IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

Building Permit.—A permit was issued yesterday by Building Inspector John Mangum to Lee Frazier, colored, for repair work on his residence at 1120 South Person street to cost $150.

* * *

Escaped Convict Caught.—James Williams, white, who escaped several months ago from a Wake county convict camp, has been captured in Washington City, according to information received by the sheriff. He was serving a term for car-breaking.

* * *

Small Roof Fire.—The firemen were called to the home of Jennie Sullin, colored, on 106 Smithfield street, about 8 o'clock yesterday morning where they found a small blaze on the roof. The damage was assessed by Chief Farmer at $2. The house is owned by Shaw University.

* * *

Literary Society Meets.—The Lewis Literary Society held its weekly meeting last night. The question for debate was, "Resolved, That the States Should Operate and Control the Banks and Telegraph Lines." The affirmative side was upheld by Carroll Weathers and Vernon Goodman, while Toby Goodman and Allan Penny were on the negative side. The judges decision was unanimous in favor of the affirmative. There was a reading by William Young and a declamation by Charles Stevenson. There were two extemporaneous speeches by Roger Marshall and Mike Bradshaw.

* * *

Negro Found Dead.—Henry Hunter, an aged colored hack driver of this city, was found dead early Thursday morning at the Sycamore stables on East Davie street. Coroner Separk was called and upon investigation pronounced that death was due to apoplexy.

Marriage Licenses—Licenses was issued yesterday by the register of deeds for the marriage of Miss Almira Moore, age 20, of Raleigh, to Mr. Shahin A. Fayado, age 26, of Raleigh; Miss Lula Gooch, age 18, to Mr. Arthur G. Jones, age 17, both of Raleigh; Miss Louetta Ross, age 21, of Creedmore, to Mr. Charley F. Griffin, age 37, of Raleigh; Miss Gussie Finch, age 18, to Mr. Joseph C. Churchill, age 32, both of Morrisville.

When you have something to sell, when you want to buy, when you have something to rent, etc., etc., remember the last word in all such matters is a News and Observer WANT AD.

Many times, after all other methods have failed, The News and Observer WANT AD has secured the desired results.

The principle of The News and Observer WANT AD proposition is merely this—by reaching ALMOST EVERYBODY you can secure ALMOST ANYTHING a person wants.

In North Carolina, The News and Observer is read by almost everybody. Call 127 for prompt ad service.
