herrera, of Havana, and was formerly an American vessel, known as the Niagara. She ran between New York and Havana.

More but Better Dogs.

We have often heard it said that a pound of wool could be raised as cheap as a pound of cotton, yet if we are to wait to introduce sheep husbandry on anything like a business scale, until the Legislature passes what is termed the dog law, we fear that it will be a long way off when sheep raising will be restricted to much extent. Our plan is to introduce more dogs, but of different breeds. We have hoped to see sheep husbandry introduced as a business, under the constant supervision of shepherds, who had their trained sheep herd dogs to aid them in protecting and bringing up their flocks at night. We repeat, that it appears to us not to be so difficult a task. Let our people provide against the ravages of the dogs by getting more and better dogs, than to get our Legislature to enact laws to tax or have destroyed the worthless thousands. If the money the State is using in hunting and hauling around young fish was used in importing a better stock of dogs, it would do more good to the State in the end, is our candid opinion.—Goldsboro Mail.

The Vacant Missions.

It is not likely that the appointments of ministers to England and Russia will be made at an early day. The President and Secretary Evarts have had a conference on this subject, at which it was agreed that as it would be rather humiliating to an appointee to go to England or Russia and then fail of confirmation by the Senate, that it would be better to make no appointments until Congress reassembles formally before. A number of names are under consideration for both places, but no selection, it is authoritatively stated, has yet been made. It is not considered at all likely now that Galusha A. Grow will be named for Russia, as he expressed the determination to refuse in case he was thus honored. He desires to come to the U. S. Senate as Senator Wallace's successor, and would not leave his chances to look after the matter.

Doesn't Want to go to Kansas.

Dick Rufin, who lives on the land of R. M. Cox, Esq., near Black Creek, in this county has three children which are chips of the old block. One day last week they picked out cotton with the following result: Moses, 8 years old, picked 162 pounds, Annie, 7 years old, 148 pounds and Delphia 6 years old, 111 pounds. According to age and inches we think this will beat the State. Dick is an honest, hard working colored man, has five in family, and his store account this year has been only ten dollars. He expects to make with his own force 10 or 12 bales of cotton and 60 barrels of corn.

It is cited as a rare instance of Democratic courtesy at the South that the Democratic Governor of Texas the other day lent the Republicans of Austin a cannon belonging to the State to be fired for the purpose of celebrating the Republican victory in Ohio.

R. A. BYNUM'S
Old Apple Brandy
The popularity which this Brandy has attained induces me to bring it more generally to notice. If you like a good, pure article, this I am willing to guarantee; and if you have any scruples as to using it as a beverage you may be assured of its mild, stimulating and invigorating qualities in a medical point of view. It is receiving the unqualified endorsement of men eminent in the medical profession in all the forms of disease of a wasting and debilitating nature, where it becomes necessary to support the failing powers of life; and I am filling orders from convalescents from distant parts of the United States, from whom I could produce certificates, but I prefer that my Brandy should speak for itself. It is CAREFULLY DISTILLED FROM THE JUICE OF THE APPLE, and is, as its name implies, APPLE BRANDY! free from all adulterations. I am now prepared to ship it to any part of the United States in bottles running six to the gallon, at $1 25 per bottle.
You are respectfully referred to the correspondence below.
Orders must be addressed to the undersigned; as I have no agencies, and all packages will be marked C. O. D., express or freight in all cases will be paid by the purchaser. Money sent by Registered Letter.
I will also supply PURE SCUPPERNONG WINE at $1.00 per bottle.

GREENVILLE, N. C., March 21, 1878.
To the Washington Hay Concern:—
I have personally and intimately known R. A. BYNUM, of this county, since boyhood, as a wounded soldier. I was struck by him at Bethel. His word may be implicitly relied upon in all things. He is incapable of knowingly misrepresenting a thing or deceiving anybody.
He is the maker of the best article of Apple Brandy I have ever seen or tasted. Those wishing to get an elegant article of pure Brandy will be sure to do so by applying to him.
THOS. J. JARVIS.

FARMVILLE, Pitt County, N. C., Feb. 28, '79.
His Excellency, Z. B. Vance:—
DEAR SIR: After having on several occasions, both at my house and elsewhere, tasted of my "Old Apple Brandy," will you be so kind as to give me your opinion as to its excellence and purity? I think some four or five years ago you sent some of it to a friend in London, England, who thus becoming acquainted with its superior merits, challenged with it the makers of the best London Dock Brandy. May I not ask you also to inform me of the result of that contest, if you know it? I have the honor to be,
Yours truly,
R. A. BYNUM.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
State of North Carolina,
RALEIGH, January 9th, 1879.
Mr. R. A. Bynum:—
DEAR SIR: Your note is received, and in answer thereto it gives me pleasure to say that I believe your Brandies are the purest and best evidence of our home manufacture.
In 1874 I presented a gentleman in London with a gallon of your make and he said it excelled anything he had ever seen made from fruit, and that all his acquaintance who had tasted it thought it equal to the best brands of grape brandy.
If people will drink spirits as a beverage it is a pity that they should not confine themselves to such pure, unadulterated and honestly made spirits as your Brandies.
Respectfully and truly yours,
ZEBULON VANCE.
