LOCAL RECORDS.

SCHEDULE PITTSBORO' R. R.

The passenger train on the Pittsboro' railroad leaves Pittsboro' daily, except Sundays, at 10 a. m. and 3:20 p. m., and arrives at Pittsboro at 11:45 a. m. and 5:45 p. m., making close connection at Moncure with the train that leaves Raleigh at 4 p. m.

—Call on John L. Council for a nice shave and hair cut, and for confectioneries.

—Today is St. Valentine's day, when it is said the birds choose their mates, and lovers exchange sweet scented missives.

—If the ground-hog has remained out of his hole since the 2nd of February it must be frozen by this time, and we don't care if it is, for it ought to have had more sense!

—Two men from Ohio came here last week with a view of buying land and locating here, but they found the "Sunny South" covered with snow and ice and so cold that they returned home without buying.

—W. H. Edwards, dentist, will visit Bynum on Monday and Tuesday, and Pittsboro' on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, following the third Sunday of each month, prepared to do all kind of dental work. Office next door to Bynum & Headen.

—G. R. Pilkington, having purchased the drug store from L. H. Merritt, in Pittsboro, hopes by strict attention to business and selling first class drugs and chemicals, to merit a share of public patronage. Physicians' prescriptions carefully dispensed from pure and genuine drugs.

—If you want to buy a suit of clothes for less money than you ever dreamt of call at W. L. London & Son's and see their stock. Prices are low and don't you forget it. Money goes farther now than it ever did. All kind of woollen goods at low tariff rates.

—They have received this week a large lot of spring ginghams at W. L. London & Son's which they will sell at very low prices for the cash. They will sell one yard wide "Fruit of the Loom" shirting at 7 cents per yard cash until 15th inst., other shirting and sheeting in same proportion.

REV. DR. OLMSTEAD DEAD.—The old friends of the Rev. A. F. Olmstead D. D., will regret to hear of his death, which occurred at Rhinebeck, N. Y., on the 6th inst. He is most pleasantly remembered by the older citizens of this community, having been the rector of the Episcopal church at this place from 1818 to 1856. From here he removed to South Carolina, and after the close of the war he went to the State of New York, and for many years has been rector of a church at Rhinebeck. The present Governor (Morton) of New York was a member of his church and attended his funeral. He was born at Hartford, Conn., in the year 1818.

WINTRY WEATHER.—The oldest inhabitant cannot recall such severely cold weather in February as that which visited this section during the present month. Last Friday (the 8th) was one of the coldest days, if not the coldest, that we have ever known. At sunrise the thermometer was at zero and at no time during the day was it higher than fourteen degrees above zero. Everything was frozen solid, and the skating was greatly enjoyed by the young folks and some of the older ones. It snowed on last Thursday and again on last Monday and Tuesday, and altogether it has seemed as if a blast from the Arctic regions had swept o'er the "Sunny South".

SUPERIOR COURT.—The February Term of the superior court of this county began on last Monday. The Judge, who is Hon. L. L. Green of Watauga county, arrived on Saturday afternoon and opened court promptly on time on Monday. The following were drawn and empanelled as grand jurors: Charles E. Stewart (foreman), M. T. Whiting, A. J. Lane, Norman Phillips, C. B. Barnes, H. M. Love, Levi Rogers, James M. Jordan, Aaron Oldham, William Wicker, Sidney L. Holladay, C. A. Andrews, Henry R. Harwood, A. N. Andrews, N. S. Webster, G. W. Bright, A. W. Webster.

The Judge's charge to the grand jurors was a full and plain explanation of their duties and of the crimes of which they have jurisdiction.

The new Solicitor, W. P. Bynum, Jr., Esq., was promptly at his post of duty and began the prosecution of the cases on the criminal docket. None of which were of much importance. The following are some of them:

State against P. W. Wortham: bastardy: verdict not guilty.

State against William Thomas: larceny: pleads guilty: sentenced to work on roads one year.

State against Sam Palmer: disposing of mortgaged property: submitted and judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State against William Hinton: larceny: verdict, guilty.

State against William Murchison: larceny: guilty.

State against John Hickman and Ida Brewer: F. & A: guilty.

State against James Johnson and Rangers Cotten: assault with deadly weapon: verdict, guilty: and Johnson fined $5 and Cotten $15.

State against Luke Shaw: larceny: verdict, not guilty.

