DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET

For the Senate:
ADDISON H. PERRY.

For the House:
ROLAND H. HAYES,
JOHN J. PEOPLES.

For Sheriff:
STEPHEN W. BREWER.

For Clerk:
SAMUEL M. HOLT.

For Register:
DANIEL H. MARSH.

For Coroner:
ROMULUS S. EUBANKS.

For Surveyor:
HENRY H. [illegible]

—Be sure to see that you are correctly registered.

—Dogwood and persimmon timber wanted by B. Nooe, Jr.

—A big lot of winter shoes just received at O. S. Poe & Son's.

—Fresh oatmeal, grits, hominy, rice, &c., at O. S. Poe & Son's.

—A lot of coffins—walnut, oak and pine—for sale cheap, by B. Nooe, Jr.

—If you intend buying a suit of clothes, examine the stock of O. S. Poe & Son.

—A car load of salt to arrive this week at O. S. Poe & Son's—200 lb. bag for $1.10.

—The populist leaders do not want their followers to hear democratic speeches.

—O. S. Poe & Son have the best line of dress goods that they have ever before shown.

—Daily expected, one car load fine wheat fertilizers—one car load salt at Bynum & Headen's.

—Because men differ politically is no reason why they should not be good neighbors or lose their religion.

—When at Raleigh, a few days ago, we enjoyed some of Dughi's fresh oysters. His restaurant is a popular resort.

—Read the new "ad" of McPherson & Weatherspoon. They will deliver, free of express or postage, all shoes ordered by mail.

—Senator Jarvis will speak at W. J Stockard's, in Alamance county (near the Chatham line), on next Thursday, the 18th, at 1 o'clock.

—There are more republicans than populists in Chatham, and yet the populists insist on the republicans giving them all the offices. Rather cheeky, is'nt it?

—Ex-Gov. T. M. Holt and Oran A. Hanner, Esq., will speak at Gulf, on next Thursday, the 18th, and at Richmond on Friday, the 19th. Give them a good crowd.

—A nice new stock of jewelry, watches and clocks just received, and for sale cheap, by W. T. Neese. Watches, clocks, &c., repaired at low rates and in best manner.

—There will be a democratic rally at Durham's store, in Baldwin township, on Saturday, the 26th. Speeches will be made by Josephus Daniels, H. A. London and others.

—It having been reported that Mr. T. C. Milliken, the republican candidate for Congress in this district, was going to withdraw, he has written a letter positively denying the rumor.

—If by any chance Wicker, Self and Bryan should be elected, what could they do, or what influence could they have, in a Legislature that is certain to be overwhelmingly democratic?

—W. H. Edwards, dentist, will visit Bynum on Monday and Tuesday, and Pittsboro' on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, following the third Sunday of each month, prepared to do all kind of dental work. Office next to Bynum & Headen.

—Ladies, if you wish cheap goods you can find shawls from 25 cents up, ladies' cloaks extra low, ladies' vests from 20 cents up, the best 15 cents stocking for ladies you ever saw, best 10 cents stocking for misses and children we have ever had, former prices 20 cents.

—If you want cheap goods look at these. You can buy at W. L. London & Son's a nice suit of boys' clothes, including hat or cap, for $1 25, an all wool men's cheviot suit, former price $12.00, for $7 50, a good pair winter boots $1.50, the best dollar shoe, for men or women, you ever saw.

—A convocation of the clergymen of the Episcopal churches in the counties contiguous to Raleigh will be held here next week, beginning on Tuesday. The programme for each day will be religious services and a sermon in the forenoon, a business meeting in the afternoon, and at night public discussions on matters connected with church work.

—In consequence of the very heavy rains there has been a big freshet in Deep and Haw rivers, greatly damaging the low grounds.

—We regret to hear of the death of our former countyman, Mr. Brooks H. Guthrie, who for several years has been living at Durham.

—Could you have believed that any citizen of Chatham, even though he be a populist office-holder or office-seeker, would so slander his countymen as to proclaim publicly that over 1000 of them can be bought or bulldozed? And yet such a slander has been published by the "Paschal Jenkins Pearce Machine"!

—An address has been issued to the republicans of this district by E. A. Johnson, the chairman of the republican district committee, calling upon all true republicans to vote for their Congressional candidate, Mr. T. C. Milliken. He declares that "republicans cannot afford to vote for any man who does not stand squarely upon the platform of the National Republican party."

