From our Correspondent.

RALEIGH, Jan. 14

Well, Mr. Watchman, [illegible] what have I to write about. [illegible] the past week in the House of Commons [illegible] in the words that the whole [illegible] occupied with the subject [illegible] Were I to attempt to sketch [illegible] be taken up when all your reading [illegible]

[illegible] Fulton, Gaither, Hall of Rowan, Harrison, [illegible] Hughes, Hoke, Hyman, Johnson of Bertie, Johnston, Kerr, Kirby, Lea, Leak, Lewis, Long, Lyon, McAllister, Martin, Moore of Cleaveland, Moore of Macon, Moore of N. H., Mordecai, Morgan, Newby, Norwood, [illegible] Speed, Stephens, Taylor, Thompson, Tomlinson, Turner, Vaughan, Wadkins, Watson, Wilson, Wright and Wooten—57.

[illegible] Bynum, Barber, Blount, Bridgers, Bryan of N. H., Bullock, Burgin, Burke, Dickens, Dockery, Dortch, Drake, Faribault, Person, Pearson, Poe, Price, Gulley, Green of Chatham, Green of Franklin, Hall of Warren, Hargrove, Hill of Halifax, Hinsdale, Jones of Onslow, Jones of Orange, Kirby, Leak, Lewis, Long, Lyon, McAllister, Martin, Moore of Cleaveland, Moore of Macon, Moore of N. H., Mordecai, Morgan, Newby, Norwood, [illegible] Speed, Stephens, Taylor, Thompson, Tomlinson, Turner, Vaughan, Wadkins, Watson, Wilson, Wright and Wooten—68.

[illegible] Fleming and Hester had [illegible]

I hope you will be reminded on Monday, and [illegible] to charter a Road to the Last Place Good Public, which will probably pass the House.

On Tuesday night a bill to charter a company [illegible] from the Good Public to Charlotte in the North Carolina Railroad, passed [illegible] It is merely a school charter, [illegible] night a bill to amend the charter of the Wilmington and Manchester Rail Road, passed [illegible] This is about all the business [illegible] which has been acted on.

To give you an idea of the feeling of the House [illegible] a bill was read the second time and the question put, some one called out, "I will again, another called out, [illegible] Clerk replied, yes, another [illegible] to hear it read, that was all the second to hear; and the words kill it went around, and the bill was indefinitely postponed by a large majority.

The only bills which have been introduced since my last date relative to your section were:

Mr. Hughes of Rockfish, a bill to prevent the felling of timber in Big Rocky Creek.

Mr. Hyman, a bill to extend the corporate limits of the town of Fayetteville.

Mr. Hoke, a resolution in favor of Wm. A. Walker.

Mr. Speer, a bill to amend the Constitution as to elective franchise.

The State Improvement and Relief Bank has been entertained by Mr. Dula.

Mr. W. D. Gaither, introduced a bill concerning the Western R. R. Railroad. It provides that it shall be lawful for not more of Morganton than [illegible] to be subscribed—the Stockholders to pay down that amount—that no call shall be made, [illegible] until the one preceding it shall be [illegible]. It will probably be the bill that will pass.

The Revenue Bill comes up in the House on Monday, [illegible] you have a copy.

In the Senate, the subjects under consideration for the week have been the Cape Fear Road; Mr. Hughes's Bill to amend the Constitution, and the Western Extension. The fate of the first you have learned. Mr. Clarke received a hard rap for his course while the Hospital Connection was under discussion in the House, and much time of the Senate since has been occupied with matters growing out of the election of Magistrates. Mr. Turner's course has attracted some attention to this matter. In his speech explanatory of his course, he stated that there were now in the State over 1000 Magistrates, and the Legislature was about to add 120 more to that already enormous number. It is well that some attention is directed to this matter, for the mode of appointment is getting to be a great evil. It is the fruitful source of members [illegible] more for political influence than for ability or fitness. Too often men of by no means good character are selected. Mr. Hughes's bill was postponed, and the Western Extension will come up again on Monday. The bill will probably not pass as it is, as I have stated. Mr. T. K. Caldwell's will be the one.

I learn from a friend that the Council of State, which met in this city to-day, appointed James Felton of Wilmington, and H. K. Long of Halifax, the Board of Internal Improvements; and J. R. Gordon of Wilkes, Archibald Henderson of Salisbury, and W. P. Ward of Duplin, Literary Board.

