SOCIAL & PERSONAL

An interesting event yesterday afternoon socially and in connection with the visit of the Imperial Potentate of the Knights of Khorassan, was the tea the officers of the order gave in honor of the Kibla Temple, No. 132, Atlanta, at their home on Lexington street. After the drill in Bill note in which the Atlanta visitors won the second prize of $100, this proceeded to Mr. and Mrs. Erskine's residence, and surrounded by their heads with crowns the imposing audience of the order. The guests, which included the officers and members of the Drum Corps and drill team, An incident of much interest during the afternoon was the conferring of honorary membership of Kibla Temple on Mr. and Mrs. Erskine. Mr. and Mrs. Erskine were also presented a beautiful cut glass pitcher, and a handsome waste fo was also presented to Mr. Erskine. Mr. Erskine is an Atlanta man and has known intimately the members of Kibla Temple during his residence in that city. The house was decorated with cut asters, and punch and refreshments were served. Those present were Mrs. David J. Bailey, Past Grand Chancellor, K. of P., of Georgia, Mr. W. T. Wynn, officer of the Imperial Palace, D. O. K. K., Mr. Richard Eubank, Mr. W. R. Heston formerly of Asheville, Mr. George T. Eubank, Mr. J. H. Sewell, Mr. Lawrence, Mr. S. S. Toxer, Mr. J. N. Parker, Mr. Eugene Scott, Mr. H. T. Butler, Mr. J. M. Wilson, Mr. J. Busbee, Mr. R. L. Christenberg, Mr. H. M. Godfrey, Mr. J. E. Wiggins, Mr. Floyd Cox, Mr. C. E. Wilson, Mr. P. D. Chafflin, Mr. C. L. Robbins, Mr. W. A. Rector, Mr. W. L. Hardy, Mr. J. F. Hollingsworth, Mr. R. W. Andrews and Mr. Oscar Dilldo. The Kibla Temple are rejoicing that they carried off first prize in the parade Tuesday evening, of 150 dollars.

Miss Maude Waddell was hostess at an informal tea Tuesday afternoon at her home in Biltmore, quite a number of the younger set being present. Tea was served on the veranda by the hostess, whose guests were Miss Lucy Penniman, Miss Helen Chapman, Miss Lucille Hastings, Miss Margaret Penniman, Miss Mary Carr, Miss Theresa Chapman, Miss Maud Hamilton, Miss Lillian Adams, Miss Janie Carr, Miss Kimberly, Miss Clara Holmes, Miss Helen Ames, Mrs. Guerrard, Mr. Harold Swope, Mr. Meeker and Mrs. E. C. Quincey.

Miss Beatrice Stowe has resumed her dancing class, which will be conducted during the summer at the Zelechka club. Each Thursday evening a reception-dance will be given, to which the friends of the class are invited to attend. This evening many members of the Kibla Temple of Atlanta will be present and the initial semi-public dance will be of special interest.

At noon yesterday the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Close and Mr. Newton Mitchell Anderson occurred at the residence of Mrs. James Walter Shaw, a sister of the bride. The decorations were effective and were of hot house flowers and wild flowers also, relieved by feathery trailing asparagus fern. A wedding bell made of field daisies and Queens lace hung in the drawing room, under which the ceremony was performed. Rev. F. Campbell officiated. Miss Close' gown was of white crepe de chine and she carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas. Miss Mabel Robinson, her only attendant, wore a gown of pink silk and carried pink carnations. The intimate friends and relatives were the only guests present. Miss Lelia Shaw and Miss Mildred Chalmers of New York and Mr. Willard Northup of Winston were among the guests. After the wedding breakfast, which followed the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left for a brief honeymoon and will be at home at the Asheville School after August 1.

The visitors will be entertained with a vaudeville show and cake walk this evening in the ball room of the Battery Park hotel, commencing at 10 o'clock, which will be the largest and most pretentious affair of the kind ever attempted in the city at one time. The colored minstrels have been rehearsing for two weeks and all of the best talent of note have been secured for the occasion. The [illegible] will be on the street. The [illegible] honors, [illegible] the street [illegible] the street [illegible] the street