TELEGRAPHIC

Reported by the Press Association 1864

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1864, by J. S. Thrasher, in the Clerk's office of the District Court of the Confederate States, for the Northern District of Georgia

SUNDAY, July 3.—A special to the Register and Advertiser, from Macon, Mississippi, says Gov. Clark to-day issued a proclamation calling on every able bodied man in the State to repel invasion, to rendezvous at Brandon and West Point.

IN FIELD, Near Rufus Station, July 4.—In order to counteract a flank movement made in force by the enemy, our left army commenced to withdraw from the neighborhood of Marietta night before last. The movement was conducted successfully, though in some places we were not more than forty or fifty yards from the enemy's lines. We did not begin to move until just before day light yesterday, and it was conducted quietly. The army was not aware of it until the evacuation was completed. Not a gun was fired along the line during the night, except from Kenesaw Mountain.

An hour or two after they advanced, leaving Marietta on the left, and passed to the rear of the Military Institute, when our cavalry commenced skirmishing. A brigade of the enemy's infantry in the morning attacked said force, 400 dismounted cavalry, and we were compelled to retire. We captured 80 heavy rifles, and a few prisoners.

The enemy have been feeling for a position to-day.

Considerable skirmishing along General French's front.

ATLANTA, July 4th.—The Appeal has received the Nashville Union of the 29th, with dates from Chattanooga to the 1st inst.

Secretary Chase has resigned.

Lincoln awarded to the Senate the nomination of David Todd, of Ohio, as Secretary of the Treasury.

Gold in New York on the 30th, 250.

Bills are before Congress providing for the calling out of the National forces, stipulating that the draft will not be for more nor less than three years, repealing the commutation clause in the enrollment, and taxing incomes to provide for bounties.

News from Grant's army unimportant.

Burnside has removed his troops from near Petersburg to Louisiana near Baton Rouge. A part of them have been taken to New Orleans.

Liverpool dates to the 15th ult. have been received.

The steamer Alabama reached Cherbourg on the 11th, and handed over the crews of two captured vessels. She would be permitted to make extensive repairs.

The Daily News believes that the plot to overthrow the Palmerston ministry has been broken down and the scheme abandoned.

The prospects of peace in reference to the Danish question is as remote as ever.

MARIETTA, July 4th.—A force of the enemy from Vicksburg are in the vicinity of Canton to-day, and our forces under Wirt Adams are fighting them. Another column is said to be moving simultaneously from Natchez.

GREENSBORO', July 5.—The Richmond Whig, of the 4th, has been received. No news of importance. The Petersburg Express of Saturday says: Last night at about 10 o'clock heavy firing of musketry commenced on our centre, continuing very rapid for 20 minutes. It was thought at first that a general engagement had commenced. At the end of this time, however, it ceased. It was the opinion of those who heard it that the Yankees had assaulted our lines, and were as usual repulsed.

The reporter for the New York Times writes, Ira B. Vaegelen was killed on Sunday.

All quiet along the lines yesterday, except occasional shelling.

The following official dispatch was received at the War Department:

HEADQ'S ARMY NO. VA., July 1st.

To the Secretary of War.

Gen. Beauregard reports a feeble demonstration made by the enemy on a portion of Gen. Johnson's line about 5 o'clock yesterday. His skirmishers, supported by two lines of troops, drove in our line of skirmishers, which was re-established at dark.

In the various conflicts with the enemy's cavalry in their late expedition against the Railroads, besides the killed and wounded left on the field, 1,000 prisoners, 14 pieces of artillery, 30 wagons and horses, ordnance stores, and several hundred negroes taken from the plantations on their route, were captured.

(Signed) R. E. LEE, Gen.

The following press dispatch is taken from the Whig:

PETERSBURG, July 2nd.—There was some firing on our lines from batteries 7 and 10, resulting it is supposed in an advance of the enemy on Jenkins' front, while relieving pickets, and lasted 30 minutes, but amounted to nothing.

Nothing doing but shelling on the part of the enemy.

It is reported that heavy firing was heard in the direction of Petersburg yesterday morning.

MERIDIAN, July 6th.—A special dispatch to the Clarion, from Brandon, says the Yankees occupied Jackson at noon on yesterday. Gen. Slocum says his object is to destroy the railroads and bridges and return to Vicksburg.

His force is estimated 2,500.

Heavy firing to-day between Jackson and Canton.

RICHMOND, July 7.—Nothing of interest has occurred in this vicinity for several days.

The protracted drought still continues.

Rumors are plentiful, and stiring events are said to be on the eve of accomplishment.

