New Berne Weekly Journal.

VOLUME XXI. NEW BERNE, CRAVEN COUNTY, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 26, 1898—SECOND SECTION NUMBER 47

DIPLOMACY AGAIN.

Spain Returns to it When Instructing Her Commissioners.

They are Told Not to Touch on the Question of the Philippines. Madrid Irritated by Cuban Conduct. Junta Urges the Cuban to Submit.

Special to Journal.

WASHINGTON, August 24. [illegible] from London this afternoon [illegible] information has reached the [illegible] Agency in regard to the instructions given to the Spanish members of the Peace Commission [illegible]

The text of the royal decree to the Spanish commissioners reads that, "Their mission is to agree with the United States commissioners to execute the conditions of the evacuation of Cuba, Porto Rico and other islands of the Antilles, and to decide [illegible]

Spanish Interests.

A feeling of irritation is [illegible] at Madrid at the manner in which it is proposed to treat the question of the cessation of hostilities as important political personages [illegible] the situation.

"If that is continued," says Spain, "we find ourselves compelled to stop the repatriation of the Cuban troops, unless the United States [illegible] that Spanish interests will be safeguarded from the political [illegible]

Urged to Submit.

The representatives of the Cuban [illegible] in this country are [illegible] to the Cuban [illegible] Spanish [illegible] Cuba [illegible]

Letters in the Madrid [illegible] Cuba [illegible]

No Word of the Protocol.

WASHINGTON, August 24. [illegible] be the [illegible] Spanish commissioners [illegible] "Their mission is to agree with the United States commissioners to execute the conditions of the evacuation of Cuba, Porto Rico and other islands of the Antilles, and to decide [illegible]

The text of the royal decree to the Spanish commissioners reads that, "Their mission is to agree with the United States commissioners to execute the conditions of the evacuation of Cuba, Porto Rico and other islands of the Antilles, and to decide [illegible]

The action