CLEAR THE TRACK
For the honest old North State!

"WE HAVE MET THE ENEMY AND THEY ARE our's."

The day, it is over—the battle is done;
The field, it is conquer'd—the victory won!
We've carried our leader triumphantly through;
Then peal our huzzas for brave HARRY, the true!

We present to our readers, in this paper, the Returns from nearly the whole State, of the Election for President. Our majority, it will be seen, is greatly increased since August—a result which we have, for weeks, most confidently predicted. We know our native State too well, and we estimate too highly, the good sense, the virtue and integrity of her people, to distrust them for one moment, whatever may be said by contemptible witlings abroad, or recreant sons at home. There is no State in this Union, which adheres more strictly to principle, and is so little affected in her policy by extraneous circumstances as North Carolina. With Virginia on one side, and South Carolina on the other, voting most generally diametrically opposite to her, she yet turns neither to the right nor to the left, but pursues the noiseless tenor of her way, determined to act correctly herself, however others may err. Inflexibly and devotedly Whig, she has manfully battled against the enemies of Whig principles, alike in the hour of gloom and defeat, as amid the bright sunshine of popular commendation. And should such a calamity as the election of a Loco Foco President, fall upon the nation, it will yet be always a source of proud consolation to the Whigs of North Carolina, that having first nominated Mr. CLAY for the Presidency, they stood by him to the last,

As constant as the Northern Star,
Of whose true, fix'd and resting quality,
There is no fellow in the firmament.

THE ELECTION.

At the time of writing this paragraph, we do not know, of course, how the election for President has resulted. But we heard an individual, professing to be a Whig, say to day, that, if CLAY was beaten, he would never vote again! This is the spirit which would cause a man to exclaim, if an invading enemy should land on our shores—"Let us submit—it is of use—they are too strong for us." Is this the spirit of a Whig, of a Freeman, of an American? Is this the spirit which can preserve our liberties? For one, if defeat unfortunately awaits us, so far from giving up the cause of the country, "we shall peck the flint, and try them again." Mr. POLK's election, it is true, would inflict a deep wound on the genius of our Republican Institutions, but we should not despair. There will still be left that redeeming spirit in the people, which will, ultimately, invigorate the councils of the Republic.

A PLEDGE REDEEMED.

Two or three weeks ago, the Whigs of Wilmington pledged themselves to give the largest vote ever given in the County, and most nobly have they redeemed it. They obtained exactly 100 more Whig votes than they had in August for Governor. It is a singular coincidence, that in New Hanover and Cumberland, the Whig increase was precisely the same—one hundred each. And it will, perhaps, in some measure compensate our friends for their exertions, when we tell them, that the Locos kept up their spirits pretty well, until they heard their thunder.

GEN. PEGRAM.

The Councils of the City of Richmond, Va. of which body Gen. James W. Pegram, who was lost on board the steamboat Lucy Walker, was a distinguished member, assembled on Wednesday last, and adopted resolutions expressive of their sorrow for General P.'s sad fate, and of sympathy with the bereaved family and friends of the deceased.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

GLORIOUS LITTLE RHODE ISLAND.

No citizens of our Union—throughout its whole length and breadth—deserve more praise, or have done themselves higher honor, than our good Whig friends in the noble little State of Rhode Island. They have sustained the glorious cause of Law and Order, with a constancy, and a cool, determined bravery, which are worthy of all commendation. They have given a grand Whig vote, and secured their State for CLAY and FRELINGHUYSEN, and sound Whig principles. Dorrism and Locofocoism have pretty much gone out from Rhode Island. The majority for the Whigs, is five or six hundred larger than that obtained by Gen. HARRISON.

WELL DONE JERSEY BLUES!

New Jersey has again entitled herself to the thanks of the Whigs of the Union, for her unfaltering devotion to Whig principles. Not only has our Electoral Ticket succeeded there, but five Whig Members of Congress have been also elected. Well done Jersey Blues! You are worthy of your glorious ancestry.

MARYLAND!

Every county in the State but one, Whig, and by increased majorities since October.

OHIO.

More and more Whig as the returns come in. This great youthful empire has acquired glory. Indiana will do likewise, we do not doubt.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

The story from this State may be told in a few words. It has gone for Polk by a large majority. The Birney vote will be a large one. We observe, however, that there are many good Whig towns in this dark corner of the land.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Several Counties yet to hear from, before the Loco Foco majority can be correctly stated. It will be somewhere between 4,000 and 6,000.

VIRGINIA.

It has been a close race in this State, but the Loco Focos have carried it without doubt. The first returns were very encouraging, but the faster the news came, the worse it got. The majority [illegible]

GEORGIA.

