EDITORIAL NOTES.

[illegible]

A NEW [illegible] in the Third party has taken [illegible] Sate [illegible] State.

THE [illegible] increasing rapidly in [illegible] On the [illegible] there [illegible] 377 new cases and [illegible] deaths occurred.

F. W. STEDMAN, of Chatham, has been nominated by the People's Party for Congress and A. C. Green of Wake for elector in the fourth district.

THE main purpose of the Third party is to break the solid South and defeat Mr. Cleveland. To this end the Republican party is devoted. Birds of a feather etc.

THE Texas Farmer [illegible] Hogg [illegible] for the [illegible] and [illegible] heat.

WE learn, with deep regret, of the death of Mrs. S. A. Ashe, the lovely wife of the Editor of the News and Observer. The JOURNAL offers to Capt. Ashe the warmest sympathy.

STRIKES seem to be the order of the day. There are serious troubles on Buffalo, New York, Railroad property has been destroyed [illegible] and the military [illegible].

THE [illegible] for the bar of Johnston county and the bar of Louisburg have endorsed Judge Conner for the seat on the supreme court bench made vacant by the death of Justice Clark.

IF Weaver and Field carry one third of the States they claim the election will go to the House where Cleveland's election is sure. But, if we see aright, Cleveland will be elected by the electoral college.

A NEW YORK firm tendered the Treasury Department $1,000,000 in notes that had been issued in payment of silver and demanded $1,000,000 in gold for shipment. It was paid without demurrer.

THE Atlanta Constitution is reliably informed that Senator Hill will make a series of speeches for the Democratic presidential ticket in New York and Indiana. All the Democrats in New York are red hot Cleveland men now.

SENATOR M. W. HANSOM, Messrs. R. O. Burton and E. C. Beddingfield spoke at Jackson, Northampton county on Monday to a very large crowd. Great enthusiasm prevailed and much good was done.

It is stated that the Republicans are offering to defray the expenses of a contest by Kolb, the defeated Third party candidate in Alabama. What have the Republicans to do with it? Do they already regard the Third party in the South as an adjunct to their own political organization?

HON. THOMAS H. SUTTON, has addressed a letter to W. S. Barnes, in which occurs this sentence: "The third party may capture North Carolina, and thus do honor to Weaver by his defeat, and forever [illegible] a couple of hundred years hence. [illegible] shall see to it that this shall not happen this year."

It requires the proceeds of 1,000,000 bales of cotton every year to pay the South's part of the pension fund, two thirds of which are paid to support tramps and beggars who claim to have fought for the Union. Very little if any of this large contribution ever returns to the South. This is one of the measures inflicted by Republicans to transfer Southern people of their money.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE Republican proceeding [illegible] convention held in Concord Saturday Mr. W. F. Stroud was nominated for Congress and Mr. A. C. Green for district elector. Mr. Stroud said in his speech that if the Democratic would put the Force bill into effect season in the Republicans. Mr. Stroud should not permit the zeal of a new convert to blind him to the truth of political history. Nothing can be gained by an attempt to frighten Force.—News and Observer.

WHEN Radical emissaries are sent here from the North to traffic with the third party vote, it is time to call a halt. There is in Raleigh a man from Connecticut who has been conferring with the Third party people, and has brought corruption money here with which to carry out his schemes. He wants to carry North Carolina for Harrison, and proposes to deliver three negro votes to the Third party ticket for their State ticket for one in return for Harrison, and declares he has the money with which to buy them. White men who call themselves reformers and who can be approached with such propositions as that of the Connecticut emissary, should be ashamed to show their faces and are unworthy of even the contempt of decent people.—News and Observer.

DOWN WITH HARRISON.

If Democrats [illegible] the fall of Harrison [illegible] prising, [illegible] sixteen Republican Senators [illegible] entered into a [illegible] down Harrison [illegible] and set [illegible] fresh recruits of the [illegible].

In a recent [illegible] Democrats [illegible] gration [illegible] to the leaders [illegible] leaders." Not a [illegible] but a Democrat [illegible] Tenth is sometimes strange [illegible] and evidence of [illegible] this statement is not wanting. The New York World, a great Democratic paper that backs its statements with the proof, in its issue of August 15th, the Washington correspondent of the World says: "The defeat of the [illegible] Harrison [illegible] the Republicans [illegible] Republican majority [illegible] United States Senate. The [illegible] expressed themselves [illegible] after conferring [illegible] and carefully considering [illegible] arguments on both sides.