The unusually wintry weather has kept away the crowd that usually attends our courts. Never before have we seen so small an attendance on any "Tuesday of court" as on last Tuesday. The streets, at times, seemed quite deserted, in striking contrast to what they usually are on the big day of court. Even the irrepressible horseswappers, for once, failed to make their appearance and ply their vocation. The ground was covered deep with snow, which fell nearly all day, and the icy wind made man and beast shiver as it chilled through. It was a "Tuesday of court" that will long be remembered by all who were compelled to face such wintry weather.

This was Judge Greene's first visit to our county, and indeed it is only the third court that he has held, but he has made quite a favorable impression upon all who have met him, both in and out of court. He presides with great patience and courtesy, and dispenses justice meted with mercy.

In addition to our resident lawyers there are several from other counties attending court, among whom are A. L. McNeill and W. C. Douglass, of Moore, George M. Rose of Cumberland, and W. A. Guthrie and E. W. Cannady of Durham. The last named (Cannady) is a colored lawyer and his appearance inside the bar attracted much attention, being an unusual sight here. Mr. S. S. Jackson, who obtained his law license from the Supreme court last week, was on Monday duly qualified and admitted as a member of the bar.

The trial of cases on the civil docket will begin today (Thursday) and occupy all the week probably. The case removed here from Moore county is continued until next court. Several other civil cases are continued, as the weather is too bad for witnesses to attend court.

Profitable Farming.

WENTWORTH, N. C., Feb. 11, 1895.

MR. EDITOR: The "Record" of Jan 31st contained an article, in which a gentleman from S. C., challenged the South to equal his success as a farmer last year. Mr. Frank Moore, of Rockingham county, worked only one horse, and with one sixteen year old boy, raised 80 bushels of corn, 100 bushels of oats, a fine lot of potatoes, peas, &c., and a tobacco crop which he sold for $1225.00.

By comparison, you will find that Mr. Moore's crop, raised with one horse and one hand, besides himself, was worth more than one third as much as the crop, which the gentleman from S. C., raised with eight horses, and therefore must be a much greater success.

The Record is always a welcome visitor to our home.

Very truly,
W. F. WOMBLE.

Polk's Pencillings.

SHADY GROVE, N. C., Feb. 12, '95.

MR. EDITOR: If there is any thing that would please us now it would be pretty weather. For the last three days it has been almost impossible to keep comfortable in the house by the fire. The river is frozen over and the ice would bear up wagon and team. Stock of all kinds has suffered with cold and for the want of water. Seldom do we have more disagreeable weather in this county. Even the crows have become so tame I can sit by the fire and shoot them from the window.

Our friend John Hargrove met with the misfortune to lose one of his hands a few days ago, in a cutting machine, being cut in half inch pieces from the tip of the fingers to the wrist.

The revenue officers are making it lively for the moonshiners and some body will get to see our capital city this spring. C. E. Johnson, deputy marshal, has found one on Rocky river that he has to cut up every full moon. As soon as he leaves it pulls together and goes to work again. It is hard to locate, and of a night when he can see the fire from the furnace he, for his life, cant tell which side of the river it is on, and while waiting for day to come they succeed in making their escape with all the whiskey and sometimes cap and worm.

Well, what must I say about "Shanks" this time? Well, I say he writes a good letter when he comes to Smenon Grove for his Ramblings and takes Polk and a cow for his subject and I hope he will send his reporter up again and help Polk write up the items from this section.

Mr. Editor, when I commence writing all the family want to know who I am writing to and also commence asking questions. Mrs. Polk has taken a powerful interest in Shanks. She reads his letters in the day and at night and of Sundays.

Just as I go to close my letter the little boy that helped to drive that Democrat cow and got scared at the street cars in Raleigh says "Pa, are there any street cars in Richmond?" I said, "No." "Well, let us go there next time with beeves."

The children brought word from school last night that they found the Record's ground hog frozen to death about ten feet from his hole; therefore we have nothing to tell us when the weather will moderate.

POLK.

A Family Burned to Death.

ARDMORE, I. T. Feb. 9.—Last Wednesday night, about eighteen miles southwest of this city, a house occupied by a farmer named Tucker caught fire and, owing to the blizzard which prevailed, it burned so quickly that Tucker, his wife and four children were cremated in the burning house. Later, it was learned that suspicion of foul play existed. It was thought perhaps the family had been murdered and the house fired afterwards. The police arrested Tucker's son in law, between whom and Tucker bad blood had existed for some time.

German Students' Duels.

HALLE, GERMANY, Jan. 23, 1895.