The Yankees on the James river have been destroying all wheat crops within their reach this week.

PETERSBURG, July 7.—The day is unusually quiet. Scarcely any sharpshooting and little or no shelling; weather extremely warm; roads deep in dust.

The Yankee papers of the 4th announce Wilson's raiding party as having returned to Grant's lines, but admit he sustained immense loss, though they claim that results they achieved compensate for losses.

The country in rear of Grant's lines is represented as filled with stragglers, and crops entirely destroyed by the enemy's foraging party.

RICHMOND, July 4.—The Herald of the 1st says Secretary Chase has resigned. Various causes are assigned by Chase's friends, who claim that he had determined a month ago to retire at the end of the fiscal year.

Operations in Gold, on the 4th, was extremely wild, and prices ranged between 240 to 249.

Lincoln, in his letter accepting the nomination, says that the position of the Government in relation to the action of France in Mexico will be maintained so long as the state of affairs shall leave that position pertinent and applicable.

PETERSBURG, July 4, 2 P. M.—The enemy is still in our front at all of the old points, though doubtless some of their forces have gone away, possibly to the north side of the Appomattox and James river or to Washington.

At every point on the enemies lines huge flags have been displayed to-day, and bands incessantly playing.

Less than usual amount of shelling and some little picket firing.

PETERSBURG, July 6.—The Chronicle of the 3d has a special dispatch from Kershaw Mountain, dated the 27th, which says a severe attack was made this morning by selected portions of the 4th and 2d of Logan's corps, on the enemy's crest on center, right, and left. The fight lasted two hours, but our men were compelled to give back before a superior force of the enemy. Gen. Parker was killed, Dan McCook slightly wounded.

Our loss was 2,000 but we hold a position considerably in advance of where the fighting occurred.

Congress passed the enrollment bill on the 2d. It provides for the reception of substitutes, repeals the commutation clause and requires 50 days notice of drafts.

Chase on the eve of his resignation, wrote a letter urging the raising of four hundred millions additional tax this year.

The Chronicle fears Congress is in such haste to adjourn, that additional Legislation will be required.

The Chronicle, noticing Wilson's raid, says keep the Railroads cut, and general starvation in a month or two will take the rebel capital without the aid of Grant.

The Yankee Senate has added an amendment to the bill for the republication of a form of Government for States now in rebellion, which provides that no State declared by the President in rebellion shall vote for President or Vice President. The House is yet to act on it.

Nothing from GRANT.

Gold 255.

PETERSBURG, July 6.—The situation around this place is unchanged. The usual skirmishing, and but very little shelling to-day.

PETERSBURG, July 5.—Brisk skirmishing along the lines on the centre of our right last night and to-day, with heavy shelling from siege guns at intervals.

General Alexander, Longstreet's chief of artillery, was slightly wounded a few days since, but is doing well. General Bushrod Johnson was wounded yesterday

MERIDIAN, July 7th.—The Yankees left Jackson on yesterday. No private property was destroyed, the object of the expedition being to destroy the Railroad between Jackson and Canton.

Telegraphic communication with Jackson has been resumed.

MACON, July 6.—The Board of Directors of the Press Association met to-day and transacted considerable business—some of it important. Arrangements have been made to secure the transmission of any reports when interruption exists in regular lines, and to otherwise facilitate the general objects of the Association.

CHATTAHOOCHEE RIVER, July 6th.—All quiet this morning.

The enemy, yesterday, burnt the dwelling at the junction of the Atlanta and Decatur Road.

Some prisoners were brought in last night from the 18th Indiana.

[SECOND DISPATCH.]

CHATTAHOOCHEE, July 5th.—There has been very little skirmishing to-day.

The enemy is cautiously feeling his way. They yesterday burnt the Paper Mill at Rome.

A Yankee Major and 10 privates were brought in this evening.

JACKSON, Miss., July 7th, via Mobile, July 7th.—The enemy, estimated at 4,000, occupied this place till 4 P. M., when they evacuated it, moving back on Clinton.

Our forces are in their front and flank.

A severe fight four miles west of here, which continued from daylight to 7 o'clock this morning. All quiet now.

No particular damage done to citizens, except negro stealing. Many citizens are left without a single servant.

No damage done to our railroads or telegraph.

RICHMOND, July 7th.—It is reported that 900 Yankees were supprised and captured near Martinsburg last Sunday, with 4 pieces of artillery: stores, including extensive preparations for a 4th of July dinner, were also taken.

