

CRC to Present Dr. Albright Responsibility and Service is Theme of CJF Assembly

The Community Relations Committee of the Charlotte Jewish Federation announces that Dr. Robert L. Albright, president of Johnson C. Smith University, will speak to the Jewish community. Dr. Albright has recently returned from a mission to Israel sponsored by the ADL (Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith) for presidents and top executives of member institutions of the United Negro College Fund. Dr. Albright will speak of his impressions of Israel and its current situation.

Dr. Albright

Dr. Albright will speak at a community-wide Shabbat service hosted by Temple Beth El V'Shalom and Temple Israel on Friday, October 21, at 8 p.m. The program will be held at Temple Israel.

Region of the United Synagogues of America and sits on the National Advisory Board of the United Synagogues.

Jerry is a past president of the Charlotte Regional Ballet, serves on the National Board of the National Shoe Retailers and is on the Advisory Board of Visitors of Mercy Hospital.

His wife Barbara has also been extremely active in the community having served for many years on the board of Hadassah and is a past president of the organization. She has also been a dedicated worker for Temple Israel Sisterhood and the NC Association of Jewish Women.

Barry Farber is the host of the Barry Farber Show, a popular New York radio talk show, and is a prominent, internationally recognized newscaster. He has been in and out of Russia and countries behind the Iron Curtain on numerous occasions. He also writes articles which have appeared in numerous magazines and is the author of a new book, Making People Talk. He is a linguist, being fluent in Yiddish, Finnish, Hungarian, Indonesian, Chinese, Serbo-Croatian, Russian, Portuguese and writes other languages more common to Western Europe. A Phi Beta Kappa graduate of UNC-CH, he served as captain of its wrestling team.

Since the Israel Bond organization was founded in 1951, total sales are now near the $9 billion mark. These loan funds helped build Israel's roads, railways and power stations, and developed its National Water Carrier, ports, refineries, industrial parks and science-based industries. Please attend this special evening to honor Jerry Levin and to support Israel Bonds!

"Areyvim Zeh Bazeh: Responsibility and Service — Federation's Role in Creating a Caring Community" will be the theme of the 57th General Assembly of the Council of Jewish Federations, Nov. 16-20, 1988 at the Marriott & Sheraton Hotels in New Orleans.

The Assembly, the largest annual gathering of North American Jewish community leaders, is expected to draw over 3,000 delegates who will participate in more than 200 meetings, including plenaries, business sessions, forums, symposiums, workshops, seminars, receptions and other events.

Bobbi Bernstein, president of the Charlotte Jewish Federation, is pleased to announce Charlotte's strong contingency who will travel to the General Assembly this year. Along with Bernstein and Mike Minkin, executive director, are Bobby Damsky, Larry Gerber, Ruth Goldberg, Vicki Hopkins, Richard A. Klein, Alan Kronovet, Harry Lerner, Paul Putterman, Adrienne Rosenberg, Sally Schrader, Joel Goldman, Sandra Weinstein, Anita and Herman Blumenthal.

In keeping with this year's theme, Mandell L. Berman, President of CJF, will deliver the Keynote Address during the opening plenary session on Wednesday evening, Nov. 16.

Also scheduled to speak at the General Assembly are Simcha Dinitz, Chairman of the Jewish Agency Executive and Former Israeli Ambassador to the United States; Professor Arnold Eisen, Chairman of the Department of Judaic Studies at Stanford University, and Mendel Kaplan, Chairman of the Jewish Agency

Board of Governors.

More information on the General Assembly and registration forms are available at our Federation office.

The Council of Jewish Federations is the national association of 200 Jewish Federations, the central community organizations which serve nearly 800 localities embracing a Jewish population of more than 5.7 million in the United States and Canada.

Established in 1932, CJF helps strengthen the work and the impact of Jewish Federations by developing programs to meet changing needs, providing an exchange of successful community experiences, establishing guidelines for fund raising and operations and engaging in joint planning and action on common purposes dealing with local, regional and international needs.
