All the rage among woman—Suffrage.

Ripe bananas in Wilmington fifty cents per dozen.

The Blonde Minstrels perform at Raleigh this week.

There will be no meeting of the Board of County Commissioners this month.

Monday, thirty-eight years ago, the first railroad was built in the United States.

Mr. J. R. Rogers, of Raleigh, had his hand bad y injured by a cotton gin on Saturday.

The different companies of the Fire Department held their regular monthly meetings Monnight.

Monday last was Wilmington's great moving day; they have a regular New York first of May day.

The stove trade is good and those enterprising merchants Churchill & Co. are doing the most of it.

The young men of Wilmington are getting up a couple of clubs to play base ball during Fair week.

The steamship Zodiac, Chapin master, arrived at her wharf, from New York at 7 o'clock yesterday morning.

The Cape Fear River is so low that they have to station guards all along to keep the cows from drinking it completely dry.

Bonitz, of the Messenger, still persists in his determination to publish a daily, and it will be shortly issued. We are glad to hear it.

On Friday, 22d ult., the Cherokee Indians played a game of ball on the banks of the Tuckasege river, near Webster, Jackson county.

There were five white and twenty-seven colored marriages in New Hanover last month, and thirteen interments in Oakdale Cemetery for the same period.

The crime of jerking the hair out of your wife's head is not so sinful as it formerly was. It is just as ungentlemanly as ever, but it doesn't hurt as it used to.

Our enterprising merchant tailor, Mr. McLacklan, gives notice to the people of Goldsboro' that he will visit them for the purpose of measuring them for new clothes in May.

We learn from the Sentinel that the saw mill and cotton gin of Henry Mordecai, Esq., about two miles north of Raleigh, were totally destroyed by fire on Friday. Loss about $5,000.

The Eagle is requested by Rev. Mr. Sherwood, editor of the Presbyterian, to say that unexpected non-arrival of a lot of printing paper has delayed the issue of that paper this week.

The next eclipse of the sun will occur on the 12th of December next. As it is to be visible in the vicinity of Arabia, persons who intend to go to see it should begin to think of getting ready for the trip.

A very large number of persons went up on the special train to attend the camp meeting at Jumping Run on Sunday. A very large crowd were in attendance on the camp ground and much interest manifested.

A rumor obtained currency in this city some few days ago that small-pox existed at Hatteras. We have been informed by Mr. Homer Styron that the rumor is unfounded, not a single case having occurred at that place.

Sunday Morning's Wilmington Post contains Mr. Grady's valedictory. Mr. Grady intimates that he will soon connect himself with some other paper. Mr. Grady's successor as editor of the Post is not announced. In the meantime the paper will be run by a company.

We learn from the Messenger that a little boy, son of Mr. Jas. G. Smith, of Goldsboro', fell from a tree in that town last Thursday and broke both his arms and his right thigh, besides sustaining other injuries. The breaking of a limb was the cause of the accident.

Dr. Richard P. Ashe, an old resident of San Joaquin county, died in San Francisco last week. Deceased was a native of North Carolina and well known throughout the State.

A gentleman who has been on a tour of observation through the counties along the line of the W. & W. R. R. says there is a scarcity of labor. Fine fields of cotton are seen without a single picker at work. This condition of affairs in that section is no doubt the result of a mistaken policy in allowing planters and agents from Southern States to carry off large numbers of good field hands.

Seven more Ku Klux have confessed their guilt. This makes the number of Ku Klux who have either been found guilty or admitted their guilt, thirty-seven, with a couple of hundred more to hear from. That young champion of Democracy, Plato Durham, and forty others were called on Friday to answer the charge of Ku Kluxing but was postponed.

The Academy opened on Monday under the most favorable auspices. On the first day there were some two hundred and thirty pupils in attendance, and it is more than probable that before the end of the present session there will be over three hundred, a larger number than ever before known. This large attendance is easily accounted for, by the excellence of the teachers, and the interest taken, work performed and inducements offered by the trustees.

Notice to Shippers.

The steamship Zodiac will leave New-Bern for New York Friday next, October 6th.

