L'Ancor, is the name of a new paper soon to be started in Rome, with the names of Dr. Dollinger and Father Hyacinthe as editors.

Our Church Work is on our table as usual, full of religious reading, published in Baltimore. Terms, $1.00 per year. The profits of this paper are devoted to the building of the "Church of the Epiphany," now in course of erection in Baltimore. Subscribe for it.

The marriage of Mr. Charles E. Slover to Miss Emma H. Ellis, took place at the Presbyterian church last night. The happy couple were united by the Rev. L. C. Vass, in the presence of a large number of friends and citizens. May they realize to the full that,

"Domestic happiness, thou only bliss
Of Paradise that has survived the fall."

The Yosemite XX Gold Pens are the best of them all. Every Pen warranted perfect. We challenge the world to produce a better pen—Lawyers, Doctors, Ministers, Merchants, Bankers, Book Keepers, Business men and Teachers consider this pen indispensible.

Horace Greeley says "it will supply a want long felt by all." This Pen cannot be corroded by any ink; it is adapted to any hand that can hold a pen. Writes smoother on any paper, and is 500 per cent. cheaper to use than steel pens.

If the following regulations of the Russian Empire were enforced in this country, the many potent causes of the evils that flesh is heir to, would be unknown. People who feel a little indisposed at times rush off for some of Dr. Humbug's cure all, and bring on diseases many times that would be averted by rest and diet:

1. A petition has to be written on a (one rouble) stamped paper, to be sent free to the Manufacture and Foreign Commercial Department of the Finance Ministry (not to the Medical Department).

2. The exact composition of the remedy must be stated.

3. Only those remedies can be approved of by the Medical Council which have been examined and found useful by a foreign medical faculty, or any other scientific institution of equal standing.

4. The remedy should be so constituted that a long journey or time should not interfere with its properties.

5. It should not contain a decidedly poisonous substance.

6. Besides these regulations, it must require either difficult obtainable apparatus and instruments for its preparation, or particular manipulation obtained by long experience.

7. In reference to advertising it in the daily papers, leave has to be obtained from the newspaper censor.

8. All the cost of carriage, and other expenses connected with the remedy must be defrayed by the sender.

Chain Gang.

The chain gang was again on the streets yesterday, cleaning them.

Steamship.

Read the steamship advertisement in this issue, then order your Christmas goods.

Wood.

Wood has dropped again in price—selling yesterday at the single load for $4.75 delivered.

Interviewed.

The Raleigh Carolinian has interviewed Dan Rice—result, a little over a column. Oh, for a chance.

Religious.

Father McNeirny, Secretary of Archbishop McCloskey, has been chosen to fill the new See created in New York.

The Senatorship.

Vance is confident that his chance is good of either getting his seat in the Senate or not just as the humor may elect to do.

A Word to the Wise.

Massachusetts tobacco-chewers don't appear to enjoy many privileges. A Taunton man was fined $5 for spitting on a church carpet.

A New

Mr. Nash has the finest and largest assortment of toys in the city. Also, Christmas presents in abundance for either old or young.

Congress.

Congress will adjourn December 21st and will re-assemble January 8th, giving the members a chance to spend the holidays at home.

What Next.

Wilmington has an Academy of Music. We recommend the reading of Æsop's Fable of the Bull and the Frog to those Wilmingtonians.

Real Estate.

There has been a number of changes in real estate this week, and it is understood that the purchasing parties will build handsome houses of brick. Let the good work continue.

Tobacco Tax.

It is said that four members of the Ways and Means Committee are tobacco men that they will favor a reduction of the tax on tobacco to 16 cents per pound on all grades.

Mrs. Wharton.

The trial of Mrs. Wharton is now in progress at Annapolis, Md. She is charged with poisoning Gen. Ketchum. It excites a great deal of interest, as the parties concerned occupied high social positions.

Coal Burning.

Coal for fuel is fast superseding wood. It is found to be cheaper, and when you have occasion to go off for a few hours, your mind is not tortured by the fear that sparks will fly out and set fire to your premises.

Shooting.

There is fine duck shooting just now in the vicinity of our city, across the Trent River, at the point of marsh opposite the wharf of C. W. Dill. Ducks are plenty in the morning, and sportsmen should get up early in order to catch the prize.

Be Careful.

We call the attention of the public to the danger they are exposed to in passing the brick row on Craven street. The late snow storm having loosed the slates on the roof, they occasionally "drop," and it would be well to keep your weather eye skin.

E. S. Wormell.

E. S. Wormell, the Photographer, has received a splendid assortment of albums, suitable for a Christmas present. Call at his gallery, on Craven street, and have your picture taken, insert it in an album, and present it to your girl, and if you have no girl—why give it to your wife.

Retained.

