Bienstock's Photos of Construction of Shalom Park are on View

Over twenty Shalom Park construction photos by Marvin Bienstock are currently on view in the Speizman East and West Galleries at Shalom Park.

Marvin realized the need to document the phases of construction and went about the task to record history in the making. Some of the prints are especially artistic where Marvin zeroed in on construction materials resulting in patterns that are in some cases hardly distinguishable.

Most of the photos are of exterior and interior segments of Shalom Park. Trying to locate the actual areas shown from

Art At Shalom Park "Magical, Mystical, Miracle" Reception Held

By Patty Gorelick

Receptions were held on April 11 and 12 for the opening of Magical, Mystical, Miracle - Recent Directions in Israeli Art at the Speizman Galleries in Shalom Park. Thanks go to Abe Luski who was instrumental in bringing the exhibit to us from the Pucker Safrai Gallery in Boston. In addition, Abe and Rose agreed to loan the exhibit several works from their personal collection.

We also appreciate those members of the Visual Arts Committee who worked on the project as well: Louise Bernstein, Patty Gorelick, Lina Levine, Florence Jaffa, Gigi Kosch and Judy Perlin. Hosts for the two receptions were Cary Bernstein, Loni

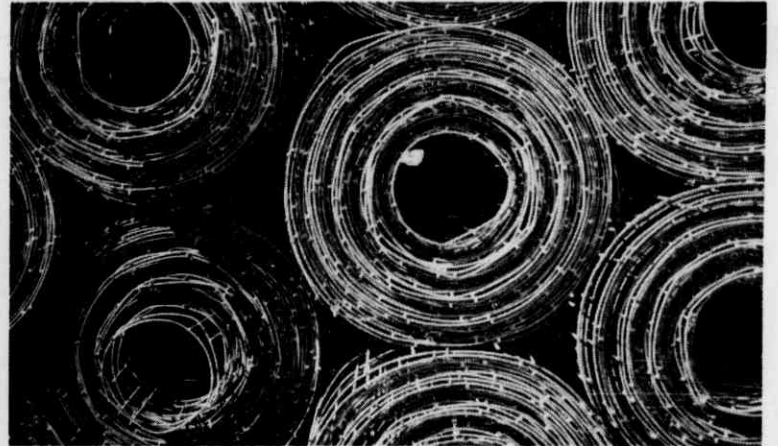

Ethel Gordon (L), VAC chairman, talks about the exhibit.

Kahn, Jean Finkelstein, Alan Gordon, Renee Gorelick, Vicki Neumann, Betty and John Levin, and Nina and Hy Spectorman.

This exhibit would not have been possible without the time and hard work of one person.

That person is Ethel Gordon, chairman of the Visual Arts Committee. We thank Ethel, not only for this exhibit, but for all the fine shows over the last eight months. Ethel has spent many hours of hard-work, deep thought, persistent effort and diplomacy on our behalf.

the skeletal frameworks will tease your brain.

The eleven by fourteen color prints will be on exhibit at least through June. The collection is the property of the Jewish Federation and was prepared for showing by the Visual Arts Committee.