The Ellen S. Terry will leave New York for New-Bern on Friday, October 6th.

Mayor's Court.

Mayor Kilburn presiding.

There were three cases before the Court, two of which were postponed and the other, a case of disorderly conduct, dismissed.

Stopping Holes in Furniture.

Take good glue and boil with water to a clear thin liquid. Mix with the saw dust of the same wood, or other wood of the same color of the furniture to a paste. While hot cover the rough wood or holes with this, and when dry scrape and polish.

Narrow Escape.

The narrow escape of a colored man named Peter Churchill should be recorded as one of these wonderful strokes of good fortune, we hope useful as a lesson to many habitually indulging to excess in ardent spirits. It seems that last Wednesday evening one of the street car horses came in contact with a man knocking him down and before the brakes could be applied the wheel had passed almost over the prostrate man, denting his neck, but stopping in time to prevent beheading!—Wilmington Post.

Meeting of the Board of Council.

The Board of council m t on Monday night, Mayor Kilburn presiding. All the members present but Mr Stanly.

The different committees reported progress.

New vouchers were issued to Messrs. Henry R. Bryan and Thos. Howard in exchange for old vouchers issued by the city in 1860 and 1861. On motion the city Marshal was instructed to complete the fence around Greenwood Cemetery. The usual monthly bills were passed and allowed.

The Indian Ball Game.

It is now positively settled that the Cherokee Indians will play their game of base Ball at Raleigh some time during Fair week. The Sentinel says that the following Indians will participate in the game:

Leander Horsebuckle, Te-oo-yaw-yeh, Awyon-se-neh, To-ay-skeh, Low-yeh, Sse-neh, yah-aw-muh-cha, Ta-ta-ske', Chew-ne-chewkeh, Taw-goo-yah, A-man-nee-tah, Ja-son nee, Da-wah, Taolor, Jim-nee, Ja-ail-see, Teel-tah-ta-gah and Tee-quah-yah. Besides the ball players, Na-cee, Wa-ke-e, Ca-li-nee, Es-tah and some two or three other Indian ladies will grace the occasion with their presence, and during their stay in the city will give us an opportunity of witnessing the Wild and Grand Corn dances, performed according to the most approved Indian idea of the Terpsichorean festivities.

U. S. Court—the "Ku Klux" Trials—Sixteenth Day.

The court met at 10 a. m., Judge Bond presiding.

In the case of the State vs. Lee Dunlap, from Mecklenburg, an order was issued to the clerk of the Superior Court of that county for a transcript of the record. No further proceedings for the present.

In the case of the United States vs. Peter Z. Baxter and twelve others, from Lincoln, charged with conspiracy under the first section of the act of May 31st, 1870, the following defendants submitted: Daniel McCowan, H. E. Baxter, J. A. Lingerfelt, John Stamey, Jacob Wilson, P. Z. Baxter and T. O. Lackey. Judge Bond examined all these defendants severally and then remanded them to the custody of the marshal pending his decision.

The case of the United vs. Plato Durham and others was not closed.

At about 1½ p. m., there being no case ready for the jury, the court adjourned till 10 o'clk Monday.

The Mails Once More.

Editor Times:

In your issue of this morning, (3d Oct.) I see "Carolina" has noticed my remarks on the above subject, and I only wish to say a very few words as a finality, so far as I am concerned.

First. My remarks were general, no one being personally implicated.

Secondly. Our New Bern officials were specially exonerated from all blame.

Third y. Officials, beyond the writers knowledge, and scattered over the country from North to South, and from East to West, were not exempted from all censure, as "something is certainly wrong somewhere." "Carolina" himself, being judge.

Fourthly. The books mailed were directed South instead of North.

Fifthly. "Carolina" opposes my idea of the telegraph "on the ground that I (he) belong to a certain organization, and sometimes want to communicate with my brethren under the seal of secrecy, 'untouched by fel nicus hands.'"

In reply to this I have only to say, that the telegraph being a part of the "Postal System" would not prevent any proper "secrecy" in communicating with his "brethren," as it would be surrounded by other safeguards and require "no keys."

