Mrs. R. L. Hubbard Dies at Elkin Home

(Elkin Tribune, Dec. 28)

Mrs. Robert L. Hubbard, 43, one of Elkin's most beloved residents, passed away Sunday afternoon at her home on Surry Avenue following several years of declining health. Her death, however, came unexpectedly, and proved a shock to her host of friends here and elsewhere.

Before her marriage on June 7, 1923, to Robert L. Hubbard, was died March 19, 1921, she was Miss Mary Roth, daughter of Mary Ann and Christian Theodore Roth, of Allentown, Pa. She was greatly admired and loved by all who know her, and took an active interest in the work of her church and in civic affairs as long as her health permitted.

Mrs. Hubbard is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Oscar Merritt, of Mount Airy, and Mrs. Raymond Harris, of Elkin, and seven grandchildren, Mary Louise, Sarah, Robert and Oscar Merritt; Nancy, Martha and Elizabeth Ann Harris. A third daughter died in infancy. Mrs. Hubbard was a sister of the Roth, of this city. Her only sister, Mrs. George S. Seaman, of Germantown, Pa., passed on December 24, 1943.

Funeral services were conducted at the Elkin Methodist church, of which she was a member, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in charge of Rev. L. B. Abernethy, of Charlotte, and Rev. Herman F. Duncan, of Asheboro, both former pastors, and Dr. J. L. Stokes, II, the present pastor. Interment was in Hollywood cemetery.

Out-of-town relatives attending the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kennickell and A. S. Kenickell, Jr., of Winston-Salem; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kearns, of Greensboro; Miss Hope Hubbard, of Farmer; Mrs. Lula C. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Julius C. Hubbard, Mr. James C. Hubbard, Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Hubbard, Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Cassel, and daughters, Misses Margaret and Alice Cassel, and Mrs. E. L. Hemphill, of Wilkesboro; Miss Ruth Hubbard, Mrs. W. C. Scroggs and daughter, Miss Breta Poe Scroggs, of Moravian Falls. Many out-of-town friends also attended the funeral.

"THE MASTER RACE" AT ALLEN

"If children, like your daughter, are not worth protecting, then this war has been fought in vain"! These aer the comforting words given to Osa Massen by Stanley Ridges, American officer of occupation, regarding her nameless child, little Ghislaine Porreau, in Edward A. Golden's production, "The Master Race", which comes to the Allen Theatre Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Thomas Troy, one of the teachers at Newton, spent the holidays at home with her mother, Mrs. Victoria Wall.

Miss Ruth Howell, who recently suffered a severe case of tonsilitis, is well again.

Mr. Clyde Swanson, who works at Roanoke, Va., visited his family during the holidays.

Mr. T. P. Howell, after several weeks of confinement, is able to be out again, we are pleased to learn.

The snowy, rainy Christmas season has kept most everyone sitting by the fireside this year, but owing to the absence of loved ones in camp and overseas it isn't a time for merry-making. God speed time for this terrible war to be over!

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Edminston, of Boone, visited Mrs. Edminston's parents during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. D. E. Smoak, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Vestal and son, accompanied by Mrs. H. S. Cox, of Wilkesboro, visited in the home of Mrs. Tom Wall during the Christmas season.
