SPECIAL AT THE PASTIME CHRISTMAS DAY

Special attraction at the Pastime for Christmas day December 25th, will be "The Apple Tree Girl" an Edison perfection picture featuring Shirley Mason and a good comedy. The following is the story of the "Apple Tree Girl:"

Charlotte Marlin is left an orphan. She is sent to school with her cousin Margaret, who is considered the prettiest girl in town. Being considered homely, Charlotte is left pretty much to herself. She meets Neil Kennedy, a young man working his way through college, and a strong liking develops between them. They all graduate and take their respective by-roads through life. Charlotte, while considered homely, tries to solve three problems, and thus show her cousin that she can be as popular. She first makes everybody like her because she likes everybody in return. In order to become famous she takes up the study of golf and soon wins the International championship. The matrimonial life of her cousin had not been so happy, but Charlotte by her pleasing personality soon brings the two together again. Later Charlotte meets Neil, and the old friendship is renewed. He, being a practicing physician, is able to support a wife, and he and Charlotte are married.