"Four years more of Harrison they say, will so disorganize and disrupt the party that it will be impossible to pull it together and elect another Republican President for twenty years. There [illegible] have come to the conclusion that Harrison's [illegible] is a thing that can only end in total wreck."

The above information [illegible] the World's correspondent from an absolutely reliable source. His informant is a member of the Senate who holds a high position in the counsels of the Republican party. This opinion is believed to be shared by Thomas B. Reed and half a dozen other prominent members of the House of Representatives.

Nearly two thirds of the Republican Senators were opposed to the nomination of Harrison at Minneapolis. There are some who worked openly against him—Quay and Cameron, of Pennsylvania, Wolcott and Teller, of Colorado, Jones and Stewart, of Nevada, Pettigrew, of South Dakota, Hansborough, of North Dakota, Powers and Sanders of Montana, Washburn, of Minnesota, Dubois and Shoup, of Idaho, Squire and Allen of Washington, and Stockbridge and McMillan, of Michigan; Casey of North Dakota; Davis, of Minnesota; and Wilson of Iowa refused to do any thing to help Mr. Harrison. Hale and Frye of Maine, and Gallagher, of New Hampshire, preferred Blaine to Harrison and their influence was exerted in that direction.

It is admitted that the opposition to Harrison was manifested before he had been nominated at Minneapolis. It was hoped that the action of the National Republican Convention would be endorsed by all leading Republicans. But, Mr. Harrison has shown a vindictive spirit, and the breach instead of being closed has been widened.

The correspondent of the World further says: "We canvassed the matter very thoroughly among ourselves before Congress adjourned. Sixteen Republican Senators gave it as their honest judgement that it would be better for the Republican party to have Mr. Cleveland elected next fall. The men who have expressed themselves to that effect are Quay and Cameron, Wolcott and Teller, Jones and Stewart, Washburn, Pettigrew, Hausborough, Dubois and Seoup, Sanders and Power, McMillan and Squire and Allen. Each one of these Senators will tell you in confidence that he hopes Harrison will be defeated, and he will also admit that he proposes to do all he can in a quiet way to elect Mr. Cleveland."

"My name is in the [illegible] I have just given you and I speak from a personal knowledge of the situation."

All this is most remarkable. If it is true—and true it seems to be—the defeat of Mr. Harrison is inevitable.

WE have no personal acquaintance with Dr. Exum, the nominee of the Peoples' party for Governor of North Carolina, but we understand that he is a respectable and honorable citizen. His nomination is not a case of "struck by lightning." The party is in a bad way and needs a doctor, and as Exum was near by he was called in. We understand that he at once prescribed a bandage for the head, "Thompson's Eye Water," and a poultice to the spleen. Later Patient reported to be sinking; pulse low; respiration irregular and difficult; temperature low, occasional cramps and symptoms of convulsions. Dr. Harris, of Raleigh, consulting physician. Taxes and Butler professional nurses.

AT Washington Park, Chicago, on August 17, the trotting mare Nancy Hanks made a mile in 2:07 taking the record which has hitherto been with Maud S. at 2:08¼ and Sunol 2:08¼ on a kite shaped track.

ADDRESS OF THE CLEVELAND AND STEVENSON CLUBS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Brothers:

Before [illegible] Democrats [illegible] ment for [illegible] ment [illegible] Democratic [illegible] and evidence of [illegible] this statement is not wanting. [illegible] spy into their secrets and make innocence the prey of the despoiler. At the mere name of the Force bill [illegible] her lings her babe closer to her bosom, and beauteous maidens swear to die rather than submit to insolence and outrage.

Brothers, Old Line Democrats, come back and renew your allegiance to the party of your fathers. Gather again around the old family altar and swear eternal fidelity to Home, Country, God and Truth.

AHEAD OF ALL.

North Carolina Surpasses all Other Southern States in Cotton Factories.

North Carolina has not [illegible] State [illegible] boys of [illegible] Carolina surpasses any other [illegible].

