THE WEEKLY STANDARD
CONCORD, CABARRUS COUNTY, N. C.
THURSDAY, MAY 2, 1895.

JAMES P. COOK - - EDITOR

FIVE YEARS OLD TODAY.

Today five years ago the Daily Standard made its first appearance. It came out a four column affair.

It was run for sport, fun and such like for awhile, but since then we have been running it not for glory, but because it is a necessity and too good a thing not to run.

It is highly appreciated in many homes, we have reasons to believe; and it is taken by some, who appreciate it so much that they take it without allowing their consciences to lash them for not paying for it. There are others whose autographs are not on our mailing lists, that read it regularly, but there are those who rob subscribers of their papers and borrow—they are not worth anything to the town.

The Daily Standard has always been for Concord and Cabarrus; it has talked in season and out of season for every movement for the good of our own section and town. It has done all this for the love of them both.

We have enjoyed the warm support given it by the citizens of the town in subscriptons; and the leading merchants have liberally patronized its advertising columns—all these we highly appreciate. In this connection we desire to say that the Weekly Standard has more reading matter in it than any country Weekly in the State, and its circulation in Cabarrus county is larger than any paper that is read in the county. It goes for one dollar. If there be any that desire for distant friends to keep posted on the county, why come in and order the paper started.

The Daily now enters Vol. XI. We confidently expect the same patronage as in the past, and hope to deserve it.

A BAD DAY'S WORK.

The making of a bond of $91,000 in this city yesterday in the case of an embezzling bank cashier for whom a bond of only $15,000 was needed, was a regrettable occurrence. No matter how charming his personal qualities, sight should never for a moment be lost ot the fact that this man is a criminal, and deserves the same sympathy and the same punishment, except in a much larger degree, that is measured out to the poor white man who steals a side of meat or the negro who steals a dominecker chicken. Men who have boys to raise need to have a care about how they palliate the crime of Ex-Cashier Holland, while those who have not should still remember that they owe the weight of their influence to the cultivation of a moral tone in society. Charlotte gets a bad advertisement this morning in the statement to the world of the size of this bond, and any other trusted official who has the handling of the money of other people and who may be contemplating the appropriation of a part of it to his own purposes will find great encouragement in this incident of yesterday in Charlotte.—Charlotte Observer.

Our readers are familiar with the shocking matter connected with the trial and conviction on the charge of murder of Geo. Mills in Wake county some time ago. The Governor has been appealed to for executive clemency. A commission of physicians is to examine into Mills sanity and report before the Governor acts on the petition. It would not look right to hang Geo. Mills. We believe him a victim of circumstances, the making of which he could not govern or resist. Somebody, however, ought to be hanged and it looks like it might be a nearer relative than George. Children and fools tell everything; Mills is doubtless the latter, and we believe his story.

You can say what you please, for people will do that so long as tongues are at their service, the Charlotte Observer is enterprising "shores uborn." That extra, Monday morning, telling "where Holland is" just simply put people to breathing easily.

There is something pitiful about the winding up of the career of that little negro, Bob Phifer. Of course he died—that's what all must do. [illegible] mania for running off, beating freight trains and the like—a modern fad—until his craze put him into a box.

Woman's character has been likened to a postage stamp—one black mark ruins it. Man's like a treasury note no matter how many stains it still passes at par. When a woman falls from grace her character is usually ruined forever. While on the other hand a man may straighten up and be received into the best of society again. All of which is too true.

He who speaks lightly and flippantly concerning the character and virtue of a female, shames his sister, dishonors his mother, and disgraces the name of man.

At the general election ten years hence every citizen will cast his vote by the simple touch of an electric button and instantly the ballot is recorded, marked off the list and the result will be known to every man, woman and child throughout the country in less than five minutes past the closing hour.

They are now disputing abroad over the proper way in which to designate women who have secured a medical degree. Some of the suggestions are "doctorein," "physicienne," "doctorine," "doctorina," and in case of married medical women, "doctora." Just let her alone and she will do her "doctorin'" and at the same time make a name for herself.

No Cheap Your Head Swims.

Jno. P Allison is offering bargains in canned goods, regardless of cost. Look over the list of Leggetts and other first class brands:

White Cherries, Rochester	3lb	20
White Cherries, California	3 "	25
Pineapples, sliced & grated	2 "	20
Peaches	3 "	15
Okra	3 "	15
Apricots	3 "	15
Asparagus, Tips	3 "	20
Stringless Beans	2 "	20
Strawberries.	2 "	20
Mock Turtle Soup	3 "	27
Ginger Preserves (delicious) Jars.		45

Some of these are less than Packer's cost.

From all reports of Ex-Cashier Holland, it looks as if the citizens of Charlotte applauded his deeds of rascality and dishonesty, but the Observer of this morning points out some very truthful facts that are good to reflect upon. We print it elsewhere.

The Show To-Night.

It is with pleasure the Cabarrus Black Boys announce the appearance at Armory Hall, on Thursday night, May 2nd, of the famous Belle Boyd, of Stonewall Jackson and Shenandoah Valley fame in a dramatic narrative of her own personal exploits and experiences and a company of up to date musical artists and comedians in the Musical Bulletta, "The Actors Visit."

This is the Belle Boyd, whose daring deeds and dashing exploits earned for her the soubiquet of the "Rebel Spy," and whose well known service and devotion to the cause of the South has made her name loved by the Southern people.

The entire press of North Carolina have nothing but word of praise for Belle Boyd and her company and the people of Concord and vicinity have a treat in store for to-night.