CHATTAHOOCHIE, July 7th.—With the exception of occasional skirmishing and shelling by our batteries on the east bank of the river, at Turner's Ferry, responded to by those of the enemy opposite, all is quiet along the lines.

Among the prisoners brought in to-day are Col. Sherman, Gen. Howard's chief of staff, and his orderly. The Col. was captured by our pickets while making a reconnoissance of our lines and works.

CLINTON, La., July 4th, via Mobile.—The steamer Iago, loaded with cotton, was captured and burned by our troops in Arkansas river.

Delegates have left New Orleans for the Chicago Convention.

Over 100 men, deserters from the Yankee army, have been arrested on their way to join the Mexican army.

Canby is organizing a force of 30,000 men, either to reinforce Sherman or advance and threaten Mobile and Demopolis.

The steamer Louisiana Belle, a Government transport, was burned at the levee near New Orleans.

Gold 235. Cotton 160.

During the Panic wars of Eastern Europe a celebrated city in Italy was threatened with siege by the aggressive army. A council of war was held, and the abandonment of the city determined upon. Hearing the result, the wife of the General commanding provided herself with two daggers and called at his quarters. She announced her purpose to take his life with one of these, and with the other to destroy her own, in case the decision to evacuate the city was not revoked. Her diplomacy prevailed, the aggressive army was finally defeated, and the city restored to liberty.

Southern women are equally heroic, but less violent. They aided the press saved Richmond in 1862, even after the archives had been removed to a place in the Gulf States.

THE NEW BRIGADIER GENERALS.—Some weeks ago [illegible] appointments of Brigadiers were published, and among them some five or six from this State. It was generally supposed that these appointments were permanent, but we learn that they were only temporary, except in one or two cases. The commandments of brigades and Barringer's command of Brigades are permanent. They take the places of [illegible] Cox, Ransom and Lewis [illegible] until the return of wounded or captured officers. So, also, in the case of Ransom's appointment as Major General—he fills the position and draws the pay of a Major General until Maj. Gen. Edward Johnson, who was captured, returns to his command.

Wilm. Journal.

FROM CAMP VANCE.—The editor of the Salisbury Watchman, writing from camp Vance, June 30th, states that our troops have come up with the raiders two or three miles beyond Piedmont Springs, defeated them, and sent back for reinforcements. It is supposed the enemy has been forced.

DIVIDE, OR DIE.—This incident is related by a letter in the Potomac army:

On one of those biting cold mornings, while the armies of Meade and Lee were staring at each other across the rivulet known as Mine Run, when moments appeared to be hours, and hour day, so near at hand seemed to be the deadly strife, a solitary sheep walked leisurely along the Run on the Confederate side. A Confederate vidette fired and killed the sheep, and, dropping his gun advanced to remove the prize. In an instant he was covered by a gun in the hands of a Union vidette, who said: "Divide is the word, or you are a dead Johnny." This proposition was assented to, and there, between the skirmish lines, Mr. Confederate skinned the sheep, took one half, and moved back with it to his post, when his challenger in turn, dropped his gun, crossed the Run and got the other half of the sheep and again resumed the duties of his post, amid the cheers of his comrades who expected to help him eat it. Of the hundreds of hostile [illegible] exchanged against each other on either bank [illegible] not one [illegible] fire was agreed upon by these two soldiers.

☞ It is a well known fact that the reason assigned, by many, for the panic which caused our troops to break at the battle of Missionary Ridge, was that the enemy showed themselves in such overwhelming numbers that the boys thought the whole world was marching to attack them. We, to show the opinion prevailing among our boys, will relate the following anecdote, which we do not remember to have seen in print:

As line after line and mass after mass of Yankees appeared, crossing the plain and ascending the hillside, marching onward with seemingly resistless force, our troops began to waver, and many of them, to their shame, fled without firing a gun. Some of them, however, staid until the last, and among these was one fellow who, to use his own language, "staid that till they got so close that he heard one of the Yankee Generals give the command 'Attention World! BY NATIONS RIGHT WHEEL!! BY STATES, FIRE!!!' and then he thought it was time for this darn-ed little Southern Confederacy to be gittin out o' the way!" Don't blame him for it; it was about time to "git out o' the way."—Ed. Journal.

WHAT FRED DOUGLASS DEMANDS.—Frederick Douglas writes thus of the Cleveland Convention:

SIR—I mean the complete abolition of every vestige form and modification of slavery in every part of the United States, perfect equality for the black man in every State before the law, in the jury-box, at the ballot-box, and on the battle-field; and salutary retaliation for every instance of enslavement or slaughter of prisoners of any color. I mean that in the distribution of offices and honors under this government no discrimination shall be made in favor of or against any class of citizens, whether black or white, of native or foreign birth. And supposing that the Convention which is to meet at Cleaveland means the same thing, I cheerfully give my name as one of the signers of the call.

