THE NEWSPAPER FACTORY

A Reporter Drops in at the Place Where They Make Patent Outsides and Gets Some Data

A News reporter went through the patent outside factory where country weeklies are turned out by the thousands, this morning and learned that his fears that the country is to be flooded with Republican papers, were true. Mr. C. S. Donaldson, manager of the Southern Newspaper Union is up to his eyes in business and is furnishing sheets for 150 or 200 new papers in this section. Many of them are Republican campaign papers. "Patent Outside" is an old term but not many people understand it. The Newspaper Union here is a branch of a New York house. It prints one side of a paper and sends it out to the publisher, at whatever town he may be located. The publisher then has only to get up the "inside" in any sort of type his office may afford put his forms to press and there's his completed paper. This style of paper business has obtained great headway in the South and it now amounts to a great thing. There are comparatively few all home print weeklies in the State.

Mr. Donaldson says that within the past few days, Republican papers are springing up all around. A new one edited by negroes, and one that is understood to be in opposition to The Enterprise, is to appear in Charlotte next Saturday. Its name will be the Central Republican Appeal and it will have as its motto: "Free from a scruple that Fetters a Free Born Reason." H. B. Kennedy is the president of the company. J. Wylie Brock is to start a Republican paper at Clyde this State. Maxton is to have a Republican paper called The Index. At China Grove, Dr. J. A. Ramseur is to revive The Dart. This is a Democratic paper.

The End of the Roessler Case.

When Mr. Mancke applied to the commissioners yesterday afternoon for license to open up the Central Hotel saloon, objection was made that Capt. J. Roessler had an application pending for license to do business at the same stand and that the case was in the courts. Counsel for the applicant met this objection by offering to pay all the court costs of the mandamus case and withdraw the case. This was accepted and license was granted to Mancke. Capt. Roessler's case is therefore out of the way. The terms of the settlement did not include the fees of the lawyers employed by the commissioners.

Local Weather Report

The following is a synopsis of the weather prevailing at 8 a. m. to day: The high pressure remains nearly stationary around the Georgia coast and still continues to influence the weather over the greater part of the country. Light rains have occurred to the north of this section, around the New England coast, and to the distance west; elsewhere settled, clear conditions have prevailed. Temperatures over this immediate section have remained nearly stationary, but in the extreme Northwest, and as far south as the Ohio river, they have fallen as much as 12 degrees during the past 24 hours. A low pressure is in the extreme western part of Texas, which is influencing the weather as far east as the Mississippi river.

The surprise of Rip Van Winkle when awaking from his long slumber was not greater than the consumptive's who found himself entirely relieved by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

AT ST. MARY'S

The Catholic Event To Day. Laying the Corner Stone of the New Abbey Church Near Belmont

A special to The News from Belmont, to day says: Visitors from south bound as well as the north bound trains brought many of the invited guests to St. Mary's to witness the solemn laying of the corner stone. All were welcomed by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Leo P. Haid, Director of the College, and the professors. Rev. P. Janssens, S. B. who anticipated [illegible] a real treat, in store for them, early after [illegible] called to the Exhibition Hall, where the members of the St. Cecilian Dramatic Association produced the interesting drama entitled "Light of Ignition." The entertainment was a genuine entertainment to all the visitors, for as several expressed themselves they had expected [illegible] instead half of what was given. But everything was in perfect order. The Personae Dramatis were at their best. The articulation of the speakers was most [illegible] their gestures are [illegible] and appropriate and the costumes [illegible] were worth [illegible] deserve special praise. Messrs. M. Glockling, Denis Meroney, Paul and above all the also president of the association Rev. P. Janssens, S. B. The music between the acts was given by Prof. Gallegos [illegible] the direction of Rev. P. Bernard, O. S. B. The evening was most pleasantly spent and St. Mary's College has added laurels to its past excellent reputation.

The morning dawned on a swarming number of people from the neighboring towns and villages took advantages of the fair day and came in carriages. Charlotte and Gastonia are well represented.

All the preparations for the afternoon celebration are perfected. The cornerstone is a large granite block with a crossed mitre top. Also a cavity 8x9x8 inches in which will be placed some interesting papers. The most important will be the document with the corner stone laying. It contains the names of the reigning Pope, the Bishop of Diocese, the President of United States, Governor of the State and the names of the assistant priests.

The procession will be formed in the old chapel. First will come the cross bearer and Acolytes then the students of St. Mary's College and the officers of the College to the [illegible] the visitors followed by the lay brothers of the Benediction Order. The College Brass Band and choir will precede the Bishop and his attendants. The Bishop will be accompanied by Rt. Rev. Vicar Bernard O. S. B. of Montserrat, Very Rev. F. Wilfrid, O. S. B. of Richmond, Va., Very Rev. F. William O. S. B. of Savannah, Ga., Rev. Father Joseph of Greensboro, Rev. Father Denis of Wilmington, Rev. Father Marion of Raleigh, Rev. Julius, O. S. B. Rev. F. Melchior O. S. B., Rev. I. Bernard O. S. B., Rev. F. Henry O. S. B., Rev. F. Vincent O. S. B., all of the abbey.

Besides other Rev. gentlemen whose names could not be learned.

Rev. F. Felix will act as master of the ceremonies. After the cornerstone laying Bishop Haid will deliver the sermon, and those who have never heard him may justly expect a treat.

Wilmington Fountains in the City.

There were about 30 in the party, among them Col. F. W. Kerchner, Col. B. R. Moore, Robert Green, D. Quinlivan and M. O'Brien. Their train stopped here for an hour or two and many of them took breakfast at the Central after which they mingled with their Charlottte friends. The party left in their car at noon, for Mt.
