—On last Tuesday Mr. Henry C. Whitehead, of Hickory Mountain township, was accidentally killed by the running away of his team. He was hauling some logs or sills for a house and his mules ran away, and he was thrown from the wagon and horribly crushed by some of the timbers falling on him, dying almost instantly.

COOKE'S APPOINTMENTS.—The Hon. Charles M. Cooke, the democratic candidate for Congress in this district, will address the people of Chatham at the following times and places:

Cockville, Thursday, Sept. 27th
Thompson's store, Friday, " 7th
Johnson's, Saturday, " 8th
Pittsboro, Tuesday, " 25th

He will divide time with any other Congressional candidate, either populist or republican, or both.

The people, regardless of party, are invited to attend these appointments and hear a fair discussion of the great political questions now being agitated.

REGISTRAR.—At the last meeting of the county commissioners, the following registrars of election were appointed for their respective voting places:

Albright—W. F. Vestal.
Matthews—T. J. Murchison.
Bear Creek—D. Y. White.
Gulf—Geo. T. Womble.
Haggie—E. L. Tyson.
Goldston's mill—H. J. Booker.

The registration books must be opened for the registration of voters for thirty days, beginning on the 27th of this month and closing at midday on Saturday, the 27th of October. No new registration is required, but every voter ought to see that his name is correctly registered.

The poll-holders will be appointed at the commissioners' next meeting.

PERSONAL PROGRAMME.—What the republicans will do in this county is seem shrouded in mystery. Last Monday, when the day was fixed for the county convention, but none was held, so far as we can learn. Why it was not held we have not been able to learn. But nothing, rumors about it are plenty. Several of their leaders were here on Monday, and it is rumored on the street that they held a secret conference and nominated a straight out republican ticket. This may be true and may not be true for it is also rumored that negotiations are on foot between them and some of the populist "bosses" in regard to a mixed ticket—half republican and half populist—just as has been agreed on in Wake county. There may be some truth in this rumor, for some of the populist "bosses" and republican leaders were seen canvassing together on last Monday. Whichever or whatever, they may do the democratic purpose whipping them out at the election, and don't you forget it!

BAPTIST CHAUTAUQUA.—The Chautauqua of the Baptist Sunday School teachers of this State was held last week at Mount Vernon Springs in this county, beginning on Tuesday and closing on Saturday. It was held there last year, and the attendance this year was much larger than last year. The exercises were held in the Baptist church, which, though crowded to its utmost capacity, was insufficient to accommodate the very large number in attendance. Many of the most prominent Baptist Sunday school workers in this State were present, and every day large crowds attended from the surrounding country. Every body greatly enjoyed the occasion, notwithstanding the weather was very inclement.

The object of the Chautauqua was the interchange of views and opinions among Sunday school workers, and thus advance the good cause to which they are engaged. Various objects connected with Sunday schools were discussed in a most interesting manner by prominent and experienced workers in the cause, and much information was derived therefrom. Among the most interesting addresses were those delivered by the Rev. Dr. Broughton and the Hon. Charles M. Cooke.

The exercises were greatly enlivened by delightful music, both vocal and instrumental, the latter by an orchestra from Raleigh. It was the first time, however, that some of these present had heard Zither played on a chorus, and at first some were greatly shocked at such an innovation.

PERSONAL ITEMS.—Our former countryman, Mr. D. F. Walker, of Jonesboro, has been on a visit to his old home in Haw River township.

Cooke and Strowd.

SILER CITY, N. C., Sept. 3, 1894.

MR. EDITOR: Your correspondent heard the joint discussion here today between Capt. Cooke and Mr. W. F. Strowd. About 150 persons were present. It was a regular child day for the democrats of Western Chatham. The old "Hebrew of the Hebrews" made a very feeble defence of the faith he professes to have, and his followers showed that they were greatly disappointed. Capt. Cooke made a fine impression up here and will make an easy walk over on the first Tuesday in next November. The doctrines and teachings of the third party politicians will not bear the light of day and your correspondent predicts for them a regular Waterloo defeat in next November, both in State and county. DEMOCRAT.

Mr. Hanner Declines.

SILER CITY, N. C., Sept. 4, 1894.

In view of the fact that the time will soon be here for the democratic party to name its candidates for the Legislative and county offices, and as my name has been mentioned by several friends in connection with these nominations, I feel that it is due my friends that I should state now, at the risk of being accused of declining a nomination before it is tendered, that in justice to myself and family it will be impossible for me to become a candidate. I come to this conclusion very reluctantly as I highly prize the many kind expressions of my name in this connection, but my circumstances and surroundings are such as to force me into this course. I am a democrat in the fullest sense of that word, and shall do every thing that an honorable man should do to secure the election of our ticket.

CHAS. A. HANNER.

Buckhorne Against Goff.

TRYON, N. C., Sept. 1, 1894.

MR. EDITOR: Will you please publish the following in your next paper?

Base ball game was played between Buckhorne and Goff, witnessed by a large crowd, August 25th. Players as follows:

Buckhorne: T. O. Marks back stop, J. W. Buchanan pitcher, E. R. Woodell first base, T. F. Gross second base, R. M. McIver third base, R. E. Marks short stop, H. J. Gross right field, J. A. Mann centre, W. R. Mims left.

Goff: T. L. Ragland back stop, A. M. Harrington pitcher, C. F. Lawrence first base, T. G. Lawrence second, G. S. Harrington third, E. V. Lawrence short stop, L. C. Mann left field, W. D. Ragland centre, J. M. Ragland right.

The score stood 8 and 11 in favor of Buckhorne with ending on Goff boys, which entitled Buckhorne to 29. Respectfully,

BUCKHORNE PLAYERS.

The Populist Machine.