J. W. Alspaugh was to-day elected Assistant Clerk of the Senate in place of R. Shotwell, resigned.

A LOOKER ON.

For the Watchman.

Examination at Pine Grove.

MR. J. J. BOWIE:

I hope you can find room in your most excellent paper for something besides politics. I am sick and tired of the everlasting cry Politics, Politics, Free Suffrage, Locofocoism, Disunionism, British outrages on the Gulf, War with England, and a host of other things too tedious to mention. Now, Mr. Editor, variety is the spice of life, therefore, I hope you will insert this article in your paper, not for its intrinsic worth or value, but because of the theme.

Early on the morning of the 12th Jan., 1859, there might have been seen a merry group of little boys and girls, standing around the old Free School house in District No. 8, prior to the commencement of the exercises. At last Mr. J. W. Stokes, the teacher arrived. By the by Mr. S. has been teaching at Pine Grove since the 29th Aug., 1858. He has taught on an average of ten months in the year. Although he was very young when he commenced, yet by close attention, he gained the confidence, not only of his employers, but of all who have attended his school, and was loved by all. He has gained a North Carolina Student's degree, and gives us perfect satisfaction. I know that it will breathe the spirit and expounds the principles which he imbibed into its first members.

Mr. White and his excellent lady are staying for the present with Mr. John C. Palmer, in the Western Ward, where they will be pleased to see their friends.

Raleigh Standard.

The weather was intensely cold on the 11th instant, throughout the North. In various parts of Maine, Vermont, Massachusetts, and New York, the thermometer ranged from 5 deg. to 38 deg. below zero.

The Massachusetts Legislature on the 11th instant, re-elected Hon. Henry Wilson United States Senator for six years from the 4th of March next.

ANCIENT SHIP BUILDING.

The ancients seem to have outdone all succeeding attempts at ship building, the Leviathan of 1858 alone excepted. Some of the galleys from descriptions left us, were superb. Ptolemy Philopator had one built which was four hundred and twenty feet long, and twenty-eight broad, and required a complement of 4000 rowers, four thousand sailors, and three hundred soldiers; but that of Hiero, constructed by the renowned Archimedes, consumed wood enough to build sixty large galleys, and was fitted up in a style that throws the most splendid of our vessels into a wide distance. There was not only a banqueting room, bath, library, and a spacious gymnasium, finished and furnished with the most admirable skill and costly material, with stables, fish ponds, mills, and gardens, but there was a Temple of Venus, fitted up in a gorgeous style, the floor being inlaid with precious stones, and the walls of cypress wood, ornamented with choice paintings and statues. The warlike appurtenances of this marine monster were on a corresponding scale of formidable grandeur. The vessel was surrounded by iron bulwarks, like a rampart, massy, and strengthened with eight towers; and there were machines sufficiently powerful to project a stone three hundred pounds weight, or a dart seventeen and a half feet long a distance of half a mile.

REMARKS.

FLOUR receipts have been moderate, with some sales for Eastern orders, and fair demand for home consumption, the stock is not very heavy.

CORN, the market has been but moderately supplied and with a good demand, sales have been at full prices.

Cotton the supply on the market is not large and the late news will have a tendency to check value.

DRIED FRUIT comes in sparingly. Apples are required for, and are wanted.

BACON, the market is fairly supplied, with moderate sales.

[illegible] Oxygenated Bitters.

☞ Read the following letter from Calvin Pepper, Esq., of Concord, N. H., a man honored as esteemed by all who know him:—

GENTLEMEN,—With no disposition to make any more compliments, I take the opportunity to state to the afflicted the benefit I have derived from the use of Dr Green's Oxygenated Bitters, and to recommend them to others. For two years I have been troubled with indigestion and its attendant evils, such as dizziness, costiveness, severe attacks of diarrhoea, accompanied with water brash at the stomach, which reduced me in flesh, strength, and spirits, so low that I was scarcely entitled for business. I applied to several physicians from whom I obtained only temporary relief. I continued, with the advice of friends, but without the least faith in their efficacy, to try the Oxygenated Bitters, from the use of which I found immediate relief, having no return of water brash after taking the first portion. My weight has increased some thirty-five pounds, and my health is perfect. I can truly say that I consider the Oxygenated Bitters the best tonic extant. I have recommended them to several, who have invariably found great benefit from their use. Yours respectfully,

CALEB PARKER.