In thirty-five Counties, the Whigs have gained 618 votes on the Governor's Election, when the Locos carried the State by 2,230 majority—There are over 90 Counties in the State.

NEW YORK.

On this State, all eyes have been turned, it being conceded that her vote, without some unlooked for result in other States, would settle the question as to who is to be President. The latest intelligence, though not absolutely decisive, is so unfavorable to the Whig prospect, that we have in our Table of Results, given the 36 Electoral votes of the State to POLK and DALLAS. There is now, therefore, no chance for Mr. CLAY's Election, but for the Whigs to carry Georgia and Mississippi or Michigan. Georgia, with either, will yet elect him, if we carry the other States relied on, of the fidelity of which, we have no doubt.

If JAMES K. POLK is elected, he will owe his elevation, as unexpected to his friends as his opponents, not to the free-born sons of America, but to the foreigners, whom tyranny has driven, or kindness attracted, to our shores. The vote both of Pennsylvania and New York has been decided by their suffrages—a result, which will speedily bring about a new order of things, and a new classification of parties. More anon.

If the reports received, are to be relied on, the majority for POLK in New York, in a vote of 500,000, will be about 4,000!

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

The Election in the following States have been heard from sufficiently to authorize the announcement of those States having chosen Electors of President and Vice President, as stated:

THE RESULT.

There are 74 Counties in North-Carolina, and we have the returns from all but ten of them—As far as heard from the vote stands thus:

For Clay and Frelinghuysen	30,701
For Polk and Dallas	26,969
Present Whig majority	3,732

The Counties to hear from, will probably increase this majority 1500 votes. If they do, our majority in the State will be over 5,000—an increase over the August vote, in favor of the Whigs, of about 2000 votes!

THE LEGISLATURE.

The Legislature of North Carolina will assemble in this City, on Monday next, the 18th inst. A Loco Foco Senator having been chosen in Johnston, at the Special Election, there will be a tie of parties in that body—25 Whigs, and 25 Locos. This state of things renders it imperative upon every Whig to be at his post, at the opening of the Session; for should even one be absent, the Locos will take what the Lawyers call, we believe, a snap Judgment! It is proper to state, however, that the Senator elect from Johnston is pledged to vote for a Whig Speaker, and so acknowledged in this City, last week.

☞ On the morning of election in Philadelphia, a letter, purporting to be from Mr. Polk, (but of course another Locofoco Roorback,) was circulated, containing a pledge, that, in the event of his election, he would sign a bill abolishing slavery in District of Columbia. In another publication for the interior of Pennsylvania, it was said that Mr Clay, if elected, would hang all the Germans!—Lamentable is it, that there are knaves base enough to give currency to much infamous falsehoods; but far more lamentable is it, (since it indicates the downfall of our free institutions unless a corrective can be speedily applied) that such a mass of ignorance in the population encourages their perpetration.

☞ The Baltimore papers record a singular accidental death—that of a boy who attempted to jump through the blaze of a bonfire made by a tar barrel. He fell, and was so burned before he was extricated, as to cause his death.

SPECIAL ELECTIONS.

In Caswell County, to fill a vacancy, J. K. LEA, (Loco) is elected to the Commons, by the following vote—no change:

J. K. Lea,	947
S. Dodson,	513

In Greene County, Mr. EDWARDS (Loco) is elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of HARPER (Whig) by about 20 votes.

In Davidson, B. C. DOCTHITT (Whig) is elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of BRUMMELL (Whig.)

HIS NATIVE COUNTY

JAMES K. POLK was born in Mecklenburg County in this State, and it was in the same County, that his grand-father swore allegiance to the British Crown. To the same County, Gen. SAUNDERS and Geo. DROWDOLE made a political pilgrimage, to enlighten the people, and convert them from the error of their ways. But all these appliances failed of their effect. The Whigs have given a net gain in that County, since the August Election, of ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY-TWO VOTES!

☞ NORTH CAROLINA—Yesterday, there were some rumors borne on the wings of the wind, of a discouraging character from the Old North State. We hope they are unfounded. The times would be sadly out of joint, indeed, if she were to wheel out of the Whig line, which she has graced by her gallantry. We won't believe these flying rumors. We must see the returns before we will believe North Carolina false to the Whig cause.

We copy the foregoing from the "Richmond Compiler." Our friends, who edit that most excellent paper, will have doubtless learned, ere this, that their confidence in the integrity and consistency of our people, was not misplaced.

[EDIT. REG.]

WELL DONE, DAVIDSON!