I will say something about student life in the universities. The majority of the students do very little studying. Indeed very many do not come to the classes after they first become enrolled as members and only attend the university to enjoy the freedom of student life.

I think the most exciting things in the world are the duels among the students. It is not as humane as a Sullivan Corbett prize fight but none the less interesting. To see two men stand in a ring and hack one another over the head with swords until one of the two is exhausted from loss of blood seems barbarous but still it is the chief recreation of the German students. They fought about a dozen duels, all very exciting; then followed a sabre duel between two students from Frieborg. These are very dangerous and they try to kill, just as the pistol duels that used to occur in America. The other kind that I saw are not at all dangerous, as all the vital parts are covered, i. e. eyes, throat, &c., but when you would see one struck by the other on the side of the head and fall back with the blood gushing out as from a hog it makes it exciting. These are not fought on account of insult, but the men act as representatives of fraternities. One fraternity challenges another and they select their representatives. It is most often the case that the fighters are the best of friends. The members of the fraternities stand by and cheer their sides and this adds to the excitement. They are extremely proud of their scars. One thing very strange is that most of the duelists this a. m. were theological students. Every one has to eat a lot of raw onions and raw swine flesh newly killed both to strengthen the nerves and kill the odor of so much blood. I went to see a German student friend of mine fight. He got some pretty severe cuts.

This may throw some light upon the state of religion in Germany of which I hope to speak later. This is generally excused on the ground that it creates a warlike spirit and teaches the student to become a soldier as well. One of the greatest marks of distinction the student can have are his scars. They are the pride of his mother and the girls almost dote on the student who presents the most disfigured face. This is only another of the anomalies to be met with in Germany so civilized and so cultured.

ERNEST T. BYNUM.

The New Election Law.

Raleigh Correspondent of Charlotte Observer.

The caucus committee has accepted the new election law as drawn by ex-Judge Spier Whitaker, counsel for the special steering committee. Great care was given to the preparation of this bill. Here are all its principal features—they are officially given to me: Two boxes and two ballots. One ballot contains names of State officers, justices and judges and Congressmen. The other box is for all other officers. Registrars are appointed by the clerk of court, one for each political party. Poll holders are appointed in the same way. Both registrars and poll-holders are nominated by the State chairman of each political party. The bill defines as a political party one which in the last election for Governor and other State officers received 30,000 votes and thus recognizes three parties in this State. There will be two messengers sent from each polling place as soon the returns are made out. One of these takes the returns to the register of deeds, the other messenger takes them to the clerk of the court. The returns must be so received by the clerk and register within twenty four hours after they are prepared, and receipts for them must be given to the messengers. The polls are to close at the usual time, sunset. As soon as the ballots are counted they are replaced in the box in which they were deposited or in another specially prepared for that purpose, and this is to be fastened and sealed, and the boxes are to be at once sent to the Superior Court clerk, who is made county canvasser. He is required to keep the ballots. The clerk and the register of deeds record the abstracts of election, and send a certified copy to the Secretary of State. The latter then adds up the figures. He has no judicial powers. The registration of voters will be for four successive Saturdays prior to the election, at the voting place, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. On the second Saturday before the election day challenging will be done, notice to be given as provided by the present law. The registrars decide as to qualifications of the voters, and if the challenge is good they are to strike out the name of the voter. There is to be no challenging at the polls. All persons will be permitted to register, giving his name, age, residence, and taking the oath prescribed by the constitution.

The fusion caucus last night accepted this bill.

Rutherford Democrat: We learn from a reliable source that two young men had a fight in the upper part of the county some time ago, and in the fight one bit the other. The bitten man is now sick and shows pronounced symptoms of hydrophobia.—William Parker, who lives in Logan Store township, shot his little 8-year old son Monday. He was starting out for a hunt, and thinking his gun unloaded, pointed and snapped it at his little son to frighten him. Of course the gun was loaded and the whole load went into the boy's leg, tearing it to pieces. The child died Tuesday. The grief and remorse of the father are heart-rending. He is well crazed and his cries can be heard all over the neighborhood.

The Ground-Hog.

From the Richmond Dispatch.

How the ground-hog, alias the wood-chuck, alias 'chuck, of the ancient family of "Sciuridae," or marmot, ever came to be looked upon as a weather prognost we do not know. But he has been in that business a long time, and has established a reputation second only to that of the almanacs which undertake to foretell the weather.

Down here in Virginia, and in the South generally, we believe, he is known by the name of ground-hog, but in the Northern and Western States he is called 'chuck, or wood-chuck. We are bound to call him ground-hog, because we have named the green wood-pecker the wood-chuck, and we don't want to have rats and birds mixed up in our animal nomenclature.

