The Chatham Record

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1895.

LOCAL MATTERS.

SCHEDULE PITTSBORO' R. R.

The trains on this road will leave Pittsboro daily except Sundays at 7 a. m. and 3 p. m. Sundays with the same time as above, leave at 8 a. m. and 4 p. m.

—Call on John L. [illegible] nice shave and [illegible] candies.

—A wagon load [illegible] from this county [illegible] few days ago [illegible]

—The Record [illegible] greetings to the [illegible] for its celebrated [illegible] fortune.

—On last Saturday [illegible] child of Mr. [illegible] by township [illegible] by the overturning of a [illegible] water.

—Quite an interesting [illegible] baseball was played [illegible] last Saturday, between [illegible] Pittsboro boys and [illegible] nine. [illegible]

—Farmers are [illegible] holders of wheat [illegible] expects this year. [illegible] better to wait [illegible] not pull [illegible] corn would [illegible]

—W. H. [illegible] visit Bennett [illegible] day, and Pittsboro [illegible] Thursday and Friday [illegible] third Saturday [illegible] pared to deal [illegible] Crown will be [illegible]

—The largest stock of [illegible] shown in this county [illegible] at W. L. London & Son's [illegible] are all wanting [illegible] ceived the [illegible] stock. A few [illegible] ing on hand will [illegible] own price.

—The [illegible] W. L. London & Son's [illegible] day. Call and see [illegible] ceived this week [illegible] er dry goods [illegible] led stock, which [illegible] They are still selling [illegible] at greatly reduced prices.

Thank Him.—Mr. [illegible] presented the Record office [illegible] bunch of upland cotton, raised [illegible] farm of his brother [illegible] Norris Lea, near Lake [illegible] Wake county. Mr. Norris [illegible] acres planted in cotton [illegible] mer will put [illegible] on Braswell creek. The specimen sent the Record [illegible] about six feet tall, [illegible] 125 acres are expected to yield nearly 300 bales or [illegible] will be worth $12.50 a bale.

Accidentally Shot.—On last Saturday night a colored man [illegible] place, named Mary Williams [illegible] accidentally shot herself in the [illegible] is reported a very popular [illegible] is Mr. Spence [illegible] while he and [illegible] narily placed [illegible] of his premises. At [illegible] last Saturday night [illegible] one breaking into the premises and seizing a gun she went into the [illegible] to shoot at the thief but the gun fired accidentally and the shot [illegible] through her [illegible] saw the thief [illegible] the night he was [illegible] now in jail, where he is [illegible] been before, for being the [illegible] Lewis Farrar, [illegible] served two terms in the penitentiary.

Old Curiosities.—Mr. W. N. Strange [illegible] trator of Mr. J. B. [illegible] of his interesting [illegible] and seldom has there been [illegible] a rare collection of old [illegible] The proceeds of the sale [illegible] to about $300, and [illegible] majority of the articles sold [illegible] for more than 25 cents apiece. Mr. Bright had been a [illegible] many of the articles sold had been made by him. Among them [illegible] several pocket knives, [illegible] table knives and forks [illegible] was a sharp pointed [illegible] long that he had made [illegible] ing his back.

On the lot was a well [illegible] had been planted [illegible] yet had grown [illegible] 13 feet in circumference [illegible] the ground and [illegible] from the end of one limb [illegible] of another limb [illegible]

Personal.—Dr. [illegible] Gattis, of Baldwin, [illegible] on a visit to Aurora, in this county, with a view of making [illegible] to practise his profession, and [illegible] much pleased that he has decided to locate there.

Our former townsman, Mr. Robert S. Thompson, who [illegible] graph operator at Aurora, N. C., for some time, has [illegible] a similar position at Asheville.

Mr. Leon H. Merritt, who has been in business in Pennsylvania [illegible] eral months, is on a visit to his father's family near here.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Lindsay, of Rock Hill, S. C., are expected here today on a visit to relatives.

Miss Mary S. Thompson has returned to Peace Institute at Raleigh to perfect herself in music.

Miss Janie Tillinghast, of Fayetteville, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Laura Baker, at this place.

Mrs. R. L. Strood, of Chapel Hill, is on a visit to her father, Mr. A. C. Hayden.

Mr. C. C. Hatch has rented and moved into the house of Rev. E. R. Womack.

Miss Lucy London is on a visit to Chapel Hill.

An Old Chatham Boy.—On Thursday of last week Chatham had [illegible] one of her sons [illegible] Democratic [illegible] Congressional [illegible] Democrat that they very much appreciate [illegible] complimentary [illegible] county. He possessed [illegible] compliments paid him by his enemies [illegible] political opinions [illegible] of Congressional [illegible] Democrat [illegible]

The Record Complimented.—Ed [illegible] are [illegible] on oil to bring [illegible] unjustly [illegible] compliment [illegible] Democrat that they very much appreciate [illegible] complimentary [illegible] Democrat [illegible]

[illegible]

A Terrible Death.—[illegible] Saturday night [illegible] Mr. Charles Lea, [illegible] Lea, in Cumnock township, [illegible] Mr. Lea had been [illegible] Mr. Lea was [illegible] Mr. Lea was [illegible] Mr. Lea was