YOU CAN DRAW YOUR OWN CONCLUSIONS

About our $3 shoe, but there's really only one conclusion that you can possibly come to and that is that in shoe leather a better investment you never made. Just as sure as you wear this shoe, just so sure will that be your judgment of it. Some shoes are cheap without being good, others are good without being cheap; this shoe is cheap and good enough for the most fastidious of feet. It will fit as snugly as a made to order shoe and many made to order shoes that haven't its durability. In all respects it's a wise purchase for the wise buyer. A large stock of Hats and Umbrellas, Trunks, Valises and Hand bags always on hand.

To Hear a Address.

There was the largest attendance of men at the Men's Rally, at the Young Men's Christian Association, yesterday afternoon, to hear Dr. R. F. Dixon, president of Greensboro Female College, that there has been for seventeen months. Dr. Dixon spoke on "Law and the law" and gave an exceptionally able and impressive address. The close attention of the audience showed their intense interest. Messrs. D. F. Summey, F. L. Martin, Will Powell and F. H. Andrews, the quartet, gave two numbers and never sang better or more acceptably. A liberal response was made when the collection was taken, it amounting to a little more than enough to pay the expenses of the meeting, which ensures that the plan of securing speakers from out of town will be tried again. The collections taken will be used for nothing else but to make the Men's Rally more interesting. Nothing but words of commendation have been heard of the meeting last evening.

Off for Raleigh.

Mecklenburg county will be well represented in the State convention at Raleigh, next Wednesday. The delegates will leave here to-morrow morning, some by the Carolina Central and some by the Richmond & Danville. Those who will go from Charlotte are: Dr. J. H. McAden, W. C. Maxwell, John W. Miller, E. T. Cansler, W. B. Lathrop, Col. H. C. Jones, L. B. Springs, W. W. Rankin, John M. Wallace, J. Lee Wadsworth, L. E. Robertson, J. H. Weddington, Col. John F. Brown, H. Rankin, J. E. Robertson, E. S. Williams, A. Barwell, Jno. E. Bethune, J. H. Collins, J. L. Chambers.

The Greensboro Gun Team.

The Greensboro Record states that the Greensboro Gun Club has challenged the Charlotte Gun Club for a Ten Gun match to be shot on the grounds of the Charlotte Club on the afternoon of the 26th of May. Each Club to furnish ten men, who are bona fide members of the Club, and each man to fire at 25 Blue Rock targets, under the Rapid Fire system, American Association Rules. This contest being in addition to the regular "events" of that day, will, if accepted, add very much to the interest of the occasion. The members of our Club are practicing every afternoon; some are doing very fine shooting.

The Funeral of E. C. Davidson.

The body of the late E. Constantine Davidson, who was drowned in the Catawba, at Moore's ferry, last Friday evening, was buried at the Davidson family burial ground, in the Hopewell section, yesterday afternoon. It was perhaps the largest country funeral ever known in Mecklenburg, there being fully a hundred vehicles in procession, besides a great many pedestrians. People were there from Charlotte and from different sections of Mecklenburg, and a large delegation was present from Gaston county. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Wm. Pharr, of Mooresville, who was assisted by Rev. Chalmers Moore. Mr. Davidson was buried with Alliance ceremonies, Hopewell, Beech Cliff and Gilead Alliances participating.

As stated in THE NEWS, the body was found at sunrise Saturday morning. All night long searchers were at work with long poles to the end of which hooks were attached, sounding the stream below the scene of the drowning. Just at sunrise, Mr. Harvey Henderson a brother-in-law of the deceased, who was poling the the stream 200 yards below the scene of the drowning, felt his hook strike an object on the bottom of the river. He drew it up and the body of Mr. Davidson came to the surface. The hook had caught in the cloth of his pants. As laid out for burial the body had a life-like appearance, there being no bruises or contortions. In his coffin Mr. Davidson appeared as if he had dropped off into a peaceful sleep.

Butler's Meeting.

Capt. T. L. Vail, who, a couple of campaigns ago, circulated Third party pledges in Mecklenburg county, but who has since repented and who now says he is a better Democrat than the editor of THE NEWS, leaves to-night to attend Marion Butler's conference in Raleigh, tomorrow. Mr. John Springs Davidson will also be in Mr. Butler's meeting.

Asheville's Riders.

The Asheville Citizen of Saturday says: On Tuesday next the Asheville horsemen who will contest for the tournament prizes at Charlotte will leave for that city. Those who will take part are N. A. Reynolds, N. T. Chambers, J. T. Sevier, A. T. Summey, Jr., D. E. Sevier, and W. S. Ray. They have been practicing for several weeks past and their opponents in the contest will have to do some fine work to keep them from the prizes.

Sermon to the Military.

The annual sermon to the Hornet's Nest Riflemen, was preached last night by the chaplain, Rev. Dr. A. G. McManaway, at the Tryon street Baptist church. The Hornets invited the Naval Battalion and the Queen City Guards to participitate and all three companies attended in full uniform, and with full ranks. The sermon was a peculiarly appropriate one and was listened to with deep interest by the soldiers and the large congregation.

The Odd Fellows.

At the meeting of the the I. O. O. F., in Wilmington last week it was stated that Charlotte had no representative there. THE NEWS learns that Mr. S. W. Neece was there and ably represented the order in this city. The order appropriated $3500 for the maintainance of the orphan's home located at Goldsboro for the ensuing year. A balance of $4,000 is on hand subject to call if necessary. It seems that this order has had quite a prosperous year, they having added 900 names to their already large list during the year.