We are pleased to learn that the Baptist congregation has unanimously decided to retain the Rev. Levi Thorne as their pastor. Mr. Thorne contemplated leaving our city in hopes of improving his health, but having been called on the mend for sometime, the church decided to retain him, to which he has consented.

Literary.

We acknowledge receipt of a copy of the Journal of Education, published by J. B. Merwin, Esq., at St. Louis, Mo. $1.50 per year. As its name indicates it is devoted to the subject of education; it is sixteen pages, very neat in typographical appearance, and is replete with happy selections.

Journalistic.

David Barnes exits the Wilson Ledger, and Edmund N. Joyner salutatories as follws:

"We may and do differ from many of you in our political creed, but whatever are the tenets and doctrines you pin your faith to, we will greet you as brethren so long as you are true to truth, and honorable in being honest."

Board of Trade.

A few days ago we published an item of a fraud that some unprincipled man had perpetrated upon a merchant here, in packing cotton seed with the cotton. Now, if we had a Board of Trade in New Bern, a fraud of this kind could always be traced to the guilty party. We hope for the sake of our city and the protection of our merchants that they will organize.

Croup.

The following is said to be a very efficacious remedy in the above case, and this being the season for croup, it would be well to bear in mind the following simple remedy: "Take the white of an egg, stir it thoroughly into a small quantity of well-sweetened water, and give it in repeated doses until a cure is effected. If one egg is not sufficient a second, or even a third one, should be used.

Our Markets.

"Coming events cast their shadows before," and if you do not believe Christmas is coming visit our merchants, or go down to our market and behold the stocks of goods, and the variety of merchandise exposed for sale, and while you are beholding just dive down into the recesses of your good nature and then conclude by performing a philanthropic deed in ordering a turkey, or something else equally substantial, beautiful or useful, to be sent to the Local, and then your slumbers will be sweet, your dreams pleasant, because of the consciousness that at least one good deed has been accomplished, in making your fellow man happy.

Real Estate Transactions.

Real Estate transactions have been lively for the past week, the following changes having occurred:

George H. Paul to James Doyle; William Dixon to Abner Dean; E. E. Stanly to Gilbert Joiner; W. E. Butter to W. G. Brinson; John E. Rhein to Mary May; H. R. Bryan, Attv. to Mary A. Moore; Wm. H. Smith to C. Campbell; John Patterson to S. Gaskill; Cook & Co., to Mitchell, Allen & Co.; M. Sawyer to T. J. Sawyer; J. T. Sawyer to Robert Jones; A. Miller to F. B. Miller; Rich Jackson to James W. Gray; L. H. French to Bryan Cummings.

The Hardware House of New Bern.

On yesterday we visited the immense Agricultural Warehouse and Manufactory of Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., and, becoming interested, passed from floor to floor and from department to department, until we quite forgot that we were in this little city, and for the hour were deep in the mysteries of the various families and pedigrees of the plow tribe. This firm are manufacturing and selling above 3,000 plows per annum, at prices which defy competition; their stock of castings on hand for this branch of their factory does not fall short of 100,000 pounds. Feed cutters and other implements are manufactured in variety, and in the best manner by them. The farmers and dealers of this and all other sections of the State can obtain any variety, and a full supply, of home manufactured articles, of the most approved patents, from this house, by order or personal selection, and should encourage the enterprise of these gentlemen, in their own interests as well as that of the State. The immense, and tastefully arranged stock of Hardware and Agricultural implements attracted our attention next in order, and we took occasion to remark that it seemed impossible that such a stock could be made to pay, but were quickly undeceived when informed that the secret of the trade lies in supplying every call and want promptly. Nothing is wanting in this establishment to make it the Agricultural and Hardware House of North Carolina, which we pronounce it to be, in fact. Those who dispute this word let them look at the goods and see for themselves.

[From the New York Citizen.]

THE LIGHT OF TWENTY YEARS AGO.

BY MILLIE W. CARPENTER.

The glimmering sun sinks far below
The level land of soft blue sea;
The rudy twilight colors glow,
But bring no tinge of warmth to me.
With feeble hands I stir the fire;
I turn the flickering lamp-blaze higher:
And for one brief, brief moment, all
The fruitless dreams of youth recall.
Ah! what if now with wrinkling hands
I comb and braid my once fair hair,
Or twist it in the shining bands
My lover used to think so fair?
No laughing eyes are here to see
No tender fires looks down at me;
No lips are nigh to speak in praise,
Or blame me for my foolish ways.

I lo p my sleeves with studied grace;
And, shrinking in the friendly dusk,
I lave my fair but faded face
In scents of lavender and musk.
I pull my rustling silks about;
I shake my ruffled laces out—
Then down the long, dim, haunted room,
I fling my weight of antique gloom.