Yours respectfully,

FREDERICK DOUGLASS.

Rochester, May 23, 1864.

THE DEFENCES OF RICHMOND.—The New York Herald of a late date contains the statement of a fellow named Thompson, who deserted some days ago from the Armory Battalion of Richmond. Thompson says that the defenses of Richmond are stupendous. The fortifications are mounted with a hundred and thirty-two guns of the heaviest calibre, and are so constructed as to defy any strategy, as well as any assault that may be directed against them. "Fort Beauregard," commanding the Chickahominy on the east, is a magnificent work of military art. It is fourteen feet thick, and commanding the eminence on which it stands, is about one thousand feet high. "Fort Lee," commands the approaches on the north, is similar in strength and proportion. Beauregard has immediate command under Lee. It was feared, in McClelland's time, that Richmond could be taken; but now says Thompson, the thing is impossible, and the people know it.

A PATRIOTIC BOY.—A clergyman informs us of an incident which came under his observation in Petersburg, Va., that we take infinite pleasure in recording. A soldier arrived and a drenching rain, bare headed, having lost his hat while the train was moving rapidly. Approaching our informant, the soldier inquire where he could get a hat? He was informed that the stores were all closed, and that one could not be procured in the city. A lad aged about ten years, overhearing the conversation, quickly informed the soldier that he could have his cap. "But," says the soldier, "what will you do for one, sonny?" "I have a straw hat," replied the boy, "and it is warm enough now to wear that."—Pal. Express.

GOLD IN WASHINGTON.—We are informed by a gentleman just from Alexandria, says the Richmond Whig of the 30th ult., that within the past few days the people of the District have lost all confidence in "greenbacks," and the most Lincolnized holders of specie in Alexandria or Washington will not sell their gold or silver at a less rate than five for one! "Go it, ye cripples."

WHEAT CROP IN ALABAMA.—A subscriber writing to the Rebel from Lafayette, Alabama, adds to his letter the following postscript relative to the wheat crop in that section:

"The wheat crop is turning out splendidly in this neighborhood, notwithstanding the rain, and will be larger than ever before. Farmers inform me that the yield per acre is above the average, and not damaged.

THE YANKEE REVENUE BILL.—The Herald of the 27th says that the new revenue bill, just then passed both branches of Congress, will annually realize three hundred and fifty millions to the treasury. The rates of taxes on incomes will hereafter be five per cent. on all incomes over $600 and not exceeding $5 000, to $10,000 seven and a half per cent. and ex-

THE FEDERAL GODDESS OF LIBERTY.—It is a curious circumstance that the statue of Liberty which has just been unveiled on the top of the capitol at Washington, represents a colored woman. For fear of discoloration the excuse is, an acid has been employed which stains the surface of the figures, and makes the color weather-proof.—New York World.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE SOLDIERS throughout the Confederacy

QUARTERMASTER GENERAL DEPARTMENT, RAILROAD BUREAU, RICHMOND, Feb, 20th, 1864.

THE friends and relatives of soldiers in the Army of Northern Virginia are hereby notified that an arrangement has this day been effected with the SOUTHERN EXPRESS COMPANY, to carry all packages of food and wearing apparel to Richmond, Va.

To secure the advantages thus obtained through the express company, the following instructions must be observed:

Packages must not contain more than one hundred pounds; be well secured, and plainly marked, and sent at the expense of the shipper to either of the Soldiers' Relief Associations, which are located as follows:

In North Carolina, at Raleigh; in South Carolina, at Columbia; in Georgia, at Augusta; in Alabama, at Montgomery; or at any other point at which one of these Associations have an office.

The Agents of these associations will there take charge of them, and ship daily by Southern Express Company, to the proper Agents of the respective States at Richmond, who will see them distributed to the proper individual owners.

To meet the wishes of the soldiers, and to give them a certain and speedy communication with home the Southern Express Company has agreed to give this freight preference over everything else; and in order that no obstacle may occur to the success of so laudable an enterprise, the several Railroad Companies are hereby requested to render the Express Company such facilities as will enable it to make this arrangement a complete success.

As the Southern Express Company assumes all responsibility of the transportation of those packages, the Relief Associations are requested to withdraw their Agents who have heretofore acted as traveling messengers. If the Relief Association will establish agencies in the rear of there armies, they may enjoy the same privileges hereby secured to the Army of Northern Virginia.
