Mr. R. H. Buckingham, chairman of Cross Creek No. 1, introduced the following resolution:

Resolved: That we, the Democracy of Cumberland county, in convention assembled, hereby instruct our nominees for the General Assembly of North Carolina, session 1907, to cause the repeal of the various laws prohibiting the sale of whisky in said county, and have enacted in lieu thereof such legislation as will permit the sale of whisky, etc., in high license bars only, in said county, provided at an election to be had on this question not later than April 1st, 1907, if a majority of the votes cast shall be in favor of such a sale; and if the majority of the votes cast at said election be in favor of prohibiting such sale of whisky, then the same is to be so prohibited in said county.

For this Maj. J. W. McLauchlin offered the following substitute, which was accepted by Mr. Buckingham:

Resolved: That whenever one-third of the qualified voters of Cumberland county petition therefor, the question of saloons or prohibition, be submitted to a vote of the people of the entire county; that in case such petition is presented to our Senator and Representatives in the General Assembly, they are hereby requested to provide by legislative enactment for submitting the question to the people for settlement.

Mr. J. W. Atkinson moved to table the substitute, and the vote by precincts resulted as follows: Ayes, 166¼; nays, 63¾.

Maj. E. J. Hale presented for nomination to the lower branch of the Legislature the name of Mr. James Marsh, of Gray's Creek; Mr. Downing that of Mr. H. H. Bolton, of Flea Hill; Col. W. S. Cook that of Dr. J. W. McNeill, of Hope Mills; Mr. W. L. Hawley that of C. G. Rose, of Cross Creek; Mr. D. J. Breece that of Mr. A. S. Hall, of Cross Creek; Mr. A. D. McGill that of P. P. Mr. Q. K. Nimocks offered a resolution in favor of the legalized primary, which, on motion of Mr. B. F. Talbot, was tabled.

Nominations for State senator were then declared in order. Mr. D. L. McBryde nominated Maj. J. W. McLauchlin; Mr. A. McBuie nominated Capt. J. D. McNeill. The ballot resulted: McLauchlin, 134 1-6; McNeill, 95 5-6. Maj. McLauchlin was declared the nominee.

Mr. W. D. Gaster offered a resolution endorsing Senators Simmons and Overman, and instructing Cumberland's members in the legislature to vote for Simmons. Mr. J. W. Bolton spoke in favor of the adoption of the resolution. Mr. Charles Haigh, Jr., moved adjournment as a substitute; lost by a vote of 139 to 31. The resolution was adopted.

The convention then adjourned.

As the OBSERVER stated yesterday, it was one of the largest conventions in the history of Cumberland Democracy. Its business was very voluminous, from the nomination of a full ticket and the debate and passage of several resolutions. But Mr. R. H. Dye was a model secretary of this great convention. His good work, unaided, is shown in yesterday's and to-day's reports in the OBSERVER, drawn from his official account.

The new ticket is as follows:
