Be a Volunteer at Shalom Park

By Scott Snyder
Program Director

Evelyn Berger, Coordinator
Volunteer Program

As many of you know, Shalom Park has become an extremely busy complex. Seven days a week, 95 hours every week, the Park is used for many purposes. Did you know there are approximately 20,000 uses each month? With that many uses, there are undoubtedly rough edges that need smoothing out in order for the partners of Shalom Park to run efficiently and effectively. One way this can be accomplished is with an invaluable commodity called volunteers.

Volunteerism has been a vital part in our community for many years. At Shalom Park, we offer the kinds of volunteer opportunities that are unusual and exciting. Whatever your past experiences or expertise might be, Shalom Park has what you are looking for. Our age groups and programs at the Park range from infants to older adults.

Our volunteer program at Shalom Park identifies, trains and matches volunteers with the many tasks that are needed in order to help all of the organizations of the Park. Volunteering provides an extra dimension of service to each organization. In the tremendous age group we cover you will find areas not only in secretarial or clerical assistance, but opportunities to work with youngsters, driving for older adult programs, working in our library, etc.

This program is extremely valuable to the partners of Shalom Park, but more importantly, our volunteer program will help train and provide meaningful work for those individuals who wish to volunteer and upgrade their vocational skills. If you enjoy being part of a people environment and/or want to make better use of your free time, give us a call. Volunteering at Shalom Park can and will be very satisfying. For more information, please call Evelyn or Scott, 366-5007.

Art on Display At Shalom Park

Two recent acquisitions of artwork have been hung in the Jewish Community Center by the Visual Arts Committee of the Foundation.

"Going to Services," a lithograph by Felix Fabian, was a gift of Allan Berger in memory of his wife, Charlotte, and may be seen in the Chai Lounge. The piece is from a portfolio of drawings on Jewish themes done in a spontaneous pen technique.

A lyrical ink drawing of a woman by Rita Gambinski, now hanging in the Adult Lounge, was given by Rose and Abe Luski in honor of the 50th wedding anniversary of Drs. Irene and Albert Kosove.

An exhibition and sale of artwork by Florence Jaffa and Hermann Kosak, which opened Dec. 1, will remain in the Speizman Galleries through Jan. 15. A reception for the artists will be held from 2-4 p.m. on Dec. 4.

Sponsored by the Visual Arts Committee of the Foundation and the Jewish Community Center, this show is part of the continuing series "Shows of Local Artists."

Shulimson Children Library Fund

By Amalia Warshenbrot

It was not until my first week working at the Morris and Sylvia Speizman Jewish Library, that the Becky Shulimson Memorial Children Library Fund got my attention. One of the library volunteers told me that she chose to help at the library because she had been a close friend of Becky.

number of requests far exceeded the number of books available. It was very evident that more children's holiday books are needed. Next year we will have them thanks to the thoughtful contributions of the members of HaLailah BBW. If anyone would like to purchase a book (give a cash donation) a special book plate will be placed in these books for the children's section.

This book has been purchased from thoughtful contributions to the Becky Shulimson

Memorial Childrens Library Fund

A project of HaLailah Chapter
B'nai B'rith Women

When Penny Eisenberg, president of HaLailah Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women, told me that this year the members had collected almost $700 for this ongoing project, school was into its second week and Rosh Hashanah was just around the corner.

There was a tremendous demand for high holiday books by teachers, children from the preschool, students of Temple Beth El V'Shalom and Temple Israel's religious schools. The Now all the classes in the religious schools of the Temples, nursery school and Lubavitch school visit the library for an age appropriate program and the children are encouraged to check out books. Due to the small number of books we can not schedule visits of more than one class of an age group a week. Our library will grow and children's knowledge will grow through your contributions to the Becky Shulimson Memorial Children's Library Fund. For more information contact me at 366-5007.
