A Reply to Mr. Wolff.

WACO, TEXAS, Nov. 15, 1895.

MR. EDITOR: I notice in your issue of October 31st a communication from one Mr. Wolff, headed "A Little Sketch of Texas". It appears that this gentleman claims to have come from good old Chatham county.

I was born and raised in Chatham county, came to Texas [illegible] ago, and while I have not always will entertain the very tender feelings for my native heath. I cannot contain myself if I don't reply through your valuable columns to some of his statements. I have not a [illegible] dent. Texas is a national [illegible] tion for better the greatest [illegible] the Union as far as agricultural products are concerned, and the products of this section are [illegible] to none. [illegible] with half the labor [illegible] the amount of [illegible] the poor hills of Chatham we could be raised on the same acreage in Texas.

My early life was spent upon a farm in Chatham and I know [illegible] contain a reputed amount of [illegible] hands [illegible] after paying all expenses. In Chatham [illegible] rate. The farmers here would show a [illegible] if they [illegible] anything [illegible] the [illegible] Chatham [illegible] for our farms [illegible].

Charlotte Observer [illegible] Jones colored, lives on Mr. [illegible] place, four miles [illegible] Cornelius Wednesday afternoon [illegible] hunting. [illegible] jumped [illegible] tree at the same time and now [illegible] lying at the point of death within a mile of [illegible] head.
