THE COMMISSION BUSINESS is faithfully represented in Newbern, N. C, by Major D. T. Carraway, late of the well known, high standing and popular firm of Mitchell, Allen & Co., of that city.

We introduce Major C. to-day in a neat business card announcing the character of his business and to one and all we most heartily recommend him.

The Wilmington Star.—The prospectus of the Morning STAR appears in our advertising columns this week. It is a large well conducted Daily, sprightly and spicy—a real live newspaper and no mistake.

We learn that W. F. Henderson has been nominated to the Senate as Assessor of Internal Revenue for for this District in place of H. H Helper, Esq.

An Elegant Broom.—We were, on Saturday last, presented with an elegant broom by Mr. John B. Watson, of this county. Mr. Watson is nearly blind, and learned his trade at the N. C. Asylum for the Deaf Dumb and Blind at Raleigh. He is now engaged in the manufacture of brooms in this county, on Lincolnton road, about five miles from Salisbury. We can assure all in need of brooms that we have never seen an article superior to that presented to us by Mr. Watson. He informs us that he cannot get a supply of broom corn in the neighborhood. Will not some of our farms take to raising it?

We make our acknowledgements to Messrs Cain & Martin, of Mocksville, Davie County, N. C., for the compliment of excellent piece of leather—a calf skin beautifully tanned and elegantly finished. Messrs Cain & Martin are extensively engaged in the taning business and, judging by the sample before us, are are prepared to furnish as good an article of leather as is made in the Southern country.

We are under obligations to Robert Gray, Jr., of Winston, N. C., for an invitation to attend the anniversary celebration of the Jefferson Society of the University of Virginia on the 13th inst. Mr. Charles F. McKesson, of Morganton, N. C., is the orator for the Society on the occasion.

We are indebted to Mr. J. B. Davis, of Knoxville, Tenn, for the Daily Press and Herald of that city, of April the 3d, giving an account of the brillant reception of Ex President Johnson at that place, while journeying to his home at Greenville. The presentation speech was was made by Hon. T. A. R. Nelson, after which Mr. Johnson spoke at considerable lenghth and with his accustomed abilty.

A Creditable Work.—The well-earned reputation of the Carolina Farmer is fully sustained in the appearance and contents of the April number just received. We cannot too zealously urge on our farmers the importance of sustaining their home agricultural journals; and one so handsomely printed and ably conducted as the Carolina Farmer is especially deserving of support. Every farmer and planter in the South will do himself a service by sending Two Dollars for a year's subscription to this justly popular magazine. We are glad to learn from the proprietor that the success of the Farmer is beyond his most sanguine expectations. Address Wm. H. Bernard, Wilmington, N. C. Specimen copies sent free.

We learn from the Sentinel that Calvin J. Rogers has been appointed Post Master at Raleigh, N. C., in place of Mr. Andrew Miller, the present incumbent. Mr. M. was a faithful and efficient officer—none more so anywhere. The reputation of Mr. Rogers, according to the Sentinel, is not above suspicion.

"CHURCH OF THE STRANGERS," NEW YORK.

Visitors to the city of New York are informed that they will find Divine Service every Sunday, in the Large Chapel of the University, Washington Square, at 10½ A. M. and at 7½ P. M. The evening service in summer is at o'clock. Waverley Place, immediately north of the New York Hotel, out of Broadway, runs west to Washington Suare, on the east side of which is the University. The entrance to the church is the main door of University. University Place cars run from the door of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, to the door of the Church. From the St. Nicholas and Metropolitan, take the cars corner of Broadway and Broome, leave at Waverley place, and go west one block. At the Astor House take University Place cars, leave at Waverly Place, and go west one block. Strangers will find cordial welcome, and polite attention.

The Pastor is Rev. Dr. DEEMS, who devotes himself to the spiritual interests of strangers. If any be sick, let them address him a note by mail, as "Pastor of the Church of the Strangers, N. Y.," and and it will reach him. The ladies who compose the "Society of the Sisters of the Stranger," procure medical, legal, and spiritual help for strangers in perplexity, distress, or sickness. Address, "Sisters of the Stranger," care Rev. Dr. DEEMS, New York.

If you are coming to New York soon, cut this out and paste it in your memorandum book.

THE PENITENTIARY.—For some days past our citizens had been led to indulge the hope that the State Penitentiary would be located at Salisbury. In this they have been disappointed—Raleigh has been selected as the site. At this we are not disposed to complain. If Raleigh is to remain the permanent seat of government of the State, then we think there is an eminent fitness of things in the location of the Penitentiary there—especially on the score of convenience.

Removal.—The Drug Store of Dr. G. B. Poulson has been removed from Wyatt's old stand to the Gothic building of Dr. Hall—the room formerly occupied by Dr. Enniss.

Col. Chas. E. Shober has been appointed assignee of the Greensboro Mutual Bank which has gone into bankruptcy.

The Secretary of War has appointed Michael J. Hewson superintendent of the national cemetery at Salisbury, N. C., and ordered him to assume charge immediately.

Fifty Swiss immigrants—consisting of men, women and children—arrived at Newbern on the 1st instant, by the Steamer Terry. The Journal of Commerce says that they are a healthy, industrious looking body of people. They have gone to Goldsboro. In a few days one hundred and sixty more will arrive, also bound for Goldsboro their services having been secured by Mr. Atkinson.

Elected.—It will be seen that Alfred Howe, a very respectable and intelligent colored man of this city, has been elected one of the Commissioners of the Penitentiary. If the whites elected to office by Radicals were always half as intelligent and honest, the Treasury of North Carolina would not now be in such a deplorable condition.—Wil. Journal.

