NORTH WILKESBORO

North Wilkesboro, March 6.—An enjoyable meeting of the B. O. A. club was held with Miss Teresa Crowser at her home Tuesday evening. After several games of auction bridge, a delicious salad course was served. Miss Pauline Harris, of Roaring River, was a guest and gave a reading which added much to the merriment of the club.

Miss Sunie Elms at her attractive home on "The Heights" entertained the "B. O. B." club a few evenings ago. Tables were arranged for bridge and several games enthusiastically played after which the hostess, assisted by Miss Ruby Barnes, served a delicious salad course. Upon leaving the guests heartily expressed themselves as having had a most delightful evening.

Miss Olite Sherrill entertained the A. G. T. club at the home of Mr and Mrs. W. F. Trogdon last week. On arrival the guests were served to hot chocolate and cake. Rook was one of the features of the evening, after which a delicious salad course was served.

Miss Louise Finley gave an elegant dinner party Saturday evening complimentary to Miss Ruth Hodges, of Linden.

Mrs. Arthur A. Finley entertained the Matrons Club Tuesday afternoon. Ice cream and cake was served.

The Every-other Wednesday Club met last week with Mrs. W. R. Martin and enjoyed a most delightful meeting.

Mrs. Landon Carter, of Carrollton, Missouri, left Wednesday morning, returning home after spending several months with Mrs. W. R. Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Foushee and daughter, Miss Pauline, of Charlotte, arrived the first of the week to make their home in North Wilkesboro. They will live in the Valley Hotel. Mr. Foushee having accepted the management of that popular hotel for the summer. He expects to be able to bring a number of Florida people here for the summer. He was many years ago a native of Wilkes county and has since lived in Statesville, Miami, Florida and Charlotte.

Mrs. Edward Lentz was hostess at the last meeting of the Friday Afternoon Book Club. She served a delicious salad course.

Miss Fan Cranor entertained the Athens Book Club on Friday evening. Among many other things the guests enjoyed the game of rook. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moore, who for about a year has been manufacturing and shipping spokes and handles at Ferguson, with their two children, have moved to town and temporarily occupying rooms over the Hustler office.

ELIZABETH CITY

Elizabeth City, March 6.—The C. M. B. class of the Blackwell Memorial Church was entertained Tuesday evening by Mrs. C. F. White at her home on West Main street. Encouraging reports were brought in by the various committees, fifty-nine visits having been made by the visiting committees, religious literature placed in seventeen homes and seven new members added to the class.

R. T. Venters conducted the class, the lesson being the concluding chapters of "Winning to Christ."

The Mission Study class of Christ Church met at the rectory Friday afternoon; there was a large attendance. In an animated discussion on the necessity of a board of missions, different members impersonated a volunteer, a missionary, a native Christian, and the home parish, and what would be the effect on each of them if they depended on chance contributions instead of on the board.

The Travelers Club held one of the most interesting meetings of the year Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roscoe Foreman, on Pennsylvania Ave. The papers were unusually fine, the article on Moscow by Mrs. C. P. Brown was delightful. Mrs. Wesley Foreman charmed the club with "Russian and Polish Musicians," giving at the close of the paper piano solos from both Russian and Polish musicians, and a vocal solo. Mrs. Foreman served a dainty salad course after the literary feature of the afternoon. Those present were Mrs. Delos Crary, Mrs. Charles Perry Brown, Mrs. M. H. Sawyer, Mrs. W. H. Jennings, Mrs. Roscoe Foreman, Mrs. Wesley Foreman, and Mrs. M. L. Sheep.

A marriage of considerable interest to their friends and relatives in Elizabeth City, was solemnized Monday evening in Norfolk, in the Selden Chapel of Christ P. E. Church, the contracting parties being Miss Amy Pinner, of Columbia, and Mr. Malvern Tillet, of Norfolk. Both of the young people were former residents of Elizabeth City and have many friends here.

Mrs. Gertie Bland, of Baltimore, who was called to Elizabeth City by the death of her sister, Mrs. Ida Simpson, returned to her home on Thursday.

A pretty little entertainment was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. John Snowden, at her home on Church street. Mrs. Snowden welcomed her guests and handed them the dainty score cards, partners were found and a game of rook was enjoyed. A salad course was served by Mrs. Snowden, assisted by Miss Mildred Spence.

