Dorothy Gutmann Hadassah Meets In the Evening

After joining with the daytime chapter for a lovely paid-up membership luncheon in September, we met again in the evening for our own very interesting meeting. A movie was shown which featured advanced medical treatments and new eye surgery now available at the Hadassah Medical Center in Israel. We also were privileged to hear a lecture by a member of the Eastern Seaboard Regional Board of Hadassah. Learning just how far our dollars go in support of these medical programs was most enlightening and certainly encouraging. Join us for our next meeting on November 18 at 8 p.m. at Shalom Park. It is going to be a fun night featuring a skit with our members.

Chai Chaverim BBG Is on the Move

By Amy Seitlin

Are you a Jewish girl in grade 9-12 and interested in having the time of your life? The Charlotte Chapter of B'nai B'rith Girls, Chai Chaverim BBG, is looking for you.

Chai Chaverim BBG participates in community activities, the most recent being the Great Pumpkin Festival held in Uptown Charlotte this past Halloween. Some of the programs and activities, within the chapter, planned for the year are: a Bowl-a-thon, a sleepover, a Mother-Daughter Tea, and in February, our annual Sweetheart-Beau dance. B'nai B'rith Girls is one-half of the B'nai B'rith Organization (BBYO); the boys' group, Aleph Zadik Aleph (AZA) comprises the other half. We do much of our programming with them; the local group is Barak-Mickey Aberman AZA.

Our chapter also participates in many youth conventions throughout the N.C. Council and the NC/VA Region. These conventions give the girls the opportunity to meet other Jewish youth outside of Charlotte. These friendships are an important part of our lives.

Anyone interested in joining BBG or needing further information may call our advisor, Wendy Rosen, 364-9765, or the president, Amy Seitlin, 553-0508.