It isn't every man you meet who has had the luck of seeing a ground-hog, though on Feb. 2 there are many persons who watch for him. He is from fifteen to eighteen inches long, of very stout, heavy form, with brownish and grayish hair above, and reddish-brown below. He feeds on vegetables of many kinds, burrows in the ground, and hibernates in the winter. It is on Feb. 2 that he is supposed to emerge from his winter quarters, and the popular myth is that if he sees his shadow on that day he retires to his burrow for six weeks longer, which implies that warm, smashing weather very early in the spring or in February, arousing him from his torpidity, is likely to be followed by a cold or late season.

It May Do as Much for You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a Severe Kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called Kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. for large bottle. At G. R. Pilkington's Drug Store.

States-Ile Landmark: The Landmark has private but perfectly reliable information from Raleigh that State Senator H. R. Brown, of Yadkin, one of the members from this district, is once by drunk and has been for several days. This news is not a great surprise to Democrats. Mr. Brown was a member of the Legislature from Yadkin in 1879 and during that session got drunk and acted so disgracefully that a resolution was brought up to expel him. This was charged on him in the campaign last fall and he didn't deny it, but the reformers, including many so-called prohibitionists, voted for him nevertheless.

Nine Men Perished.

PAWTUCKET, L. I. Feb. 8.—It is stated that nine of the crew of the unknown schooner, ashore off Long Hill Life-saving Station, have perished. Through a field glass some persons claimed to have seen them in the rigging shortly after she struck yesterday, but one by one they fell into the sea from cold and exhaustion, until but two remained.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by L. H. Merritt.

Wife and Child Drowned.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—A special from Atlanta says: While Rev. G. T. Gresham and family were attempting to cross the river at Fish Ferry, S. C., the trolley broke sinking the ferry boat. Mrs. Gresham and their 13 year old son were drowned, while the husband reached shore with their little daughter. Mr. Gresham is a Baptist minister, and was on his way to Spartanburg to take charge of a pastorate. He is Secretary of the South Carolina State Baptist Convention.

Mrs. Emily Thorne, who resides at Toledo, Washington, says she has never been able to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectually as Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and that she has also used it for lame back with great success. For sale by Bynum & Headen, Pittsboro, N. C.

The experience of Geo. A. Apar, of German Valley, N. J., is well worth remembering. He was troubled with chronic diarrhoea and doctored for five months and was treated by four different doctors without benefit. He then began using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, of which one small bottle effected a complete cure. It is for sale by Bynum & Headen, Pittsboro, N. C.

The experience of Mr. R. D. Whitley, an influential and prominent citizen of Martinsville, North Carolina, will no doubt be perused with interest by people in many parts of the country. For years he has been subject to violent attacks of inflammatory rheumatism; on the first of February he had an attack which settled in one of his knees and caused almost unbearable pain for two days. He obtained a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm from W. M. Hampton & Co., merchants of Mecklenburg City, N. C. He applied it and gave almost immediate relief and gives Chamberlain's Pain Balm the highest praise, and says any sufferer troubled with like affliction to use it and get relief. For sale by Bynum & Headen, Pittsboro, N. C.

OUR EXPECTATIONS.

We surely expect and are preparing for a larger trade than usual this year, and hope we won't be disappointed. You have gone without a good many things you really needed because you felt you could not afford them. But goods are down so cheap now you had better get what you need. We are selling goods cheaper than we ever dreamt they could be sold.

Our stock is very large and complete. Bought at the lowest cash prices and will be sold the same way. All we ask is to give us a trial. We are determined to hold our reputation for good goods and low prices. We want everybody to come and look at our stock whether they buy or not.

Thanking you for past favors and hoping a continuance of the same

LAND SALE.—BY VIRTUE OF an order of the superior court of Chatham county, I will on the 18th day of March, 1895, at the court house door in Pittsboro, sell at public auction, adjoining the lands of [illegible] and others, the following described tract of land, known as the [illegible] tract, containing [illegible] acres, more or less. Terms of sale: one half cash, balance in six months, bond with approved security, bearing interest from day of sale, and title retained until the purchase money is paid. This January 16, 1895.

A. F. GILMER, Com'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Having qualified as the administrator of H. C. Whitehead, deceased, this is to notify all persons holding claims against said deceased to exhibit the same to me on or before January 3rd, 1896, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. This January 3rd, 1895.

JESSE ROBERTSON.