Mrs. John Wells entertained at "rook" Thursday afternoon.

CARTHAGE

Carthage, March 6.—On Friday evening, February the twenty-sixth, the ninth grade of the Carthage graded school entertained at the home of Thomas C. Black, the president of the class, with the senior class and faculty for honor guests.

Throughout the rooms, ferns and ivy made a pretty background for the red and white of the senior class colors. Over the arched doorway connecting the reception room and library, a huge red and white "1915" added its welcome to the gracious greeting which the guests received at the front entrance from the president and his receiving line.

After conducting each new set of arrivals to the dressing rooms on the second floor, Miss Pearle Stutts and Miss Julia Black led them back into the lower hall where refreshing punch was served by Miss Ellen Cagle and Miss Carrie Barbour.

The guests were then taken in charge by Miss Lucy McIver and Miss Helena Harrington, who helped them find partners for the contest that followed. Miss Lyda Bauoom and Miss Myrtle Muse tied for the prize, a box of chocolates. Miss Bauoom drew the lucky straw and the prize was presented in rhyme by little Miss Ruth Humber, the mascot of the senior class.

Following the contest, unusually dainty refreshments were served in the dining room, which very effectively emphasized the general color scheme of red and white.

No class reception in the history of the school has been more skillfully planned or more charmingly carried out than was that one at which the senior class and faculty were the chief guests on Friday evening.

FAYETTEVILLE

Fayetteville, March 6.—One of the most charming social affairs of the season was a social informal party at the home of Dr. Leary Highsmith, and his sister, Miss Bessie Highsmith. The attractive house was decorated with ferns and cut flowers. Six tables were arranged for rook. After the arrival of the guests, George Washington hatchets were distributed, coupling off the guests. Progressive rook was enjoyed for quite awhile. Then the prize, which was a large box of candy, was awarded to Miss Lucile Gorham, the winner, by Mr. Tom Hunter, who delivered it in a very original manner. During the game candy was served. The refreshments consisted of a salad course. Afterwards instrumental and vocal selections were rendered by several of the guests. At twelve o'clock the guests left, but very unwillingly. Every one declared that the host and hostess were most charming entertainers.

Those present were: Misses Dora Kerner, of Kernersville, who was the guest of honor; Helen Renolds, of Salem, Va.; Nettie Brogden, of Goldsboro; Mary and Lucile Graham, Annie and Mamie Highsmith, Eunice Parker, Mary H. Sheetz, Winnie Burton, Ruth Sedberry, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, of Jackson, Miss., Messrs. Floyd Sanders, Joe McPhail, John Davis, Albert and Paul Stewart, Tom Hunter, Jack McPherson, Daz Olive, Ray, Pittman and Raney.

Misses Mamie and Annie Highsmith gave a very delightful English tea last week. It was one of a series of teas which have been given in this style. Cards were enjoyed for awhile after which tea, and a delightful salad course were served.

OXFORD

Oxford, Mar. 6.—The largest and most brilliant function of the season was a reception and lecture on last Thursday afternoon, under the auspices of the Woman's Literary Club, in honor of the Misses Gottschall of Philadelphia, house guests of Mrs. A. A. Hicks.

The home of Mrs. John G. Hall, one of the club members, had been tendered for this occasion, and that handsome colonial residence on South Main street never looked more festive and attractive than at this time when it had been elaborately decorated with growing plants and cut flowers.

Numerous bowls of yellow jonquils the club flower, were placed here and there in the reception hall and parlors—the large folding doors were rolled back and the entire lower floor thrown en suite to accommodate the guests of the afternoon.

The club president, Mrs. E. K. Hays being absent on account of sickness, Mrs. A. H. Powell acted by request in her place, looking after the formalities for the club according to her prerogative. Besides Mrs. Powell those who received with the Misses Gottschalk were Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hall, host and hostess of the afternoon, Mrs. A. A. Hicks and Miss Julia Minor, the latter a friend and schoolmate of the young Misses Gottschalk.

Those who stood at the door to welcome the guests were Mrs. C. D. Ray, Mrs. E. T. White and Mrs. H. O. Furman. Others who acted on the reception committee were Mrs. H. M. Shaw, and Miss Susan Graham.

