IN AND ABOUT THE CITY.

There were no certificates of incorporation filed with the Secretary of State yesterday.

There were baptismal services at the Tabernacle Baptist church last night, several candidates being baptized.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Christ Church will meet Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of the president.

Dr. Benjamin Sledd, of the faculty of Wake Forest College, was in the city yesterday on his way to the University of Virginia.

Maj. W. A. Graham, Commissioner of Agriculture, left yesterday afternoon for Wayne county to attend the Farmers' Alliance meeting.

There will be a barbecue in the Capital Club basement on Thursday, given by St. Luke's Circle for the benefit of the Old Ladies' Home.

Sheriff Kearney, of Franklin, who was in Raleigh yesterday, says the continued rains in his county have damaged both cotton and tobacco.

Mr. C. S. Lambeth, formerly of Raleigh, but who for the past five years has made Greensboro his home, is on a visit here for the first time since 1901.

Prof. J. B. Carlyle left yesterday for Trenton, Jones county, where he will address a picnic gathering composed of Masons, Odd Fellows and Woodmen of the World.

Grand Secretary B. B. Woodell left yesterday morning for Waynesville and Balsam, and will probably visit a number of Odd Fellow lodges beyond those points before returning. He expects to make the Balsam Inn at Balsam Mountain, his headquarters for the next two or three weeks.