Sixthly. Finally, as the mail bags would be in charge of the Express Companies only to be delivered at the proper offices, like other freight, they would need no keys to lock or unlock the bags.

Express Agents do sometimes no doubt, become defaulters as well as Mail Agents and Post Masters; but the Express Companies might, by proper legislation on the subject, become responsible for individual losses. At any rate, in that case, "felonious hands" might be detected and punished. And that the telegraph should be made a part of the Postal System of the United States, is, I think, the sense of the whole Nation with, perhaps, a few exceptions, like "Carolina." My experience with Express Companies is, that they are less liable to miscarry than the mails.

A Crying Evil.

MR. EDITOR:—Permit me, through your columns, to denounce an evil that is constantly being engrafted upon our irreverent conduct of recent church history. There is a class of young persons who attend the places of divine service, as a matter of pastime and recreation; and pay no respect to the House of God. This had become so irksome that a certain clergyman in our city, not long since, found it necessary to warn offenders, that he would take cognizance of their conduct, and expose their names to the public gaze, unless they desisted in their disgraceful course. For a while, for fear of being shown up, and dreading public contempt, which they so richly merit, this measure had a very salutary effect; but "it's hard to learn an old dog new tricks;" the measure became an "old thing," and they have become more irreverent and unreached than ever. On last Sabbath evening your correspondent witnessed a scene the most disrespectful, and repugnant to refinement and christianity, that ever came under his observation. After the services were concluded in one of our churches, and a crowd of young men as usual had assembled in the vestibule, a couple of young men very deliberately engaged in a few rounds of fisticuffs, as ladies and gentlemen were passing out of the church, while two or three others proded around the door under the influence of liquor! Among a people so blessed as we with the sunlight of civilization and christianity, such conduct, in our humble opinion, ought to be considered a Penitentiary offence, and dealt with accordingly. A man, or set of men, who are so lost to the principles of morality and refinement, are obnoxious to any christian community, and ought to be placed where they cannot desecrate the House of God, and where they would no longer be obtrusive and loathsome to law-abiding and Bible-loving citizens. Their names should be ascertained, and held up to public contempt. Let them beware—they are not unknown to the clergymen of our city, and they may be shown up in an hour when they think not; and our authorities may yet have to "settle their accounts." They are already "weighed in the balance and found wanting," and if they still persist they will inevitably receive the just reward of their well known licentiousness.

AN OBSERVER.

WE MEET UPON THE LEVEL.

We meet upon the Level and we part upon the Square;
What words of precious meaning those words
Masonic are?
Come let us contemplate them: they are worthy of a thought
In the very soul of Masonry these precious words are wrought.

We meet upon the Level, though from every station come:
The rich man from his mansion the poor man
from his home;
For the one must have his wealth and state outside the Mason's door,
And the other finds his true respect upon the chequered floor.

We meet upon the Square, for the world must have its due;
We mingle with the multitude—a cold, unfriedly crew;
But the influence of our gathering in memory
is green,
And we look upon the Level to renew the happy scene.

There's a world where all are equal—we are hurrying toward it fast;
We'll all meet upon the Level there, when the gates of Death are past;
We shall stand before the Orient, and our master shall be there
To try the blocks we offer by His own unerring square.

We shall meet upon the Level there, but never thence depart;
There's a mansion—'tis all ready for each trusting, faithful heart;
There's a mansion and a welcome—and a multitude is there—
We have met upon the Level and been tried upon the Square.

Hands round, ye faithful Masons, from the bright fraternal chain—
We part upon the Square below to meet in Heaven again.
Oh! what words of precious meaning these words Masonic are—
We meet upon the Level and we part upon the Square.

The increasing popularity of DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER has induced a certain firm who manufacture a Baking Powder to copy verbatim our advertisements, simply substituting their name in place of ours. Great secret of success is that it establishes departments in the various States, in which it is at work and puts the management in the hands of the citizens of the State; and invests all its reserve fund in the department where the premiums are received, thereby building up and improving the communities in which it operates, instead of impoverishing them as all the companies do that carry the money away.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