The elder Miss Gottschalk who has spent many years abroad traveling through Europe and certain countries of the Orient, was the speaker of the occasion. She entertained her delighted audience for an hour with a graphic account of a journey to Greece and Thessaley. Her description of historic and legendary locations, her impressions of the manners, customs and dress of some of the people and her account of certain eventful experiences while taking the circuitous journey to her destination were interesting in the extreme. Miss Gottschalk is possessed of a forceful personality, a most pleasing address, and a style that is at once versatile and charming. She has just returned from an extended visit to the South where she and her cousin, the gifted and famous American soprano, Belle Gottschalk, who accompanied her, were frequently the guests of women's clubs and where they entertained large audiences most charmingly with descriptive lectures and concerts. The younger Miss Gottschalk has recently completed a five years course of study in Berlin under finished masters of the vocal art. She has appeared with great success on the concert stage in Germany and Russia and had engagements booked for two years ahead when the war in Europe forced her, with many more musicians and artists to cancel all engagements, and return to America. By special arrangement, while visiting friends in Oxford, she appeared at the Orpheum theatre on the evening of February the 26th and rendered a program that none but the highest type of artist could have mastered. Belle Gottschalk has a rare and beautiful voice and ranks easily with the recognized young prima donnas of America. One can see that she is fired with a spark of the divine afflatus, and belongs to that class to whom "God has whispered in the ear."

The Woman's Literary Club was indeed fortunate in being thus honored and entertained by the Misses Gottschalk, and would welcome another opportunity to greet them.

At the conclusion of the lecture light refreshments of hot tea, and sandwiches were served the guests by the Misses Alleine Hicks, Margaret Capehart, Estelle White, and Ruth Shaw, "daughters of the club."

NEWTON

Newton, March 6.—The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church was entertained at a reception Friday afternoon by Mrs. George Warlick, president of the society. It was a unique affair in its character, being a progressive information affair wherein facts and figures about missions and foreign countries as well as home missions, were given in as the guests moved from table to table until the missionary journey was completed, whereupon they were served with coffee, wafers and sanwiches. The hours were 3 to 7 o'clock.

Miss Matt Cochran presided at the first table where China was the subject. Miss Cochran was appropriately dressed in Chinese costume of silk. There was a display of pictures of mission schools in China, teachers, etc. Mrs. R. F. Caldwell at the next table told of Korea. Mrs. F. T. Cox of Mexico and Brazil. Mrs. G. Cleve Little of the young people's part in home and foreign missions, and Mrs. A. C. Sherrill's table was devoted to the children's part. Mrs. W. E. Bacon gave information as to immigration and Mrs. C. H. Mebane about the women's share of the mission work. Rescue work and orphanage homes were described at the table of Mrs. C. W. Thurmond. Mrs. C. L. Everhardt discussed social facts; Mrs. W. M. Biles, wife of Pastor Biles, of the church, had a display of sewing and other handiwork from the Wesley home in Winston-Salem, showing marvelous things that children from the first grade up have made. The president, Mrs. Warlick, told how mission money was gathered and spent, and discussed the work among colored people in the South.

It was thoroughly interesting and thoroughly enjoyable throughout, and of lasting practical ghod in the campaign for mission purposes carried on by the society here.

Mrs. M. A. Stewart was hostess to a number of her friends at a five-course dinner at her elegant home on South Main street Friday evening from 7 to 11 o'clock. Rook was played, Mrs. W. D. Cochran winning the prize, a beautiful piece of crochet, and Miss Lizzie Bost the booby, a bottle of ketchup. "Catch up" was the hostess's admonition as she delivered the consolation. The guests were Mrs. George Winecoff, Mrs. T. E. Harwell, Mrs. W. W. Rhyne, Mrs. C. L. Everhardt, Mrs. Vena Little Goode, Mrs. W. D. Cochran, and Misses Mary Hardister, Nannie Phillips and Lizzie Bost. There was music by Mrs. Goode, Mrs. Cochran, and Miss Hardister, and Miss Phillips sang a solo.

Miss Julia Boyd entertained four tables at progressive rook Thursday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. J. Stewart. Mrs. Stewart served punch as the guests arrived. Walter Bolick and Miss Gertrude Moehlmann won the highest score and were presented with the prizes. Cream and cake were served.