The Textile Manufacturer [illegible] quite different figures from [illegible] the census of 1892, in regard to the [illegible] cotton mills in the South. [illegible] Number of cotton mills in Georgia [illegible] South Carolina, 57, in North Carolina [illegible]. Number of spindles, Georgia, [illegible] 791, South Carolina, 513,808; North Carolina, 511,961. This gives North Carolina 21,190 spindles over any State in the South.

The Rocky Mount Argonaut says: [illegible] of the above statement that it is a [illegible] one and one that North Carolina should be proud of. Our manufacturing industry is gaining day by day, and [illegible] that all, they are all paying and paying well. Twenty to thirty per cent is realized from many of our mills. Surely the down approach.

Mr. Willoughby Reagle, professional [illegible] has been engaged as instructor in gymnastics and elocution in the Homer School at Oxford.

New Berne will soon have another hay grain and general feed store. It will be opened by Mr. C. L. Spencer, Mr. W. P. Burns, former stand at the market dock about the 1st of September. Mr. Spencer will also carry on a brokerage grocery business.

Dr. B. F. Dixon, President of Greensboro Female College, announces three new teachers for the college the coming session all from the South and all Methodists. Miss Alice Brown who is to have charge of the department of elocution is a near relative of ex President Davis and is considered one of the finest teachers of the whole country.

One of our exchanges says that C. W. S. Pearson, a leading Republican of Morganton, N. C., announces that he will act with the Democratic party. As reason for his change of faith he says that a study of the protective tariff convinces him that the workingman derives no benefit from it, and he has come to the conclusion that the progress of the South is seriously impeded by it.

The Goldsboro Argus says: Maj. W. T. Hollowell left Monday for Hot Springs, Ark., where he goes to join a committee of three of the Supreme Grand Lodge K. of P., of the United States, of which he is one, for the purpose of locating a national sanitarium of the order. There he will go to Kansas City, Mo., as one of two delegates from this State to the session of the Supreme Grand Lodge.

Mr. S. D. Jones, who has a special State agency for the Mutual Life Insurance Company and has established headquarters in Mr. R. R. Nixon's office is doing a very satisfactory business and writing upon good number of policies. There is sound cause for this as Mr. Jones is a stirring business man and the company he represents is a very strong one that offers various forms of very desirable policies.

The Raleigh Observer says: Good news comes from Antioch Alliance of Person county. At their last meeting resolutions condemning the nomination of a candidate by the Durham county convention to oppose A. H. A. Williams for Congress, and also the nomination of a State ticket by the Third party to oppose "our Alliance candidate," Elias Carr for Governor, and other State officers were adopted.

Mr. J. P. Harper of Oliver was in the city last week. He gives us the pleasing information that the Third party is dying out in Jones county. Some of the citizens counted up to see how many adherents the Third party had in Lisbon township and only 11 could be traced. Those who have been considered doubtful and liable to fall away to the Third party idea are coming square out in advocacy of the Democratic tickets and Democratic principles.

The Watch Tower speaks plainly but correctly to its subscribers when it says: "Please do not ask us to discontinue your paper when you are due. Have enough honor to pay what you owe before asking a discontinuance. An editor can learn many things about the morality of his readers. Think of a man who owes two years and refuses to take his paper from the office because you ask him kindly to settle his bill. Such persons will not do to trust. Mark this.

The Mutual Banking Company, controlled by the Iron Hall officials made an assignment Tuesday, and it is expected that with the closing of its doors will come the end of the order of Iron Hall. The bank seems to be practically a branch office of the order. There seems to be a dispute as to the amount of Iron Hall money in the bank. Some of the Iron Hall people claim $713,000, other assert that only the deposit of $400,000, and the $170,000 used to deal in spot the cotton last spring.

Mr. J. J. Royal, a Mormon convert, takes E. C. Hall United States Commissioner, at the county hearing, held him bound over to court, his personal recognizance being taken in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the next term of the United States Court. He was charged by Wm. Jones, the local postmaster at Mansfield City, with impeding the United States mail by the postmaster. The evidence was conflicting, but it showed that Royal cursed the man at Jones. Mr. Royal requested the magistrate to issue a warrant for the arrest of the man who had finally ended by Jones telling Mr. Royal to get out of his post office and never come in it again, and he demanded and showed against Mr. Royal a light fight ensued but the interference of Mr. John Willis parted them and no harm being done. This was the cause of the arrest. Mr. M. D. W. Stevenson was Mr. Royal's attorney.