Here is the window where he stood,
Of old, and read his songs to me;
And talked in high, enchanting mood,
Rapt in a poet's ecstacy.
The trees frink out in silver light and sweet;
The mignionette blooms1 round our feet,
The roses lie in the sun
To threads of gold were finely spun.

Leaving the reading, silent back—
The fishing-boats at dusk work by;
Above us was crowded town,
Whose deafening roar had space to die
Before it crossed the misty downs.
The dazed fields spread far about—
We heard the lazy herdsmen shout
When, blasting shrilly in the flute,
The young kines wandered down the lane.

Here, on the breezy terrace walk
We strolled the starry evenings through,
And we talked our foolish lovers' talk,
And promised to be true and true.
We caught the perfume of the grapes;
The water splashed upon the stones
Where at the mouth, deep, mossy tank,
The white cows in the moonlight drank.

Oh pity me that this is all
The past has left to me—
The power of memory to recall
The love that used to be!
No footsteps linger at my door,
No children play about my floor,
Nor twine with glee my falling hair,
Nor kiss my face and make it fair.

Ah! should he change to come to-night,
Would he read in mine
The grief that how that was so bright,
The lab that set to shine?
Would he discern a single trace
Of beauty in the powdered face
Whose young enchantment failed to keep
The love for which I wait and weep?

BAPTISED IN FIRE!

Chicago Phenix!

A UNIVERSAL NEWSPAPER.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

A popular weekly paper for the times, embracing the leading features of those journals destroyed by the terrible conflagration, and combining just such a corps of writers as will give the public all the news of the week, in a condensed compilation of the leading journals of the nation, and the world.

A TRUTHFUL RECORD.

The PHENIX will be the most faithful and reliable record of incidents and facts concerning the great fire, ever published.

ACCOUNTS OF THE FIRE.

It will contain only such accounts as are vouched for by reliable witnesses, and will correct the erroneous and fabricated statements of sensational writers.

CHICAGO AND THE NEWS.

It will, for a time, be devoted especially to the past, present and future of Chicago, besides being the most complete weekly newspaper in the world.

FIRESIDE COMPANION AND NEWSPAPER.

Its columns are devoted to News, Commerce, Science, Literature, Art, Drama, Music, Humor, Pastime, Poetry, Fashion, Society news, and enough of Romance to make it a most desirable fireside companion, as well as the most reliable and complete newspaper for the business man in the country to read.

BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATIONS.

It will be illustrated with engravings taken from Photographs of the Chicago Ruins, instead of sketches "By Our Special Artist" who was not "on the spot," and thus give a series of PERFECT VIEWS, not obtainable elsewhere, and the first number will contain the only correct map of the buried city.

HAPPY HOURS.

The beautiful literary journal, "HAPPY HOURS," whose publisher was the first to issue a paper to meet the public demand after the awful fire, has been merged into the literary department of the PHENIX, which will embrace the contributions of more than sixty of the most popular writers of the day.

A SPECIAL FEATURE

The PHENIX will contain, as a especial feature, a more complete record of incidents and results of the late terrible fire, than can be found in any book, paper or other publication in the country. Numerous and inaccurate have been the accounts sent forth, that something reliable and readable is eagerly sought at this time and The PHENIX will fill the bill.

A PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE.

THE PHENIX is the cheapest paper in America, being an eight page, forty column weekly, only two dollars a year; in fact it shall be the paper for the people and the times.

THE FIRST NUMBER.

The first number will be issued on Saturday Nov. 11th, and will be the paper wanted by every body, as a record worth preserving or to send away, and for its accurate illustrations.

ITS BASIS.

It is a consolidation of other journals, and therefore on a solid foundation, continuing their former circulation.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS.

To any person who gets us three new subscribers, we will send The PHENIX for one year free, or one of our beautiful prize, steel plate engravings worth $2.50.

PREMIUMS.

For the purpose of rapidly increasing our subscription list before the close of the present year, we will give to every person who subscribes for the Phenix during the month of November, a beautiful steel plate engraving, worth $2.50, half a dollar more than the price of subscription. No such opportunity was ever before given, and probably never will be again. Avail yourself of it. Engravings will be promptly and safely sent by mail or delivered at this office, as subscribers may wish.

SUBSCRIBE NOW.

Send in your names and subscriptions at once, and sustain this great, newspaper enterprise. Price of subscription only 2.00 per year. Single copies 5 cents. Agents wanted everywhere.

When soldiers face the bayonet they take the chance of life or death; but when private citizens, deceived by the pretences of unscrupulous dealers, apply POISONS TO THEIR HEADS to change the color of their hair, they have no idea of the terrible risks they run. Cristadoro's Excelsior Dye

Let the wise and prudent stick to that. It imparts shades of color that are perfectly lifelike, and is in all respects the very best.

REMEMBER THE SWORD