Lexington, Nov. 5, 1844.

The Election is just over, and I am happy to inform you that Old Davidson is "returning to her allegiance." If you recollect, at the August election the Whig majority was considerably reduced, and a Democratic candidate for the Commons came within four votes of being elected—The County was then claimed by the Locos, and a great flourish made over their success. But alas! their joy is now turned into mourning.—Their vain boastings only served to arouse the Whigs from their apathy, and a glorious Whig victory was the result. The vote is as follows: 1002 for H. Clay, and 610 for "lean Jimmy." An election was also held for a member of the House of Commons, in the place of our former worthy and much lamented Member, Chas. Brummel, dec'd. No stone was left unturned by the Locos to elect their man, but behold the result! Our very estimable and worthy fellow-citizen, Benton Douthitt, received 1056 votes, and Walter P. Richards, (a real cross-ass demagogue,) received only 609 votes; giving the Whig candidate 447 majority. Thus the people have administered a just rebuke to the slanderers of the great "Statesman of the West," and have told James Knox Polk that they at least value the services of the Revolutionary patriots, if he does not. "The dirty tool of a petty tyrant" can never command the suffrages of the free people of Davidson. The vote for Governor in August, stood: Graham 911, Hoke 658. The Whigs have therefore increased their majority by 228 votes. Yours, very respectfully.

ARKANSAS.

We avail ourself, of the first reliable intelligence to state that THOMAS S. DREW, the Locofoco candidate for Governor of that State, is elected over both his competitors. The Independent candidate received only about twelve hundred votes. Mr. YELL (Loco) is elected also to Congress by a decisive majority.

The Whigs gained greatly, but not quite enough. Our Loco Foco friends will please consider that Cannon that was fired, unshot.

DEATH OF GOV. RUNNELS.—The Brandon (Mississippi) Advocate says that Gen. H. G. Runnels, formerly Governor of the State, has met a violent death. Runnels, and some other respectable gentlemen, were sent by the civil authority to arrest a parcel of men who were committing various acts of violence under the authority of "Lynch," or, as they styled themselves, "Regulators." They were lodged in jail, and as Runnels and his associates of law and order were returning home they were fired on, and several others besides himself killed.

MARRIED.

In this City, on Tuesday evening last, by the Rev. J. E. Edwards, Mr. William F. Hester, to Miss Eliza G. Fulton.

Died.

In this City, on Sunday last, of Consumption, Mrs. Mary Ann Harrison, consort of Mr. William A. Harrison.

Also, on Sunday night, very suddenly of Hemorrhage of the Lungs, Capt. William F. Clark, and old and respectable citizen.

In Sampson county, of congestive fever, Mrs. Martha Draughon, consort of Maj. Geo. Draughon, aged sixty-seven years;—a lady much respected as the mother of a large family of children—highly esteemed by an extensive circle of friends.

At the residence of Mrs Mary Taylor, near Pittsborough, Chatham County, on Tuesday, the 22d October, of Bilious Pneumonia, Mr. Addison Campbell, of Choctaw County, Mississippi, formerly of Guilford County, N. C. aged 38 years.

It will, we trust, be some consolation to the friends and relatives of the deceased, to know, though he was a stranger among us, that he received all the attention that humanity and kindness could dictate, both from the Physicians who attended him, and from the family where he died. The funeral ceremonies were conducted by the Rev. S. D. Bumpass, and his remains accompanied to the grave in the Methodist Church yard, by a number of the citizens of Pittsborough.

S. N. BOTSFORD will receive and repair fine Clocks and Watches, and warrant them to perform well. His materials and machinery for making new parts surpass any other in the State; he therefore feels confident of giving satisfaction. Watchmakers who have not the convenience of making new wheels, pinions, putting in verges or Lever staffs, will have every attention bestowed upon work that they may favor him with, and the usual deduction made to the trade.

☞ Letters asking information must be post paid to receive attention.

S. N. BOTSFORD.

Raleigh, Nov. 9, 1844.

[TESTIMONIAL]

Mr. S. N. BOTSFORD having been employed to repair the Astronomical Clock, Telescope and other apparatus belonging to the Trustees and the University of North Carolina, and of some Electro-magnetic apparatus belonging to myself, I commend him to the confidence of such as may need his services in this kind of business—as not only a skilful and ingenious mechanic, but possessing a very competent knowledge of the Sciences of Electricity, Magnetism and Electro-Magnetism—and qualified therefore by his acquaintance with the principles on which their action depends, to do justice to apparatus which may be put into his hands for repair; or which he may undertake to construct.
