tions and organizations.

The process is continuing on an ongoing basis.

Ongoing Socials and a Special Meeting

In early December, a group of newcomers met with leaders of the institutions at the home of Ron Katz, Federation President. They shared their impressions and concerns as newcomers and were able to discuss with the leaders positive ways in which newcomers could be integrated into the community.

In December and January, Shalom Y'all, in addition to weekly meetings, held two social evenings which were extremely well attended.

Newcomers Defined

Shalom Y'all considers three kinds of individuals as newcomers. The first are recent arrivals in Charlotte. The second are persons who may have lived in Charlotte for a long time but have just chosen to become involved in some new aspect of Jewish life. The third group are Jews by Choice, men and women in the process of conversion.

Chair of Shalom Y'all is Ms. Sandra Weinstein. Chair of the weekly group and programs is Geri Zhiss. For information about Shalom Y'all call the Federation office, 366-5007
