The Atlantic Monthly,
FOR 1862.

THE attractions of this standard and popular periodical for the year 1862 are greater than ever before.

Professor AGASSIZ began in the January number a series of articles on Natural History, and other kindred topics, to be continued from month to month throughout the year. The name of so distinguished a man of science in connection with this announcement, is a sufficient guaranty of the great benefit to be derived from his monthly contributions.

A New Romance by Nathaniel Hawthorne, will appear in the pages of The Atlantic early in the year.

A New Story by the late Theodore Winthrop, author of "Cecil Dreeme" was commenced in the January number.

Dr. George B. Winship, well known for his remarkable exploments in Gondatius, has written for The Atlantic "The Autobiography of a Strength Seeker," giving an account of his method of training for feats of strength, with advice on matters of health. This article was printed in the January number.

James Russell Lowell contributes every month a new "Biglow Paper" full of the keenest humor. His "Mason and Slidell, a Yankee Idyll," and "Message of Jeff. Davis in Secret Session" have been received with the highest praise.

The Staff of Writers in Prose and Poetry, contributing regularly to the Atlantic Monthly, comprises the best names in American Literature—Among them are

James Russell Lowell,	Oliver Wendell Holmes,
Henry W. Longfellow,	Nathaniel Hawthorne,
Louis Agassiz,	John G. Whittier,
Ralph Waldo Emerson	Edward Everett,

and many others.

This Magazine is eminently suited to the wants of intelligent soldiers of the Union Army, from whom subscriptions are solicited.

Terms.

Three Dollars per Annum, or Twenty-Five Cents a Number. Upon the receipt of the subscription price, the Publishers will mail the work to any part of the United States, postage prepaid. Subscriptions may begin with either the first, or any subsequent number. Address

Hunnewell's Great Remedies,

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.

What every family should have in the house and why!

☞ They should have Hunnewell's Universal Cough Remedy, because it effectually cures Colds, Whooping and Common Coughs, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, and is the most simple and perfect Soothing Syrup in the world. For old or young, by day or night, it may be used with the greatest freedom, and three-fourths of the deaths by Consumption stopped, and infants relieved of their suffering, by what leaves no stain behind.

HUNNEWELL'S TULU ANODYNE.

☞ They should have Hunnewell's Tulu Anodyne because it is a perfect remedy for Neuralgia, Nervous or Sick Headache, Tooth and Earache, St. Vitus Dance, Pain in Stomach, Distress after Eating, Nervousness, Hysteria and the chief of all disease and insanity, Loss of Sleep. Its character, though active, is simple; its action in perfect conformity to nature; its end cure or relief.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS.

☞ They should have Hunnewell's Eclectic Pills because with seldom but a single pill for a dose, all derangements of the Stomach and Bowels are cured. They cure Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headach, when caused by foul stomach, Loss of appetite, Biliousness, so often and so erroneously treated with Mercurials and Jaundice. For Worms a sure cure.

They act simple, assist nature, do not make a pill box of the stomach, as is the most fatal error of taking so many pills at a dose; and, then, what is important to every Family and every Purse, one bottle goes as far as two or three of what is ordinarily sold.

If the above reasons are not good, and results do not conform to declarations, I will request my agents to refund the money. This is the basis of my confidence, and that of the public is asked to test