PUBLIC SPEAKING.—N. B. Broughton, H. A. London and other democratic speakers will address the people of Chatham at the following times and places:

Henderson's Tan Yard, Bear Creek township, Thursday, October 11th.

Ore Hill, Friday, October 12th.

Harper's X Roads, Saturday, October 13th.

Speaking will begin each day at 12 o'clock, and everybody invited to attend.

PERSONAL ITEMS.—Hon. W. E. Cox spent last Saturday here in company with Senator Ransom, and his many friends were much pleased to meet him again and see him looking so well.

Mr. R. L. Strowd and family of Chapel Hill, have been here on a visit to Mr. A. G. Headen.

Mrs. E. W. Pou and daughter, of Smithfield, are visiting Mrs. M. A. Lorie.

Mrs. W. S. Gunter, of Egypt, is visiting Mrs. Laura Horne.

Mrs. A. J. Bynum has returned from a visit to Sanford.

ROTTEN LIMBS.—The populists say that the two old parties—the republican and democratic—are corrupt and rotten and for that reason they have left those parties. If this be true—if the two old parties are corrupt and rotten—then the populists who abandoned them—who dropped off from them—must have been the most corrupt and the rottenest members of those parties.

Why?

Because like a tree, when it begins to decay and become rotten, the limbs and branches that are the most decayed and the rottenest are the first to drop off and leave the tree!

Had you thought of that?

RANSOM'S SPEECH.—Those of our countymen who were so fortunate as to hear Senator Ransom's speech at this place, on last Saturday, will never forget it. We only regret that every voter in the county could not be present and hear him, for if any intelligent and fair minded man could not be persuaded and convinced by such a speech, then surely no earthly power could move him!

This was Senator Ransom's first visit here since August, 1888, when he and the lamented Vance attended our grand reunion of ex-Confederate soldiers, and although he is now 68 years old he seems to retain the full vigor of his mental and physical powers. It is certainly very remarkable that anyone, at his age, can travel over the State and endure the physical fatigue of speaking nearly three hours almost every day week after week. His ability to endure it is due to his very temperate and careful habits.

It was quite affecting to witness the cordial meeting between him and many of his old soldiers, for some of Chatham's bravest men were in his command during the war, and they were delighted once more to greet him, and he seemed equally pleased to meet them, and together they talked over the perils through which they had passed and "fought over their battles again".

We will not here attempt even a synopsis of this great speech, which many pronounced the greatest they had ever heard. It was persuasive, conciliatory and irresistibly convincing. It was full of ennobling thoughts, expressed in eloquent words, and as an exposition and defence of democracy was simply unanswerable. After hearing it no sensible man would be so silly as to ask sneeringly, "what has the democratic party done?" He demonstrated and proved how Congress, at its recent session, had protected the liberty of the citizen by repealing the federal election laws; how it had, through the new tariff law, reduced at least 25 per cent the cost of all articles bought by the average farmer; how it lifted a large part of the burden of taxation from the farmers and placed it on the incomes of the rich; and how the people of the South are now placed on an equality with the people of the North in a fair division of all the high offices of the federal government.

This speech of Senator Ransom has infused new life into the democrats of Chatham, who are thoroughly aroused, and each and every one is determined to do his full duty in the redemption of our good old county.

Goldsboro Argus: From all sections we hear of hitherto professing Populists returning to the Democratic party. They are realizing daily the lack of principle in the leaders of that party, who are for office, and who barter their principles (?) for personal success in the hope of achieving their ambition.

They Are Coming Back Home.

[illegible]

We meet the reports every day of the break in North Carolina. It is now [illegible] heralded all along the line. The Democratic hosts are beginning to realize the situation and the work of organizing is going on everywhere. Campaign speakers are [illegible] the enemy's camp and the forces of Populism are being [illegible] for a great victory. The [illegible] admitted [illegible] in Georgia has [illegible] them to a realization of what we have to do, and they are entering the conflict in earnest.

One of the most notable features of this campaign is the fact that a large number of voters are deserting the opposing parties—both Populists and Republicans—for the Democratic ranks. New recruits are daily coming in. The good honest men are deserting the fusion combination and denouncing the leaders who sold them out. A glance at the pages of the State press is sufficient to convince the most skeptical of this fact. Almost every issue of any paper in the State announces the return of some prominent Populist in that section to the Democracy—the old party of his father and the party of his own early manhood.