Mr. William R. Sell celebrated his sixth anniversary Tuesday. In honor of his birthday they ate before him his favorites, corn [illegible] and custard but he said the [illegible] of rest him a drink. Mr. Sell was born in upper Cleveland county March [illegible] 1856. He carried the flag of company E, 57th regiment through most of the big Civil-War battles, was shot three times and spent the last eight months of the war in prison at Camp Chase, where he had smallpox and suffered many other things that were intended to kill people. He is coming out alive and declared to felicitate on his 59-year-old Tuesday.

Miss Mabel Bacon [illegible] hostess to the "I Should Worry Club" [illegible] ago. The hostess served a delicious salad course. Miss Morgan Kline also entertained this club at her handsome home on South Main street. This was the regular business meeting of the club. Miss Kline served delicious refreshments.

STATESVILLE

Statesville, March 6.—A delightful meeting of the Woman's XXth Century Club was held with Mrs. F. T. Meacham Wednesday, at her home at the Iredell Test Farm, two miles from Statesville. In addition to the club members, a number of other guests were present, including Mrs. H. L. Meacham and Miss Calla Meacham of Raleigh. A very interesting program was carried out. The problem of "Farm and Factory Labor" was presented by Mrs. I. H. Whiting and Mrs. Myers stated the advantages of extemporaneous rendering of club program topics. "How Club Women May Aid Our Rural Schools" was given by Mrs. Fred H. Conger. Mrs. R. A. Cooper, the club president, commended the University Extension Work and gave a synopsis of Prof. McKee's lecture on North Carolina's humorists. Mrs. D. M. Ausley followed with a reading from O. Henry's most humorous story "Handbook of Hymen" and told of the North Carolina application of Danish Folk Schools for Adults, and encouraged club efforts to establish same. A "Mentor" outline for a Shakespearean review was submitted. Miss Frances Clonings favored the club with a number of piano solos. Refreshments were served by the young daughters of the hostess.

Mrs. C. M. Steele was hostess to the Clericomoh Club Friday afternoon. Mrs. J. L. Cowan had charge of the program for the afternoon. She was assisted by Mrs. Eugene Morrison and Mrs. E. B. Watts.

The Neighborhood Bridge Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. E. N. Lawrence. In the game Mrs. Eugene Davis made the high score. A salad course was served.

Miss Charlye Tomlin entertained the Dixie Young Neighborhood Club last night.

The Thursday Afternoon Club met with Mrs. L. E. Hosch. Current events were discussed and quotations were given from the Lay of the Last Minstrel, by Sir Walter Scott. Mrs. L. White read a paper on the "Lay of the Last Minstrel." Mrs. D. A. Moller, Mrs. W. M. Berringer gave a history of Melrose Abbey, and Mrs. G. E. Turner had a selection from the Lay of the Last Minstrel. Two courses of refreshments were served.

A very interesting and enjoyable social event was a masked fancy dress party given Saturday night by Mr. J. H. Hoffman in honor of Miss Amelia Hoffmann, guest, Miss Kauffmann, of Danville. The guests attended in two relays, the first company from 8 to 9:30 being friends of the hostess, who do not dance, while the last company from 9:30 to 12 were young people. There was dancing during the latter part of the evening. All the guests were masked and some of the costumes were very unique and attractive as well. The guests had not little trip in their effort to identify each other.

The Bachelor Belles were entertained Friday afternoon by Misses Grace and Evelyn Shepherd. The time was devoted to sewing and talking.

THOMASVILLE

Thomasville, March 6.—At her beautiful home Mrs. J. I. Hasson delightfully entertained the members of the Embroidery Club and a few other friends on Wednesday afternoon. Tiny American flags formed the decoration on the dainty score cards for the game of "rook." At the close of the game it was found that Mrs. Zed Griffith and Mrs. J. E. Lambeth had made the same score. In cutting for the prize Mrs. Lambeth was the lucky one and received a limb of the famous cherry tree, which was filled with salted nuts. Mrs. C. H. Newby received the consolation, a miniature cherry tree. In the beautifully appointed dining room, which was made more attractive by shaded lights, an elaborate four-course luncheon was served. The place cards were suggestive of the patriotic season. The club members and friends who enjoyed the hospitality of this favorite hostess were: Mesdames Zed Griffith, J. A. Meares, J. E. Lambeth, J. A. Green, C. H. Newby, Z. V. Crutchfield, W. E. Hargett, W. H. Peace, Misses Mamie Harris, Ida Mae Yow, Margaret Hoover, Perry Griffith and Lillian Yow.

On Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. Thomas, on Main street, the Brierfield chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was delightfully entertained. Business matters of importance were discussed after which Mr. C. H. Thomas was presented and made the statement that he would at any time present to the chapter a check for one hundred dollars to be used toward marking the graves of the Confederate soldiers in the Thomasville cemetery or to be used in the way the ladies thought best. Words of thanks and appreciation were freely given Mr. Thomas. To the delight of all present, Mr. Thomas gave the Dixie call and war time melodies on the handsome piano. Mrs. J. A. Morris read an article relating to the origin of the song "Dixie" and Mrs. Thomas read the humorous selection, "When Rubenstein Played the Piano, after which Mr. Thomas gave on the Pianola the selection by Rubenstein referred to in the reading. Other numbers were given both on the Victrola and the Pianola. Assisting the hostess in serving the two course luncheon was Miss Cora Perkins of Lenoir, sister and house guest of Mrs. Thomas.

Thomasville was again favored with a visit from Miss Mobbie D. Hamilton of Chautauqua, N. Y. on Monday afternoon in the graded school auditorium she gave a very interesting and enjoyable lecture on Longfellow. Our Best Loved Poetry. The auditorium was filled with students, members of the local C. M. S. S. and interested friends. On Monday evening the main auditorium of the Main Street Methodist church was filled with eager listeners to the lecture on Tennyson, and on Wednesday evening Miss Hamilton was again greeted by a large audience. Miss Hamilton has won many friends and admirers in Thomasville and the entire town feels deeply indebted to her for the literary treats and uplifting messages which she has given here.

During her stay in Thomasville Miss Hamilton was entertained by Mrs. J. W. Peacock and Mrs. C. Marshall Hoover. On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hoover gave a delightful dinner party in honor of Miss Hamilton, those present being Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Cochrane, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Peacock, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lambeth, Misses Annie Thomas, Ella Lambeth and Corinna Shelly.

On Thursday evening Miss Flora Thompson celebrated her twelfth birthday by entertaining her teachers at an enjoyable six o'clock dinner. After the dinner a pleasant hour was spent at the Lee Amusement Theatre. Those present were Misses Merrie Richardson, Corinne Auman, Katharine Hoskins and Ida Maie Yow.

Invitations reading as follows were issued the first of the week:

Mrs. James Erwin Lambeth
At Home
Friday, March 5, from 4 to 5:30 o'clock

Mrs. McAuley
Mrs. Bost
Mrs. Little

At the home of her sister, Mrs. G. A. Martin, Miss Fuchsia Marshbanks of the graded school faculty, pleasantly entertained her fellow teachers and Misses Corinna Auman and Lettie Green, on Tuesday afternoon. The time was delightfully spent in pleasant conversation and in making fancy stitches. Mrs. Martin assisted with the afternoon's honors and by her presence added much to the pleasure of the guests. An appetizing five course luncheon was served to the following ladies: Misses Mary Grace, Katharine Hoskins, Merrie Richardson, Ruth Hall, Flora Hutchinson, Sara McCollum, Nannie Thomas, Mary Wells McCulloch, Lettie Green, Corinne Auman and Lillian Yow.

On Wednesday after Miss Mobbie D. Hamilton was guest of honor at a delightful dinner given at "Arlam" by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lambeth. Those present were Mrs. Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. C. Marshall Hoover, and Mr. J. E. Lambeth.

Mrs. J. H. Mock has returned from a visit to Eastern Carolina.

Miss Ella Lambeth has returned from Winston-Salem after enjoying a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Courtney.

Miss Helen Johnson is the guest of Miss Catharine Cramer in Charlotte.

The Missionary Society of the Main Street Methodist church held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. J. W. Lambeth on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. North, of Greensboro, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Thomas the earlier part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Johnson attended the recital given last Friday by their daughter, Miss Kate Johnson, who is taking a postgraduate course in the Voice Department at Meredith College.

Mrs. Silas Dodson, of Greensboro, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. L. Laws.