EDITOR RECORD: I hear so much said by certain populists about ring rule and boss machine work that I am getting anxious to know what kind of ring machine rule you, or any of your readers, call the Paschals Jenkins Spence concern, with Bryan in the middle?

I know something of the People's party boss machines. We have a few second-hand machines of that class in Matthews township. But they are considerably under repair, and the only use the big Paschal-Jenkins Spence machine has for them is to vote them. According to my judgment there never was a party that had more ring, rang, tang, boss machinish rule than this great reform(?) party, and if the good people of Chatham will do as much to beat up this Paschal & Co. ring as Matthews township will do we will again carry old Chatham for Democracy and right.

Now, let us go out and do our duty. We expect to give a big majority for the Democratic nominees in Matthews township and beat Mr. Paschal in his old township worse than ever before.

MATTHEWS TOWNSHIP.

The republicans of Randolph county have nominated a full ticket.

The democrats of Alamance have nominated R. W. Scott for the Legislature.

Goldston Gleanings.

GOLDSTON, N. C., Sept. 3, 1894.

Some of our people have been to see the Vernon Springs. We think from what we hear it was very good. Good crowds and good order prevailed.

The base ball game between Goldston and Gulf was won by the latter club.

Mr. W. W. Alexander has a new piece of second hand lumber.

Quite a number of Gulfites were in the town. All live and let live, I say.

Last Friday night we had a debate. The subject was "Which is the most useful to mankind the horse or the cow?" The affirmative, or horse side, cleaned up the other.

We have in our commercial department a young lady who is taking a commercial course. One of our commercial boys smiles all day long.

Our next debate is to be held in the hall on the 7th of Sept. 8 o'clock p. m.

Prof. Branch has about twelve of our best men on the side for next Friday night.

We are having some fine weather now.

Corn and cotton are looking fine now. C.

Siler Siftings.

SILER CITY, N. C., Sept. 3, 1894.

MR. EDITOR: Our little town is quite active today on account of the political speaking by Capt. Chas. M. Cooke and Mr. W. F. Strowd. The discussion passed off quietly and pleasantly.

The whistles of the roller mill, canning factory and planing mill cause Siler to put on an air of business. The saw mill boys continue much to the life and energetic activity of the place. The roller mill is now in a good hot blast, a good rush at the time of land is being ginning day and night. The merchants say that trade is improving and the farmers are cheerful and in excellent spirits on account of the flattering prospects for large crops this fall. I hope there will be no such a very about hard times next year.

The Chautauqua at Mt. Vernon Springs last week was attended by large crowds. Those of this place who attended expressed themselves as being well pleased with the exercises. A large number of children from Siler under the management of Mrs. Hatcher took part in the exercises or formed part of Friday's programme.

The children's exercises were greatly appreciated by the great crowd that was in attendance. Never ever has were commented upon and spoken of in terms of highest praise by the distinguished speakers from a distance. The local union has not been organized, but perhaps will be in a few days. It seems that croquet is the leading game at present. Very truly,

S. M. BRANNON.

Letter From Virginia.

VIRGINIA, VA., Aug. 31st, 1894.

EDITOR RECORD: I thought that I would give you a little note of my trip to Virginia.

I went to Chapel Hill. I thought that by taking that route that I would get to South Boston, Va., the same day, but I did not get through until the next day. When I got there my son and his wife, whom I was particularly anxious to see before they left for their future home in South Carolina, had been gone about four hours and I did not see them at all. Disappointment sinks the heart of man, but renewal of hope gives consolation. The next time I have to wait for a train that long I won't wait. I will just put off about and walk through, and I will get there before the train, if I don't get too tired. But I am satisfied about it now. We had just as well be satisfied all the time, for we cannot help ourselves.

The people over here in Virginia have the finest crops they have had in years. They want to give some of the people one half for gathering the other half. They say corn wont be over a dollar a barrel. Their tobacco is very fine. Everything is plentiful but money. They say that they would like to have a little more of it, but they are getting used to it now and they don't see much difference. All seem to be satisfied, but I think some of them are very easy satisfied.

The third party is getting weaker than it was last year. They say that they have gone just as far as they want to go in that direction, but I have not heard much about politics on either side, but they say the democrats will carry Virginia this fall.

I heard of a man whose horse got loaned out, and he did not want to stop work in his crop and he went to one of his neighbors to borrow a horse, and he is taking the horse home but he was telling it back to the fellow and put it up. I guess it is the man who loaned the horse said to obey the Bible where it says they that would borrow of thee turn not empty away. Sometimes people lend things and the borrower does not return them.

The weather here is very hot and smoky and the sun looks red all through the day. Some of the people are uneasy about it. We have had no rain since I have been here, the people are pulling fodder very rapidly now.

I will give you more in my next. Yours, R. G. EUBANKS.

Wilkesboro News: The other afternoon a man went to Rankin's store and called for a watermelon. He selected one that weighed 40 pounds and said he could eat it by himself. Some bystander rather doubted it, when he turned to Mr. Rankin and asked him to weigh it. His request was complied with and he commenced to get on the outside of the melon. After he had gone at it he again asked to be weighed, to the astonishment of all he had eaten 17 pounds of melon at one sitting.

Goldsboro Argus: Two colored women, sisters, Betsy and Julia Mason, met by chance in this city yesterday for the first time in 11 years. It was an affecting and somewhat tragic scene. They were born slaves, lived together in Wilson county, both married, both moving to Goldsboro, and both reduced to the extreme poverty of old age. They met here by mere accident yesterday on their way to visit their mother, who lives near Dunn, in this county, and who is living at the age of 99 years of age. The two sisters, one of whom is now a widow, are now old women, the elder of 70 years.

Col. W. A. Albright, of Durham and formerly of Alamance county, died last week.
