

Our Organizations

Charlotte Chapter BBW

Our 36th annual installation luncheon, held on April 27 at the Adam's Mark Hotel, was well attended. The following slate of officers was installed in a beautiful ceremony: President, Jody Pinion; Administrative VP, Margie Liebshtein; Communications VP, Laurie Wertheimer; Co-CVS VPs, Linda Goldberg and Paula Gentile; Programming VP, Dorothy Shapiro; Fundraising VP, Abbe Bryan; Treasurer, Shirley Fytelson; Corresponding Secretary, Merle Pervis; Financial Secretary, Peggy Rovman; Recording Secretary, Helen Rosenbaum; Counselor, Beth Linderman.

"Children and Stress," a parenting program which featured Marty Todd from Charter Pines Hospital, was held April 21 at Shalom Park. Bagels and coffee were served. This program proved to be very timely and thought-provoking.

BBW Seniors had a great time at the Older Adult Luncheon held April 19 at Shalom Park. They enjoyed the food and entertainment.

The Spring Special Olympics were held April 14 at Charlotte Country Day School. Members were there to lend support to the very special athletes.

May Activities

Once again, BBW members will help out at the bowling tournament for the Senior Games, on Friday, May 6 at Park Lanes. Please call Lynda White, 541-8317, if you are interested in being a member of our scoring team.

The last lecture of the Alive series, "Morals, Ethics and Attitudes Today" will be Thursday, May 19 at 9:30 a.m. at Shalom Park. Dr. Walter Feldman, clinical director of child and adolescent psychology at Mecklenburg Mental Health, will speak on the ethical and moral dilemmas facing the practitioners of modern medicine. Dr. Feldman is one of 600 legal-medical professionals in the country and the only one in North Carolina.

This last event of the Alive series is cosponsored by BBW and will serve as our May general meeting. A social hour and refreshments will follow.

CJN! CJN! CJN!

THINK CJN CLASSIFIED
IT WORKS FOR YOU.

CALL: 366-5007

For details, call Rose Naiman, 846-2190.

Dr. Peter Relic, Mecklenburg County School Superintendent, will be at Shalom Park on Thursday, May 26. We would like your input on topics for discussion, so please communicate your ideas to Jody Pinion, 821-6811 or Roberta McGinley, 847-3423. This promises to be an informative event, so do plan to attend.

The Children's Miracle Network Telethon, created by the Osmond Foundation and based in Utah, is coming soon. Both Charlotte Memorial and Charlotte Rehabilitation Hospitals will benefit, as all monies collected remain here and go towards equipment and research. Our members are needed as volunteers to answer telethon phones for three-hour shifts.

Members will be doing volunteer work for the internationally acclaimed "Ramesses the Great" exhibit, to be at the Mint Museum from October 1988-January 1989. For further information on orientation, contact Paula Gentile, 541-5862.

—Laurie Wertheimer

HaLailah Chapter B'nai B'rith Women

Once again HaLailah brought Passover to 23 shut-ins, needy and elderly members of our community. Baskets filled with matzoh, wine, candles and other Passover necessities were delivered with the help of Jewish Family Services.

Many thanks to those members of HaLailah who participated in the March of Dimes Walk America on April 23. Members walked or registered walkers to help this worthy cause.

Nickleby's was the scene of HaLailah's annual installation dinner on April 19. Heartfelt thanks go to out-going copresidents Maddie Joffe and Wendy Rosen. Newly installed officers are: President, Penny Eisenberg; CVS Vice-Presidents, Linda Spil and Claire Putterman; Programing VP, Merridith Blazer; Fund Raising VP, Jackie Stutts; Membership VPs, Lauren Lassman and Mindy Mescon; Communication VP, Lisa Pharr; Financial Secretary, Carol Klein; Recording Sec., Colleen Epstein; Corresponding Sec., Debbie Rosenberger; Treasurer, Lizzann Taylor; Counselor, Maddie Joffe.

—Lisa Pharr

B'nai B'rith Men Announces Its New Board

The Charlotte 1988-1989 board was officially installed on April 27 at the Guest Quarters Hotel on Morrison Boulevard. The evening began with an international cheese, fruit and wine hour, followed by the installation of the board and the induction of new members. The evening concluded with coffee and an array of desserts. The 1988-1989 Officers are as follows: President, Steve Menaker; President-elect, Jim Meadow; VP Fundraising, Sam Bernstein; VP Membership, Jeff Turk; VP Programming, Peter Levinson; VP Publicity, Jeff Fisher; VP Youth Services, Morris Spil; Secretary, Scott Menaker; Treasurer, Stuart Cohen; Financial Secretary, Stuart Cohen; Past President, Eric Sklut.

Gene Littles, director of player personnel of the Charlotte Hornets, spoke before the lodge at our March dinner held at Chandler's Restaurant. Gene talked about his years of basketball, as a player and a coach, and provided us with insight as to what type of player the Hornets will be trying to recruit. Winners of the cash raffle and of official Charlotte Hornets jerseys and t-shirts were Larry Segal, Heath Pryor, Gene Goldberg and Craig Gordon.

—Ken Stern

Hadassah

Hadassah's annual installation luncheon will be held on May 18 at 11:30 a.m. at Raintree Country Club. Cost for lunch is $10.

Your check is your reservation. Please RSVP to Linda Segal, 810 Colville Rd., Charlotte, NC 28207. Telephone: 372-6157.

Be a Volunteer!

There's A Beautiful
You
Waiting
To Come Out!

Take off those extra inches with our new Body Toning System.

NO JOGGING
RUNNING
SWEATING

All it takes is a little effort.
We'll do the rest!

Hours:
Mon-Fri 8-8 • Sat 8-5

Come in for a
FREE Demo/Visit

McMullen Creek Market
(behind Uptons)
8316-803 Pineville Mathews Rd.
Pineville • 541-0734

ENCORE

Nearly new designer and name brand fashions on consignment

The new, bigger and better Encore is

NOW OPEN

1721 Kenilworth Avenue
Charlotte, NC 28203
332-3365

Support our Advertisers

archadeck
WOODEN PATIO DECKS

An architect and a builder join their talents and find a unique way to produce and install a range of handsome, elegantly crafted, yet moderately priced decks. Decks that are fully protected by written warranty for one full year. For a free estimate and a brochure call us at

(704) 362-0411

Est. 1979-Offices from Atlanta to New York
Copyright 1987 U.S. Structures, Inc.