Mrs. [illegible] and Miss Holt, who dress [illegible] and pink roses [illegible] the drawing room and reception hall were decorated with marguerites and golden glow. Mrs. Thomas Rollins, Mrs. J. M. Parker, and Miss Essie Rollins presided in the dining room, where salad and ices were served by Miss Dorothy Parker, Miss Annie Feilhaus and Miss Bertha Tilson. As the guests entered the reception hall they were met by Mrs. R. J. Tighe and Mrs. D. F. Sayer, their cards being received by little Miss Katherine Tighe and Master Joseph Sayer. On the shaded veranda punch was served by Mrs. W. L. Colmes and Mrs. John W. Langley.

Mrs. Duffield Hilliard entertained with a luncheon yesterday at the Battery Park hotel, in honor of Mrs. Anthony O'Reilly, of New Orleans. The luncheon was given in the main dining hall, a large round table being used, with a Cluny lace cover. A beautiful bunch of cosmos, pink and magenta shades, fringy dahlias and asters shading from deep magenta to cerise, formed a very effective center piece. Long sprays of maiden hair fern and delicate vines radiated their short graceful lengths from the bouquet, occasionally caught with smaller dahlias. The place cards was attached to sprays of cosmos. Mrs. Hilliard's guests were, Mrs. O'Reilly, Mrs. Charles L. Minor, Mrs. Theodore F. Davidson, Mrs. Edgar Bright, of New Orleans, Mrs. Frederick B. Pope, of Augusta, Mrs. A. Julian Lyman, Mrs. Alfred S. Barnard, and Mrs. Thomas Settle.

There will be no meeting of the Pen and Plate club this month, the next dinner and meeting taking place at the Battery Park hotel during September.

The party of excursionists including 156 people from Asheville and Johnson City which left the first of the week for Niagara Falls and other points, has arrived at the latter place and spent yesterday at Toronto, crossing over the Canadian border. Tuesday was spent in Cincinnati, Wednesday and Thursday at the Falls. The trip has been without mishap and very interesting. The second party leaves August 17th and will include not only many Asheville people but a number from New Orleans, and the party will be much larger. The steamer "Ohio," has been placed at the disposal of the party and will be used exclusively by them from Cleveland to Buffalo and return. Among those booked from Asheville are Congressman Crawford and his entire family, and a number of other prominent people.

Mrs. Julian Woodcock entertained with a bridge party Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. John Woodcock, of Muskogee, Okla., at her residence on Haywood street. White hydrangeas and golden glow were used to decorate the house, forming an effective combination. The complimented prize, a brass coffee urn, was presented to Mrs. Woodcock. Mrs. Gordon Webb won the first prize, a brass tea tray, by chance, and the consolation went to Mrs. P. L. Hood, and was a box candy. There were about twenty-five guests.

Miss Ella Henderson and Mr. [illegible] were married Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's father, Mr. [illegible] Asheville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. [illegible] Morrison and Miss Eleanor Morrison, [illegible] Mr. Harrington and Miss Jordan won five points, Dr. Green and Miss Brown three points and Mr. Burchfield and Miss Morrison one point. The tournament will be continued next Saturday afternoon.

The mid summer German at the Manor Wednesday will be one of the large dances of the season of which it is an important event. There will be two leaders who will, it is expected, introduce several new figures. The German under the most favorable conditions is one of the prettiest forms of dancing, offering unlimited scope for originality. Many of the well known figures will, of course, form the nucleus of the figures, but the leaders will dance several original figures. A supper will be served and the dance will be a feature of the season. Dancing begins at 9 o'clock.

The annual picnic of Central Methodist church promises to be the most successful in several years and elaborate preparations are being made to that end. The party will leave Tuesday morning at 9.30 o'clock from Pack square. The following is a list of committees appointed:

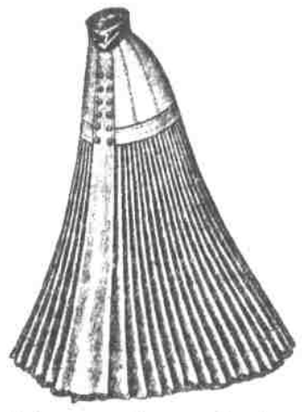
Bon Marche

Fall Suits and Skirts on Display at the Bon Marche



Almost every day we receive shipments of new goods in our ready-to wear Department. Our Mr. Wineberger has returned from the east and states that he has purchased the most attractive fall stock of ready-to-wear garments ever shown in this city.

We extend a cordial invitation to all of our patrons to come in some day this week and view the latest arrivals. Visitors here for the summer will find it to their advantage to see these goods and compare them with the ones they have seen in other cities. Asheville has the reputation, whether merited or not, of being high priced, that is, charging more for goods than other cities. We wish to disprove this allegation and we feel sure that if you price our garments you will find them much more reasonable than you had any idea they were.

Fall Suits are priced at $20.00 on up to $55.00 a suit.
The new skirts are marked at $5.50 on up to $12.50,
