

Library Lines: The 4 Questions

By Amalia Warshenbrot

Why is the Speizman Jewish Library different from all other libraries?

1) In all other libraries we find either books of Jewish content or books of non-Jewish content. In this library we find books only of Jewish content or books by Jewish authors. In The Speizman Jewish Library you will find exceptional books and unusual periodicals that cannot be found in any other library in Mecklenburg County.

2) Other libraries you might not go by even once. We go by this library more than twice a week.

3) All other libraries are closed on Sundays, our library is open (on a self-service basis) six days a week from 8 a.m.-9 p.m. Please contact me for "full service." I will be glad to come in at your convenience.

4) In all other libraries you are required to show a library card which you may not have with you when needed. Our library requires only your name and phone number.

How will 1988 Jewish Book Fair be different from the 1987 Fair?

1) Last year it was open for one day. This year it will be open for a whole week. Mark your calendar now for Nov. 16 through Nov. 22.

2) Last year you had to order books and wait for the delivery. This Book Fair you will buy the books that will be on the shelves and take home your selected books for yourself or a gift for Chanukah.

3) During the upcoming Jewish Book Week the collection will be larger than in the past.

4) The Book and Author Event, sponsored by Hadassah, will be the highlight of many events planned for Nov. 20. Noted native North Carolinian, Eli Evans, will be our featured author.

Do you have any used books? Drop them in the used book bins at the "J". We'll sell them along with the Jewish books during the week prior to Thanksgiving.

The library needs your help in many ways. Call me at 366-5007 if you can volunteer for two hours a week.
