THE WEATHER

WASHINGTON DAILY NEWS

First Edition

WASHINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY AFTERNOON, OCTOBER 6, 1910. NO. 54

DEPOSIT OF BALLOTS IN EUROPEAN TOUR RACE

[illegible] OF CONTEST GUARANTEE [illegible] FAVORITES BEING [illegible] BY THE NEWS — A [illegible] PLAN TO ALL—EVERY [illegible] AND POSITIONS [illegible] SHIFTING.

[illegible] AS TO FAIRNESS.

[illegible] question as to [illegible] Daily News has [illegible] make. The con[illegible] News will [illegible] test. The final [illegible] will be found [illegible] This com[illegible] of five prom[illegible] men, [illegible] will be deliv[illegible] The com[illegible] are open to [illegible] perfect and so fully [illegible] Daily News [illegible] contest investigation.

It should be borne in mind that candidates living in a district do not contest against candidates living in another district for the tour.

There are three districts and the candidate in each district having the largest number of votes in the district in which she lives will be declared the winner of the tour for that district, and the special ballot cast for the candidates will be the fourth member of the party.

Watch the vote standing.

WILL SEEK TO ENJOIN

Durham, N. C., Oct. 5.—Alderman John W. Hill resigned his office today after losing a fight in the city council against a street improvement program with a dilapidated treasury. The city council last night voted to go ahead with extensive work, despite the condition of the treasury and upon resigning from the council Alderman Hill announced that he would seek an injunction order restraining the city from carrying out the order.

Alderman Hill declared that the city's floating indebtedness is $200,000 and that it has no right to borrow more money without the submission to the people of a bond issue. Alderman Hill is a wealthy man.

NOTED COMEDIANS IN "SINS OF THE FATHERS"

Winners of fun and frolic will find plenty of rollicking entertainment in "The Sins of the Father," even though the author of "Thomas Jim" on a new play is serious. It is said that the famous playwright has produced a humble pair of Scotch darkies in his Andy and Mr. Cassidy in the new work. To use a mechanical phrase, these characters are "foolproof" almost any actor could make an audience laugh at and with them. But Manager George H. Brennan, who staged all of Mr. Cohan's productions, has seen to it that the rare best actors shall do their exclusive labor to the furtherance of the play.

Arthur E. Pickens selected as Andy, and Mr. Charles G. [illegible] cast as Minerva are the [illegible] black face comedians in the country.

They will appear this season [illegible] closely with "The Sins of the Fathers" [illegible] the Lyceum Theatre, Washington, on Wednesday, Oct. 12.

MUSICAL TREAT LAST NIGHT

[illegible] latest musical treat schools [illegible] ington music lovers [illegible] was the appearance of the Grand Opera and Concert [illegible] at the school auditorium [illegible]

[illegible] and appreciative audience [illegible] and every number on [illegible] was heartily applauded. [illegible] had to render encore to [illegible] selection and Mr. Hin[illegible] addition to the regular pro[illegible] evening kindly sang two [illegible] by request. The entire [illegible] was par excellence and they [illegible] way to captivate at all [illegible]

[illegible] duets and quartettes [illegible] the audience by storm. [illegible] as Annie Laurie, The [illegible] Down, and Danny [illegible] duet between the so[illegible] contralto entitled Holy [illegible] among the features it [illegible] any.

[illegible] has never had the [illegible] hearing a more delightful [illegible] and they hope the [illegible] far distant when this com[illegible] prevailed on to make [illegible] engagement.

[illegible] but the highest praise is [illegible] the streets today for the Grand Opera and Concert [illegible] lot of which is justly [illegible]

[illegible] confident no better [illegible] yet to come in the Ly[illegible] this season.

Many Visitors.

[illegible] visitors are here today [illegible] of the county takin[illegible] All the trains [illegible] a good number of [illegible] all sections. [illegible] craft were loaded [illegible] has the appearance [illegible]

PAPER HORSE FOOLS HIM

The firm of James B. Harris Plumbing and Supply Company have just received a handsome iron grey display horse for their show window on which is to be advertised harness and saddlery.

The horse is made of paper mache and stands sixteen hands high. It is a beautiful specimen and must be seen to be appreciated.

A laughable incident in connection with the receipt of the horse happened at the Atlantic Coast Line depot.

Several days before the horse's arrival Mr. William Rumley, one of the employes of the firm, was told the secret of the horse's coming by Mr. C. F. Blount, one of the proprietors.

Mr. Rumley was at once interested and daily asked about the [illegible] and was [illegible] anxious to test his mettle for the first one to fall for the [illegible] trotting [illegible]. Yesterday the animal arrived and Mr. Rumley was notified.

[illegible] to the freight depot to [illegible] the animal. On arriving [illegible] was told [illegible]

THE PORTUGUESE MONARCHY HAS FALLEN

Paris, Oct. 5.—The Portuguese monarchy has fallen. Lisbon, the capital, fell into the hands of the revolutionists shot at 5 p. m. yesterday.

King Manuel, according to the latest reports, fled from the palace while it was surrounded by a raging mob and shots from rebel Portuguese war craft in the harbor were raining upon it, and took refuge on the German gunboat Sao Paulo.

The revolution [illegible] is sweeping the nation like wildfire and the conflagration threatens [illegible] to sweep over the [illegible] Portuguese [illegible]

The Portuguese [illegible] are reported to have [illegible] the green and blue standard of the republicans [illegible]

[illegible] impossible to estimate the [illegible] dead [illegible] from the vague records [illegible] 1,000 and may [illegible] high.

[illegible] communication [illegible] was still cut off to-[illegible]

[illegible] report received from [illegible] that warships of the [illegible] had lowered down [illegible] and raised the flag [illegible] it is rumored a [illegible] of the revolting city.

[illegible] the green and blue flag [illegible] over the Braganzas and the nation is upon the verge of transformation into a republic.

The information that the short and bitter revolution in Portugal has resulted in victory for the insurrectionists and that the Portuguese army and navy had deserted the royal standard and joined the uprising was brought to this city today by automobiles from the frontier.

Many are reported dead, not alone in Lisbon, but in other cities where outbreaks of violence occurred almost necessarily with that in the capital city.

Fighting between detachments of loyal troops and the revolutionists is still going on.

[illegible] last stand.

The green and blue flag of the republicans floats over the Braganzas and the nation is upon the verge of transformation into a republic.

The information that the short and bitter revolution in Portugal has resulted in victory for the insurrectionists and that the Portuguese army and navy had deserted the royal standard and joined the uprising was brought to this city today by automobiles from the frontier.

Many are reported dead, not alone in Lisbon, but in other cities where outbreaks of violence occurred almost necessarily with that in the capital city.

Fighting between detachments of loyal troops and the revolutionists is still going on.

[illegible] to estimate the [illegible] dead [illegible] from the vague records [illegible] 1,000 and may [illegible] high.

[illegible] communication [illegible] was still cut off to-[illegible]

[illegible] report received from [illegible] that warships of the [illegible] had lowered down [illegible] and raised the flag [illegible] it is rumored a [illegible] of the revolting city.

[illegible] the green and blue flag [illegible]