Federal Relief Here in December $10,084

Average of $8.49 for the 963 Families on Rolls in Moore County

Moore county received $10,084.46 in federal relief funds during the month of December, an average of $8.49 per family, according to the report just made public by Mrs. Thomas O'Berry, State relief administrator. This county had 963 families on relief, which, with individuals, made 1,045 cases handled in the county, or a total of 4,850 persons. This is an increase of 11.3 per cent over the month before, bringing those on relief to 17.2 per cent of the total population of the county.

North Carolina received a total of $1,722,667.83 in relief during the month of December, the larger part of which, $1,376,387.92, went to the units, counties with a few city units, Mrs. O'Berry reports. The balance of the fund was distributed as follows: transient centers, $41,744.97; emergency education, $70,055.88; student aid, $33,351.27; State ERA, $67,531.04, and State purchases, $133,596.75.

The State had 324,240 individuals on relief in December, made up of 65,621 families, or, with individuals, 73,813 cases, an increase of 8.8 percent in case load over the month before. In the State 10.2 per cent of the total population was on relief. The average paid out per family on relief was $14.37.

Guilford College Choir Here on Sunday

The Guilford College Choir, one of the finest musical organizations in the South, will sing at the Church of Wide Fellowship Sunday night, February 24. The people of the Sandhills know this choir. Their appearance here in former years has been the greatest musical event of the season.

The chorus of forty-six men and women presents a program this year of surpassing beauty. Admission is free, but an offering will be taken to defray the traveling expense of the chorus. It will be advisable to go early to secure a seat. The service begins promptly at 7:30 p. m.

Colored Child Killed by Auto in Carthage

Alleged Driver of Car Held For Superior Court in Charge of Manslaughter

B. B. Rogers, colored, alleged driver an an auomobile which struck and instantly killed James Brower, Jr., a four-year-old colored child of Carthage last Saturday, was in court Monday to face charges of murder and operating an automobile without license. The court found probable cause of guilt as to manslaughter and bound Rogers to Superior Court under bond of $200. Evidence tending to show that the child ran directly into the path of the car was given, but the car is said to have been defective as to brakes.

A verdict of guilty of peeping was given in a case in which Sidney Segal, colored, was charged with an attempt to break and enter the dwelling house of Carl Thompson in Southern Pines. Segal was sent to the roads for 60 days.

Marshall Hilliard and J. C. Nall, white, were in court to answer charges of violating the prohibition law, they having been arrested by a highway patrolman who found a small quantity of liquor in the car which Hilliard was driving. Hilliard was given a 30-day road sentence, suspended upon his payment of a fine of $50 and one-half the costs, and he is not to drive a car for 90 days. Nall's 30-day sentence was suspended upon payment of one-half the costs and upon condition that he refrain from violating any law for twelve months.

Murd Kelly, colored, was bound to Superior Court under bond on a charge of breaking and entering the dwelling house of Curtis Shaw and stealing a shot gun.

Golden Cuffie pleaded guilty to operating while intoxicated an automobile with improper brakes and lights. He was given 30 days, to be suspendedupon payment of a fine of $50 and the costs, and his driver's license was suspended for 90 days.

FINAL BASKETBALL GAMES LOST BY SOUTHERN PINES

The girls' basketball team of Southern Pines School lost both games this week, one to Vass by the score of 22 to 15 and the other to Pinehurst 22 to 10. High scorer for both games was Mary Elizabeth Cameron, who really kept the team in the game. These were the last games this year and proved to be fairly interesting.

The boys lost to Vass and Pinehurst by the scores of 20 to 16 and 24 to 21, both interesting and exciting contests and both lost within the last few minutes of play. Bob Beck and George Pottle were the high scorers in the Vass game and Bob Beck and Ed Newton in the Pinehurst game.