On Saturday, February the 27th, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Yow entertained at a six o'clock dinner. Lovely spring flowers lent charm and beauty to the home, Asters being used in the parlor and yellow jonquils in the dining room. This being the anniversary of Longfellow's birth, the place cards bore quotations from this universally beloved poet. While the guests still lingered around the festive board, Miss Lillian Yow, in original and appropriate lines, announced that the occasion also celebrated the anniversary of her father's birth. This surprise was followed by numerous congratulations and good wishes from those present. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. D. M. Litaker, Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Pritchard, Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Tabor, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Hayes and little Miss Mary Arden Hayes.

HENDERSON MAN TO WED.

Engagement of Tennessee Girl to Jack C. Oates Announced.

Henderson, Mar. 6.—The following from a Sweetwater, Tenn., paper will be of interest to friends of Mr. Oates in this section:

Mr. John R. Gaines announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Frances Louise, to Mr. Jack C. Oates, of Henderson, the marriage to take place in April.

Miss Gaines is the youngest daughter of the late John R. Gaines and Mrs. Gaines, and was reared here.

The family is well known over the State and the name intimately associated with its early history. Many friends and relatives not only in town but in Knoxville and Chattanooga are interested in Miss Gaines' happiness.

Mr. Oates is a highly esteemed and prominent young business man in his home town. He has made many warm friends here during his visits.

Mr. Oates, who formerly lived at Tarboro, is now with the Henderson Loan and Real Estate Company, and since coming to this city he has made many friends here.

In Honor Miss Gregory.

Henderson, March 6.—Mrs. Walter H. Finch, of Roblitts, this county, gave a delightful surprise birthday party Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Blanche Gregory, a charming young lady of Henderson.

Games of rook were played and music added to the pleasures of the evening. The attendance of ladies and gentlemen was large.

Elegant refreshments were served in courses.

Later an elaborate supper was served at which the following guests were entertained: Misses Nettie Allen and Laura Smith, Messrs. Thomas Gill and J. B. Allen.

The fair honoree received many handsome birthday gifts.

It proved a delightful occasion.

"GETS-IT" a Sure-Shot for All Corns

Use Two Drops—and They Vanish.

"Murder! Everybody Tries to Step on My Corns!" Use "GETS-IT" and You'll Have No Corns to Be Stepped On.

When corns make you almost die with your shoots on, when you try to walk on the edge of your shoes to try to get away from your corns, you're way behind time if you have not used "GETS-IT." It's the corn cure of the century. It goes the way the sure, painless, simple way. It makes a fellow really feel foolish after he used to cutting salves, corn killing compounds, toe mutilating knives, plasters, bleeding razors, knives, files, scissors, jabbers and what nots; when he uses just 2 drops of "GETS-IT" and see his corn vanish. The difference is astonishing. Try it. You won't wince when you put on your shoes in the morning. "GETS-IT" is sure "gets" any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Many Recoveries From Lung Trouble

Eckman's Alterative has restored to health many sufferers from lung trouble. Read what it did in this case:—

Wilmington, Del.

"Gentlemen:—In January, 1908, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs. My physician, a leading practitioner, said that it was lung trouble. I got very weak. C. A. Lippincott, of Lippincott's Department Store, Wilmington, Del., recommended Eckman's Alterative that had done great good. I began taking it at once. I continued faithfully, using no other remedy, and finally noticed the clearing of the lungs. I now have no trouble with my lungs. I firmly believe Eckman's Alterative saved my life." (Abbreviated.)

(Affidavit) JAS. SQUIRES.

Eckman's Alterative is most efficacious in bronchial catarrh and severe throat and lung affections and upbuilding the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitutes. Small size, $1; regular size, $2. Sold by leading druggists. Write for booklet of recoveries.

Why I Wish To Tell Your Fortune FREE

I am perfectly satisfied with your Reading. It seems strange that you should refer to my suffering from throat trouble. I have just had a bad attack and usually have it two or three times per year. I shall certainly recommend you to my friends.

Prof. A. C. Dixon, M. A., B. Sc., Lee, Darlington, England

It is wonderful how you have told me many things in my life that are very true. I think you have a great power. All you have told me is true as Gospel.

Anna Wise, Cedar Rapids, Ia.

All the items in my Reading are as exact as they could possibly be. I am perfectly satisfied.

Dora Schlidt, Fort Arthur, Texas

It is wonderful how you can know so much about a person so many thousand miles away. One would think you were possessed of some supernatural power.
