The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1888.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

☞ Only three weeks from next Tuesday night.

☞ The editor sets to-day his Thanksgiving dinner to-day with relatives in South Carolina.

☞ We regret to learn that Mr. D. W. Riddick, of Cedar Fork township, will remove to Georgia next week.

☞ Miss Sallie London was on the roll of honor in Mr. S. S. Jackson's school during the past two weeks.

☞ The attention of congregations is called to the notice of the finance committee published in another column.

☞ Rev. Peter R. Tomlinson, formerly of this place, has accepted the rectorship of a church at Helena, Montana Territory.

☞ One night last week Deputy Collector Spencer Taylor cut up an illicit still, that was in full blast on Tyrrell's creek in Hadley township.

☞ Dogwood, Persimmon and Hickory timbs are wanted at the Chatham Clock factory in Pittsboro. See Advt. Don't wait, but be up at the door.

☞ In need of a [illegible] ed, as the law [illegible] the amounts to be [illegible] commissioners for their services during the past two months.

☞ A [illegible] have been built at Snow Camp by [illegible] the substantiousness of their [illegible] hood, and will be occupied [illegible] in a few days. Mr. B. C. [illegible] will keep it as a business and [illegible]

☞ The annual session of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, is being held in Newbern. Messrs. A. G. Haywood and C. W. Dynum, of this county, are in attendance as delegates.

☞ We would [illegible] tion of our friends [illegible] to W. L. London [illegible] at once. He [illegible] longer; it will be [illegible] not have time [illegible] notice that [illegible] and again. "A word to the wise is sufficient".

☞ Chatham's company [illegible] the new goods in [illegible] Leghorns. Received this week another lot of pretty Children's white Flannels and every Day [illegible] a splendid lot of Fancy [illegible] Candies and [illegible] London is offering [illegible] this week in Ladies' [illegible] Hats. See his advertisement.

☞ It is [illegible] that a railroad will be [illegible] from High Point to Asheboro [illegible] next summer. The R. & D. R. R. Co. have [illegible] operate the road if the [illegible] Randolph bring well subscribe [illegible] tion. The company [illegible] $31,000 have been subscribed [illegible] that a meeting will be held [illegible] day at Asheboro [illegible] will be raised. We [illegible] neighbors upon [illegible] of having a road.

SNOW.—On Tuesday there fell here [illegible] ever before [illegible] the year. [illegible] have been [illegible] and not a [illegible] single [illegible] brought here from the surrounding country [illegible] for a very little [illegible] There are probably [illegible] farmers in this township who will have any corn for sale this winter. The most that is now being sold is brought from Richmond and other cities. How some of our poor people struggle through the winter months is a mystery. There will certainly be much suffering.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.—The meeting of the Farmers' Institute in this place on last Thursday, was attended by very few persons. Essays were read and addresses were made by Messrs. Alex. Melver, A. H. Merritt, R. Jones Powell and Dr. J. B. Burns. A motion was adopted to appoint a committee to appear before the meeting of the county alliance, in January, and urge the holding of a county fair at this place. On this committee were appointed Messrs. Alex. Melver, E. W. Atwater, J. A. Alston, W. M. Bryan, W. H. Retch and A. H. Merritt. The following were appointed delegates to the Farmers' Association which meets next January at Raleigh: L. J. Haughton, Alex. Melver, J. B. De Graffenreidt, W. J. Weaver, C. R. Scott, J. W. Atwater, H. M. McIver, C. W. Groom, A. F. Lambeth, W. L. London and A. H. Merritt.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—On and after next Monday there will be a very important change in schedule on the Pittsboro' railroad. On and after that day there will be only one train a day each way, instead of two as heretofore. The train will leave Pittsboro' daily, except Sundays, at 10:20 a. m. and arrive at Moncure at 11:05 a. m.; and will leave Moncure at 4:55 p. m. and arrive at Pittsboro at 5:30 p. m.

This change is made necessary because of the change of schedule on the R. & A. A.-L. R. R. The mail train on that road will leave Raleigh at 3:10 p. m. and arrive at Raleigh at 12:30 p. m. By this change passengers travelling between here and Raleigh will leave here at 1:20 o'clock in the morning and arrive at Raleigh at 12:30; and will leave Raleigh at 3:10 o'clock in the afternoon and arrive here at 5:30 o'clock.

BY CONVENTION.—Pursuant to the call of the Chief of Bureau of Immigration a convention of all who think the immigration of people to Eastern North Carolina should be encouraged, met in the Senate Chamber, in the City of Raleigh, on Wednesday last. The object of the convention was to organize the immigration bureau, and to hear the reports of those who had been sent to other States to see what they could do in the way of inducing people to come to our State. The city of Raleigh offered to give the delegates who had been sent out free entertainment while in the city, and the railroads offered to carry the members of the convention to and from Raleigh to their homes for one cent a mile, and the citizens of Raleigh proposed to entertain them free.

State News.

WILMINGTON, MONTGOMERY, [illegible] News and Observer: Mr. W. G. Bell [illegible] says the Cape Fear [illegible] will [illegible] in Dec[illegible] [illegible] Cross and White.

[illegible] Cross and White [illegible] Sunday [illegible] Cross and White [illegible] Sunday [illegible] Cross and White [illegible] Sunday [