A striking instance of this is found in the [illegible] of Mr. W. R. Rand, of Wake county, which is printed elsewhere in this paper. He declares that he was a Populist after the [illegible], and [illegible] down to the [illegible] conclusion that the declaration of principles enunciated by that party were good enough for [illegible], but that fusion was an abandonment of principle and sounded the death knell of the populists, and that in future he will vote the Democratic ticket.

There are many others like Mr. Rand. They went into the Populist party honestly and from principle. They hoped to find relief and reform. What is the result? The fruit has turned to ashes on their lips. They have been sold like so many head of cattle. Outraged and deceived, is it any wonder that they should repudiate a combination that has for its object the delivery of themselves and their party into the hands of the Republicans?

Honest themselves, they thought others honest. But now they are beginning to see things in their true light and to find out their confidence has been misplaced and that they have been deceived.

The Storm in Florida.

PENSACOLA, FLA., Oct. 9.—The tropical hurricane raged here Sunday night and raged all yesterday with fury. The average velocity of the wind was 48 miles an hour. At times it reached a velocity of 68 and 80 miles.

Two barks dragged their anchors in the bay, but shipping was generally prepared for the storm and therefore avoided great injury.

The city is greatly disfigured, roofs being blown off and plate glass fronts demolished. A colored Baptist church was blown down. The tide reached the quarantine station and damaged the crib. The tide was so high that it broke clear over Santa Rosa Island, and the life savers crew were in water up to their waist.

Choked by a Bean.

[illegible], Oct. 8.—While Mrs Snyder, residing near Pitner's Corner, was [illegible] beans, one was left on the [illegible] and a child about two years of age put it into its mouth and tried to swallow the bean. It lodged in its throat and the little one was in great agony. No doctor was near at hand and the mother carried the child half a mile to the nearest physician. When she arrived there it had died from strangulation.

A Snow Blizzard.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., Oct 8.—North Dakota, portions of South Dakota and the northern border of Minnesota are buried under a heavy fall of snow. The storm, which, in some localities, has developed into a blizzard, began yesterday morning, and every indication points to a repetition of the blizzard of 14 years ago.

Five Persons Killed by Dynamite

IRONWOOD, Mich., Oct. 8.—While thawing out dynamite in the oven of a stove today it exploded, killing John Ravell, Peter Ravell, Pat Ravell, Louis Ravell, and Mrs. Louis Peterson. Clarence Ravell, Mrs. John Ravell and Thomas Ravell were injured.

A Big Blow Up.

PANAMA, Oct. 8.—A despatch to the Star and Herald, from Grenada, Nicaragua, says: "A terrible catastrophe has occurred here. The military barracks has been blown up and a whole quarter of the city has been badly damaged. The number of dead is estimated at two hundred."

"I did not leave my neighbors and friends two years ago to join the Republican party. Good bye." These were the exact words of honest Jesse Killian, of Catawba county, as he left the meeting where the Populists agreed to fuse with the Republicans.

Capt. Buck Kitchin spoke at Albemarle last Saturday. There was no one to meet or look after him and he rang the court house bell himself and spoke to a few Democrats.

The fastest time ever made on freight between Chicago and Raleigh, N. C., has just been accomplished by the Southern Railway Company bringing a car load of meat for delivery in Raleigh in four days.

Newbern Journal: The fall crops of Irish potatoes and garden peas are looking fine. There are young peas on the vines and the young potatoes are forming. The stand is almost equal to what it is in the spring of the year and the growth is vigorous.

Between the Christmasses.

By [illegible] our [illegible] will be closed out [illegible] that [illegible] will be removed. It has [illegible] been our pleasure to give and we feel sure it has never been yours to receive such values as we are and shall continue to offer until the night of December the 24th, '94. In this closing out sale will be included all of the latest shades in dress goods and novelties in trimmings as well as the largest and handsomest line of mens', youths' and boys' clothing, overcoats, etc., of late and popular styles. Our carpet department is replete with all of the latest styles in Ingrain, Brussels, etc., as well as all the late styles in rugs.

Shoes for ladies, men, youths' and children. This line is unequalled in this section of the State for durability, comfort, style, and cost, but by no means least in the extremely low prices we are now offering them.

Have our salesmen price the stock to you. Store fixtures—we have two show cases and one large safe left that we will sell for less than manufacturer's cost.

Very respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL,
Durham, N. C.

It is rumored that Rev. W. C. Norman will decline the position of president of Greensboro Female College.