Still Crazy.—Col. Louis Zimmer, the indefatigable agent ef the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, says the Creensboro' Patriot, shipped about a hundred emigrants to the far west this week. Most of the train was made up from Davidson, Forsythe and upper Guilford. If the Colonel don't begin to bring us settlers from Europe, we will think he ought to. It is strange that our citizens should be leaving while strangers are constantly coming in.

Sad Affair.—At Fort Macon, North Carolina, on Monday last, Lieut. Alexander and a Sergeant belonging to a company now doing duty at the garrison met an untimely death at the hands of a sentinel on duty at the time. Strict orders had been given to the sentry to challenge everybody approaching towards him, and it seems that one of the garrison chimneys had taken fire, and the Lieutenant, no doubt under excitement, was running towards the beat of the centry who it is said, after challenging, fired. A Sergeant who, upon seeing the officer fall, ran to the spot, only to meet the same fate, for the sentinel had reloaded his gun, and he, too, was brought to the ground. Both men were killed almost instantly.

Norfolk Day Book.

Sale of Railroad Stocks.—We understand that the Board of Education of this State, at a meeting held yesterday in the Executive office, opened the bids for the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad stock and the Wilmington and Manchester railroad stock, and awarded them to W. T. Waters, Esq., of Baltimore, at $37 per share for the former, and $5 per share for the latter, making the sum for all $158,000. This is considered a good sale. It is $2 more in the share than the minimum price fixed upon it by the Legisture in the act authorizing the Board to sell it.—Standard.

Railroad Men in a Stew.—We are informed that there is great excitement among the Railroad men. The prospect is good for a final defeat to all their schemes. It is said, that in all probability the appropriations for the various Roads will fail, because of the unconstitutional features contained in the several bills. This remark applies to all.

With the State credit prostrate and the people ruined, a relief from a taxation of $30,00,000, will be hailed with high satisfaction throughout North Carolina. We are the poorest people in the world, and if we are to be taxed to pay the interest on a debt of over $50,000,000, but two results await us: either thorough an irretrievable ruin, or repudiation.—If after all the wild gambling with other people's money and the Quixotic schemes for recuperation, there should come failure to the legislation of the hands, the people may rejoice indeed, for a weight of debt wholly unbearable and ruinous will have been lifted from the old Mother, now lying prostrate under the feet of the oppressor, and whose very life's blood is being sucked out by the insatiate leeches that have floated down from the Northern waters, and by the vampires that have come out from our own creeks and ponds. So mote it be.

Raleigh Sentinel.

Sad End of the University of South Carolina.—Radicalism, says the Edgefield Advertiser, has completely killed the University of South Carolina. The University bill, which has lately become a law, provides that there shall be no distinction in this institution on account of color. And among the trustees lately elected are two negroes, Cardona and Boseman. Of course this puts a finishing stroke to the whole concern; for certainly the young men of South Carolina will not sit in classes with negroes. This a wise and politic legislation with a vengeance!

COMING SOUTH.—The Manchester Union, New Hampshire, deprecates the way in which that country is threatened to be depopulated, and says "people are going to the South in droves."

This is good news. Come on. A good climate, rich mines, swelling acres, a peaceful people will welcome you to the "Old North State." Be not deterred by what you may have read and heard, but come and see for yourselves. We want industrious citizens to take up their abode with us—persons who know how to use the hoe and the axe, and the plough, and the plane, and the hammer—persons who have some capital to invest in our lands and mines, and water power.—Ral. Sentinel.

It is said that the Elk Mountain Cheese Factory in Buncombe county, has proved to be so profitable that the people of that section have determined to establis two or three more Factories.

Death of a Lienal Descendant of Lord Fairfax.—Charles Snowden Fairfax, a descendant of the last Lord Fairfax, and himself entitled to the title as the tenth Lord, died at Barnum's City Hotel, in this city, yesterday morning, aged forty years. The deceased was born at Vaucluse, Fairfax county, Va, on the 8th of March, 1829, but for some years has resided in California, having served as speaker of House of Representatives of that State in 1854, and subseqently for five years was clerk of the Supreme Court of the same State. He was chairman of the California delegation to the Democratic National Convention which assembled in New Yord last July. He stood high in the Masonic fraternity, the the members of which in this city have already arranged to send a large delegation with the body to the place of interment, which is Rock Church Cemetery, on the road beyond the Soldiers' Home, and, and about four miles from Washington.—Baltimore Sun 8th.

THE BOURBONS AND THE SPANISH THRONE.

It appears from late cable despatches that the Duke of Montpensier is, after all, to be King of Spain. Serrano from the commencement of the revolution has been his sworn and steadfast friend. Prim has been more cautious in allowing his mind to be known on the subject; but we have no good reason to doubt that Prim and Serrano have been thoroughly agreed.—Prim and Serrano are masters of the situation. If Montpensier be their man nothing but the opposition of Louis Napoleon will prevent the Duke's success. It is a curious turn of fortune which, after the lapse of twenty-two years, gives so much importance to the cunning policy of M. Guizot and the celebrated Spanish marriages, which the world had well nigh forgotten. It was the object of M. Guizot and his royal master, Louis Philippe, to undo the provisions of the treaty of Utrecht, which stipulated that the French and Spanish thrones should never be united. The marriage of Montpensier to the Infanta opened up the way for such a union. The events which speedily followed—the downfall of Louis Philippe, the rise of the Bonapartes and the many misfortunes of the Bourbons—made the success of Guizot and his master apparently of little account. If Montpensier becomes King of Spain one result of the Guizot policy has been attained. An Orleans Bourbon on the Spanish throne will have its effect in time in restoring the Bourbons to the throne of France. Who will say that a Bourbon may not yet reign over both France and Spain? It is difficult to see how Napoleon can permit such an arrangement in Spain. Fate is stronger than the strongest will and he may have no choice.—Lynch. News.
