

Jewish Day School Students Celebrated the 200th Birthday of the U.S. Constitution

Children Will Do Special Mitzvah

Students of all ages participating in a Social Studies program about the Constitution.

When can we blow out the candles on the cake?

The children at the Charlotte Jewish Day School will be saving cans to help save burned children. In conjunction with the firefighters of Charlotte, our students will be collecting aluminum soft drink cans for recycling by Alcoa. Whatever money is raised by this effort will be donated to benefit the burned children in the North Carolina Jaycee Burn Unit at Chapel Hill. It is a nice mitzvah to be able to help other boys and girls who are less fortunate at times like this, and need our viable support. Plus it teaches the students to conserve critical landfill space, conserve our natural resources and at the same time make the effort to help make Charlotte a more attractive city with a clean environment. Everybody wins; nobody loses!

Did it ever occur to you that the Jewish version is just a little bit different from all the rest?

It's not just a toast— it's a one-word summary of everything we believe in.

Support the 1988 Campaign.

Vive la difference.

L'chaim.

And thanks.
