Just Look at That shoe.

There was a time when first class shoes cost first class prices; You can pay a handsome price for a handsome shoe nowadays, but the necessity for doing it no longer exists; Take our $3 shoe as an illustration: You dont need to be very old to remembry the days when such a shoe would have cost you certainly not less than double the money and probably even a trifle more than that. The endeavor all along has been to bring up the quality and down the price—such a shoe for such a figure was never offered before.

The Encampment.

Col. J. T. Anthony was of the Governor's party who inspected the encampment grounds at Wrightsville and the Messenger quotes him as saying that while he had been in favor of two regiments encamping at Asheville he found that his men wanted to go to Wrightsville and he is with them. About the only improvements noted on the grounds so far as we could see by the published reports is an increased growth of the Bermuda grass. It is desirable not to retard the growth of this grass so the Governor's party had to take theirs without any grass in it.

The visit of the Governor, we learn by a private source will doubtless result in having the entire State Guard encamp at Wrightsville, in July. This is as it should be. As it will take time to get a permanent encampment grounds in order, and if the encampment is to jump all about the State, there never will be a permanent encampment grounds. Wrightsville is the place and in the end, the people of Wilmington will present to the State one of prettiest and most desirable encampment grounds of any State in the union.

The Joint Discussion at Statesville.

The joint discussion at Statesville between Maj. Robbins and Marion Butler that has been looked forward to with so much interest throughout State began in that town to-day at 12 o'clock. The meeting had been well advertised and the natural outcome was that Statesville was well crowded with farmers from adjoining counties. Speaking commenced promptly at 12 15. Maj. Robbins came to the bat first and for an hour hit some telling licks. He was followed by Mr. Butler in a speech of about the same duration. At 2 1 the meeting adjourned for dinner. After dinner Robbins and Butler each have a rejoinder, when the wood is expected to fly.

As THE NEWS goes to press Maj Robbins has the floor and is again getting in some of his good work.

At New Orleans.

Gen Rufus Barringer, of Charlotte, was appointed a member of the committee on resolutions, at the Confederate veterans meeting in New Orleans. The convention adopted a resolution to the effect that the late Confederate States should grant small pensions each to Mrs Jefferson Davis, widow of the president of the said Confederate States, and we earnestly recommend that the legislatures of the following states vote her an annual pension of $500 each during the remaining years of her life, to wit: Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee, Indian Territory, Kentucky and Missouri.

Who is the Negro?

A West Point item in to-day's Richmond Dispatch says: Yesterday when a hand at the dock opened a car load of cotton to begin the unloading of the same a negro confronted him in the car and told him to let him out or die. He was taken in charge by Chief-Clerk Powell, escorted to the office of the railroad company, and given twenty-four hours in which to leave the town. He threw dirt over his head getting out of town and less than an hour after his departure a telegram came from Charlotte, N C, offering $250 reward for his capture. It is reported that he broke jail there recently, being a notorious criminal under arrest for murdering a policeman.

The Methodist Educational Society of North Carolina was organized at Raleigh, N. C., May 13th, 1891, and the annual convention was held [illegible]

The officers of the society are: Hon. Wm. M. Robbins, President; Rev. J. A. Cunninggim, 1st Vice President; Rev. R. B. Boyd, 2nd Vice President; Rev. E. A. Yates, D. D., Secretary, and Treasurer. These officers constitute the Executive committee of the society.

The object of the society is to promote the educational interests of Methodism in North Carolina.

The annual meeting will be held in the Tryon street church and will be open to the general public. The public is cordially invited to be present. Educators are urged to participate in the discussions.

Safe Robbed.

The safe of the agency of J. H. Sloan, at Ninety Six, in South Carolina, was blown open last night and robbed of $100 in cash. Sloan offers a reward of $50 for the arrest of the guilty parties.

Capt. Torrance's Candidate.

Capt. R. A. Torrance, the present tax collector, will be a candidate for re-election of tax collector of Charlotte township, under the new law. Capt. Torrance will move his family from Huntersville town up to Charlotte. He has made a most efficient officer and would be hard to improve upon. So far as THE NEWS can learn, the Democrats of the township have no intention of trying to improve upon him.

At the Y. M. C. A.

The Men's hour at the Young Men's Christian Association at 5 o'clock to-morrow will be addressed by Mr J. A. Elliott. The music will be good and a profitable time is expected. Men cordially invited. The general secretary will give an illustrated talk at the boys' meeting at 2:30 p. m. on "A story of Two Bottles." The bottles will be on exhibition. The boys' orchestra is expected to play, and a large attendance anticipated. Any boy welcome whether a member of the association or not.

Palm Sunday, at the Catholic Church.

Low mass and holy communion at 7 a. m. Solemn blessing of Palms at 10:30 and immediately afterwards mass and sermon.

Sunday school at 3:30 p. m.

A special sermon and benediction at 8 p. m. All cordially invited.

The amount of limited room admission on Easter Sunday, April 17th, will be by ticket. Tickets may be had free from the pastor, Mr George Williams, Mr Patrick Fitzgerald and Mr Paul Von Kaufmann.

A Thief Surprised.

Brown, Weddington & Co's retail store on East Trade street, was opened up last night at 9:30 o'clock. About 15 minutes thereafter, Mr Morrison, one of the clerks, returned to the store to get something that he had forgotten, and as he opened the front door, he saw a negro run the length of the store and vanish through the back door. The police took the case in hand at once, and arrested a negro named Bob King. He had pried open the rear door, and had just entered the store when the clerk broke up his arrangements. He is in jail under $500 bond for his appearance for trial before Judge Meares next week.

Spring Pleasures.

That's what our stock thus far has proven; rounds of pleasure as from counter to counter you pass; It often seems to the customer that the force is fully engaged, but all are rapidly and pleasantly waited upon.

Pretty and tasty goods always sell easily, so we never have to persuade a person; the goods and prices are silent salesmen of no mean talent, and the steady trade of a other week makes hope eternal spring afresh.

Don't think of closing the trade in your spring dress and our dress goods department has revealed its charms. Ladies tell us we have the best line of Gimps, feather, passamentans, ribbon, trimming, ornaments, etc, in the city.

A new lot of clean spring Mosq and glace kids in the popular shades pearl gray, tan, mode, etc.

Already the fan trade has opened and we opened with it stacks of them from 5c up; It seems that every conceivable color is found in the lot.

Fancy decorative Jap fans of funny shapes; Dont be afraid to look into the stock of parasols, We might match your dress with one,

A look at our shirt waist counter will convince you that we expect to sell hundreds of them this season and so we do; last season they were worn. Well, that was only a dim shadow of what will be soon; Their comfort, economy, etc, has been discovered.

Caps for the little ones.

In evening shads we are doing a smart trade, showing them in Henriettas, C Hair, Albatross, Cashmere and Mandarin.

A special price has this week been put upon some all wool Albatross, garnet, blue and cardinal, elegant for tea gowns, 37½c; Challies richer than ever and more to choose from: we dare not confine your choice to a few patterns; and the hues they are trimmed with will cause a flutter of the heart.

Black Organdies that are black indeed; some entirely new kinds shown, as Crepon, etc.

We will only add one more now and it covers thousands of yards of great and small plands, stripes and solid, Ginghams.

A few capes and blazers remain and have been marked deep down; Their service is unquestionable, the prices correct.
