

Meetings Held for Outreach Mission

Itzak Gazit, Israeli tour guide for Mission.

Edith Steindler, UJA Missions coordinator Southern Region.

Phil and Maddie Joffe, chairs of Mission.

Group at a Mission meeting.

The Community Outreach Mission to Israel, scheduled for March 5-15, 1989, is one of the most exciting and dynamic missions drawing leadership from the entire country for an intense 10-day Israel experience. We expect to have a large contingent going, but there are still openings for more. Maddie and Phil Joffe are the leaders of our delegation. Meetings are being hosted by the Joffes and other members of the Mission.

This year's group will leave from Atlanta and fly to Amsterdam en route to Israel. In Amsterdam, they will be the guests of the Amsterdam Jewish community. Then they will land at Ben Gurion Airport in Tel Aviv for the beginning of an inspiring journey. Arrangements can be made for an extended stay in Israel. The Outreach Mission is partially subsidized, which strongly encourages North American Jewry to participate in the mission program and give support to Israel economically and emotionally by traveling to the land.

For further information call Phil and Maddie Joffe, 554-6705 or Mike Minkin, Federation executive director, 366-5007.

As of October 1, only 155 days are left to leave for this Israel Mission. Are you joining us?
