

Two Added to P.E. Staff

By Rita Mond

If you're wondering who that tall, young, attractive woman you've seen around the Alvin E. Levine Gymnasium is, then read on. Her name is Kelley A. McLaughlin, and she is the new gym supervisor. Prior to coming to work at the "J", she was the program director/aerobics instructor for the American Fitness & Athletic Club in Charlotte.

Kelley received a B.S. with high honors in Health Sciences from Western Illinois University, Macomb, IL in 1984 and an M.S. in Physical Education there in 1986. While attending school, she worked at McDonough District Hospital designing and implementing wellness/fitness programs for community and local schools. She was a graduate assistant/aerobics instructor at the University and was responsible for fitness testing, exercise prescription, equipment maintenance and coordination of special events.

Why not stop in at the gym and welcome Kelley; I'm sure that she would be delighted to meet you!

The other new, friendly face around the "J" is that of Nick Villa, our tennis coordinator. Nick is the current tennis coach at Olympic High School. His background includes: Vic Braddon Tennis College, Nick Bollertterri School of Tennis (children instruction), Dennis VanDerMeer Tennis College.

The JCC and Nick will be offering the following programs: private lessons, semi-private lessons, adult clinics, children's clinics, doubles clinics and tournaments for all ages. For more information on these programs call Nick at 366-5007, ext. 142.
