Independence day was observed in a truly pleasant manner at Eagles Nest and in the evening a most attractive program was carried out. At 8.30 p. m. a monster bon fire was lighted which illuminated the sky for miles around. The display of fireworks under the direction of Mr. Norman Muske of Wilmington was immense. Immediately following the guests repaired to the parlors where, under the management of Mr. Chon Satterthwait who introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Dwight H. Terry of Bridgeport, Conn. the following excellent entertainment was furnished:

Piano selections, Miss Eleanor Ernest, pantomime exhibition, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nugent, "The Declaration of Independence," Mr. C. H. Donaldson, vocal duet, The Misses Satterthwait.
